ACTIVE MINISTER

JERRY MITCHELL JAMES

December 31, 1947 – June 23, 2012

Born in Dillon, South Carolina, Jerry James was the son of the late Doane Epps James, Sr. and Mamie 'Nick' McMillan James. He is survived by his wife, Mary "Tisha" McClung James, a brother Marion James, and two sons Kyle (Heather) and Todd (Jennifer) James. And a grandson, Bentley James.

Rev. James was a graduate of Wofford College and Emory University. He was ordained a United Methodist Minister and served ten appointments in Louisiana and South Carolina.

During his time in the Louisiana conference he served the Louisiana Interchurch Conference, on the St. Mark's Community Centers Board and as the New Orleans District Youth Coordinator. He also served on the South Carolina Conference Committee on Congregational Development.

He was an Army officer during the Vietnam era. He was a Rotarian and a Paul Harris Fellow. And, as a certified reading therapist he taught reading in the state prisons. He served on the boards of the McCormick Children's Home and the Anderson and McCormick counties Habitat for Humanity.

After a 4 year battle with brain cancer his body was donated to the MUSC Anatomical Gift Program.

RETIRED MINISTERS

D. ANITA BOZARDT

July 12, 1943 – April 8, 2013

Dr. D. Anita Bozardt entered into rest April 8, 2013. Anita was a very gifted and talented Educator and Minister. She graduated from the University of Georgia with a Doctorate Degree in Science and degrees in Education. As an Ordained United Methodist Minister, she served in the Georgia and S.C. conferences and retired in June 2011.

Anita served in 1986 as an Ambassador to China for the U.S. government, touring interior China for two weeks. She set up programs of Education in Katmandu, Nepal for the United States in three Universities. She was a member of National Science Teachers since 1965. Anita was listed in "World Who's Who of Women in Education in 1977" and was a member of the League of Women Voters and American Association of University Women.

Anita is survived by sisters, Carolyn B. Evans of Fayetteville, Ga. and Alice Evelyn Bozardt of Roswell, Ga. Her brothers George W. Bozardt, III and Dealie E. Bozardt preceded her in death. Many nieces, nephews and cousins will miss her.

Graveside services were conducted at Mt. Hope Cemetery in Florence with The Reverend Mark McClendon officiating.

JAMES MONROE BRADLEY, JR.

August 15, 1934 – December 28, 2012

The Reverend James Monroe Bradley, Jr., was born August 15, 1934 in Mayesville, SC to the late Reverend James Monroe Bradley, Sr., and Viola Wilson Bradley formerly of Mayesville. Mayesville is a small town located in Sumter County. Also, Mayesville is the birthplace of Dr. Mary Jane McLeod Bethune founder of Bethune Cookman University. Reverend Bradley is a direct descendant on his father's side of the family to Dr. Bethune. To her eldest relatives in Mayesville and Sumter, her nickname was Mamm and she was called Aunt Mamm. At birth, Rev. Bradley was a miracle to be alive. He was born prematurely and his mother Viola carried him for seven months according to one of his oldest relatives Mrs. Pattie Gibson of Mayesville. James as he was affectionately called was no longer than a two and a half quart glass jar. His mother Viola would place him on a pillow to fold him in her arms. His bed was the top drawer of his mother's dresser.

At a young age he received Christ and he became a member of St. Mark United Methodist Church in Mayesville, SC. Rev. Bradley and his siblings Jeremiah William, Lucille Elizabeth, Dennis Albertus and Essie Ruby knew about God and hard work. Their mother was a quiet Christian woman and devout member of St. Mark United Methodist Church. During the years of the 1940's up to the mid 1950's, Rev. Bradley, Sr., better known as Mr. Jimmie, had owned a restaurant, "Bradley's Restaurant", whereby he and his wife Viola and a cousin Janie Mae Cousar did all the cooking and full operations of the restaurant. Rev. Bradley, Jr., and his two sisters (Lucille and Ruby) did all the heavy lifting for their parents. Rev. Bradley, Jr., would clean two hundred pounds of fish daily, he would carry take-out orders in the red radio flyer wagon to customers in the community.

Rev. Bradley received his formal education in the Sumter County District and he graduated from the Mayesville Institute. Rev. Bradley's parents have a first and second grade education respectively. His father, Rev. Bradley, Sr., taught himself to read by reading the Holy Bible. However, both parents wanted their five children to continue their education by going to college. Furthermore, Dr. Mary Jane McLeod Bethune was the first college graduate in the family and she was a lightning rod in the Mayesville community especially to the African American children who wanted to expand and to broaden their horizons by going to college. Rev. Bradley revealed to his son James, III, several years ago that his eldest sister Lucille Elizabeth Bradley Carolina, who was a school teacher in Jasper County during the 1950's up to the early 1960's, used her teacher's salary to enroll her younger sister Essie Ruby Bradley-Richburg and James, Jr., to begin college during the same time at Morris College in Sumter, SC. Rev. Bradley did one year at Morris College and he later transferred to Claflin University in Orangeburg, SC where he graduated with a degree in Religious Education in 1956. His sister Lucille has financially assisted her brother during his years at Claflin University. According to Rev. Bradley he probably would not have made it into ministry without the help from his sister, Lucille. Afterwards he went to Gammon Theological Seminary in Atlanta, GA, and received his Masters of Divinity in 1957. During the year of 1964, Rev. Bradley received his Doctoral Degree in the Ministry from Drew University in New Jersey. In 1964 Rev. Bradley was the youngest appointed District Superintendent for the S.C. United Methodist Conference. Also, in 1965 he was a delegate from the South Carolina United Methodist Conference attending the World United Methodist Conference in Europe; whereby, he travelled to London, England; Paris, France; Rome, Italy; and Venice, Italy.

Rev. Bradley served as a United Methodist minister for 42 years in the state of South Carolina; where he was a positive role model and mentor. His churches were Wesley UMC in Aiken; St. Paul UMC, Camden; Wesley UMC, Cheraw; Silver Hill UMC, Spartanburg; District Superintendent of the Orangeburg District; Emmanuel UMC, Sumter; Wesley UMC, Charleston; St. Mark UMC and St. Matthew UMC, Taylors; Wesley UMC, Hopewell UMC, St. James UMC, Cedar Grove UMC, and St. James Charge, York.

He was united in marriage for 54 years to the love of his life, Nellie Mae Chambers Bradley a retired school teacher of Cheraw, SC and to this union two children were born. His daughter, Rosemary Nell Bradley who was a schoolteacher for the Clarendon County School District, preceded him in death. His son, James Monroe Bradley, III, was a retired police officer for the Columbia Police Department and an active commissioned State Constable for the state of SC. Rev. Bradley is survived by a host of relatives. Rev. Bradley departed this earthly life to meet his Savior Jesus Christ on Friday, December 28, 2012 at McLeod Regional Medical Center in Florence, SC.

Lastly and finally to his lifelong testament, Rev. Bradley, Jr. was best remembered by his fiery sermons which touched and moved the countless souls during his ministry. During his sermons he would look outward to the congregation and he would say,

"Are you listening?" "Are you listening?" "Are you listening?"

JAMES “JIM” WAKEFIELD COVINGTON

September 25, 1935 – August 17, 2012

Born in Spartanburg, South Carolina, Rev. Jim Covington was the son of the late Kirby Stokes and Kathleen Wakefield Covington.

He is survived by his beloved wife of nearly 54 years, Jane Wilkerson Covington; daughter, Kathy Covington; son, Andrew “Sandy” Covington; and sister, Kay Covington Green.

He graduated from Spartanburg High School and Davidson College, and attended Biblical Seminary of New York and Asbury Theological Seminary in Wilmore, KY. He then earned a Master of Divinity Degree from Candler School of Theology, Emory University in Atlanta, GA.

Rev. Covington was a retired minister of the South Carolina Methodist Conference. In 1960, his first appointment was to organize a new church in Greenville, SC, Aldersgate United Methodist Church, and then he went on to serve Wayne UMC-Georgetown and Belvedere UMC-Belvedere. In 1973, Jim was appointed Conference Evangelist of the UMC, and then became an Independent Evangelist from 1976-1991, residing in Greenville, SC. Jim rejoined the UMC in 1991, and served the following churches: Waterloo/Soule Chapel, Langley, Pentecost, Buffalo, and Aldersgate UMC in Inman. He retired in 2003 and was then called to serve Loree UMC.

Rev. Covington was also the President and Founder of Christian Life Ministries, a non-profit ministry which worked in conjunction with Psalm 91 Ministry, to send thousands of Psalm 91 books and bandanas to troops in the Middle East.

At the time of his death, he attended Morningside Church in Spartanburg, SC, where he was a member of the ACTS Sunday School Class. He was a member of the Full Gospel Business Men’s Fellowship International and was part of a “Lunch Bunch” with his High School buddies.

He was a wonderful Bible teacher, husband and father, and taught everyone he knew about the saving grace of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Upon Jim’s passing, a legacy was left in the form of a letter to his children, in which he shared:

One of the most important lessons I have learned is: “Do not be in a hurry to leave the King’s presence,” Ecclesiastes 8:3. Oh, I know that [in this verse] King Solomon is talking about obeying authorities. But, when the Holy Spirit quickened this verse to my heart, I knew He was speaking to me about the King of Kings and the Lord of Lords. He was telling me that once I come into His very real presence, that I was not to be in a hurry to leave.

The family of Jim Covington appreciates the wonderful life that Jim provided for them, and the consistent example he set, in following the Lord Jesus Christ all the days of his life!

IVERSON GRAHAM, JR.

January 12, 1924 – April 17, 2013

Dr. Iverson Graham, Jr., eldest child of Laura Stoney and Iverson Graham, Sr., was born January 12th, 1924, in Allendale, S.C., and died at age 89 on April 17th, 2013, in his Florence, S.C. home.

His numerous achievements and varied contributions from decades of an almost inexhaustible abundance of resourcefulness, continues to exercise influence across a multi-faceted landscape of humanitarian causes, marking many a milestone with triumphant results.

Thoroughly grounded with utmost integrity, Dr. Graham sought self-expression in serving others through overlapping, interdisciplinary fields, including:

- Marriage and Family Counseling
- Pastoral Care and Counseling: Ministerial Staff and Military Chaplains
- Instructing Classes: Columbia University and more local institutions
- Hosting Seminars / Leading Family Workshops Nationwide

- Creating a Weekly News Column
- Directing: Pastoral Care and Counseling for S.C. United Methodist Conference (20 years)
- Co-Founding: ASC Technologies
- Board of Trustees: Wofford College
- Board Member: Educational, Political, and Medical Committees.
- Owner/Director: Family Therapy Associates, Florence, S.C.

Upon graduating Wofford College, he enlisted in the Navy and was stationed at Pearl Harbor during WWII. Afterward, he obtained post-graduate degrees from Yale, Drew, and Columbia Universities.

His first pastorate was Little River United Methodist Church, Little River, S.C, which was also his father's first pastorate. He later pastored Bethany Congregational Church in New Haven, Conn., Greene Ave. United Methodist Church in Brooklyn, N.Y., The First United Methodist Church in Red Bank, N.J., and completed his career at Central United Methodist Church, in Florence, S.C.

During the turbulent 1960's, Dr. Graham's advocacy paralleled his career trajectory in pursuit of social justice, ethnic equality, and civil rights, as he assumed a strong stance to help chart and advance an upward course toward a more cohesive society by fostering positive growth in racial relations.

Though multiple opportunities for professional advancement were offered, many of which necessitated perpetual absence from home life, Dr. Graham valued his wife, Geraldine, and their two children, Susan and Iverson III, above further career ambitions.

Ever dedicated and self-sacrificial, he remained the quintessential family man.

His family eventually expanded to include daughter-in-law, Lynn, son-in-law, Jim, and two grandchildren, Chasen Kershner, and Catherine Dudley.

Dr. Graham's charismatic effervescence, sparkling wit, and trademark good humor, were eclipsed only by a deeply abiding love for mankind, and undergirded with a profound sense of daily purpose, duty, and honor.

A peacemaker, he obeyed the Biblical admonition to seek justice and walk humbly with God, and consequently, enjoyed a blessed life.

Highly esteemed himself, Dr. Graham abounded in loving acceptance for his fellow man, and remained equally favored by others through lifelong exceptionalism. Thus, his good deeds do follow him...

J. ARTHUR GRAHAM, SR.

June 7, 1922 – July 6, 2012

J. Arthur Graham, Sr. (BTh, MDiv, DTh.) was born in Horry County, South Carolina, on June 7th, 1922. He was the son of the late Huey Bryant Graham and the Reverend Laura Jones Graham.

In 1947, J. Arthur Graham was a young man on fire. Freshly matriculated from seminary, he accepted his first pastorate. After two years he left that congregation with a new sanctuary, classrooms and social hall, but he stole the piano player. He and Virginia Eloise Pate (the pianist) were married on May 22, 1949. Together they embarked on a 44 year journey in the ministry.

Rev. Graham joined the SC Conference of the United Methodist Church in 1969. Subsequently, he ministered to Bethel UMC(Rock Hill), Kershaw UMC, Cokesbury UMC(Charleston), Pamplico UMC, Turbeville UMC and Antioch UMC(Rock Hill). Following his official retirement in 1989, he accepted a retired supply assignment at Folly Beach UMC. Then came Hurricane Hugo. Rev. Graham was instrumental in the recovery effort. His diligence to the people of Folly Beach was illustrative of the Shepherd/Servant philosophy that was the hallmark of his ministry.

He is survived by his wife of 63 years Eloise Pate Graham and their four children: Elaine Graham Misskelley, J. Arthur Graham, Jr. (Lisa Ferguson), K.C. Graham (Stephen DellaLana) and C. Denise Graham (Hope DeZern).

His final years were marked by illness and frailty. But, even through his decline, he continued to inspire all who passed his way with humor and resolute faith. Surrounded by Family in the home he loved on the Isle of Palms, SC, he died on July 6, 2012.

CHARLES A. GRAVES

June 12, 1920 – November 8, 2012

The Reverend Charles A. Graves, 92, of Spartanburg, died Thursday, November 8, 2012, at White Oak Estates-Spartanburg. Born June 12, 1920, in Marion, SC, he was a graduate of Latta High School. Bethel Church elected him Pastor Emeritus in 1991.

Since 1991, he has led in dozens of Stewardship Programs in churches across South Carolina. As a pastor, Dr. Graves was noted for remembering the names of his members. Many stories were told about this ability of his. He was also known for his preaching style, using stories and humor to illustrate his points.

Dr. Graves attended the Citadel as a veteran student and graduated as first honor graduate in 1953. He received his theological training at the Candler School of Theology, Emory University, graduating in 1955 with a Master of Divinity degree. The Citadel awarded him with an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree in 1979.

Dr. Graves was a navigator on a B-29 aircraft in World War II. He flew thirty missions against Japan and was awarded the Air Medal with two oak leaf clusters and the Distinguished Flying Cross with an oak leaf cluster. He served on numerous boards and agencies of the South Carolina Conference. Among these were the Board of Church and Society, the Board of Missions, the Board of Health and Welfare (secretary for four years and chairman for four years), the Equitable Salary Commission, and the Council on Finance and Administration (secretary for four years and president for four years). Dr. Graves also served at various times as a trustee of Spartanburg Methodist College, Epworth Children's Home, and the Southeastern Jurisdiction Agency for the Retarded. Dr. Graves belonged to civic clubs in the towns in which he lived. These included the Lion's Club, the Rotary Club, and The Kiwanis Club in Spartanburg where he served as president in 1980, and a second term in 2002-2003. In 1998, he was awarded the Distinguished Service Award and was made a life-member of The Kiwanis Club.

Dr. Graves is listed in Who's Who in South Carolina, and in Who's Who in Methodism. He is the author of two books: The Life, Stories and Prayers of Charlie Graves and Selected Sermons, Prayers and Specials of Charlie Graves. He was also a contributor to a book of Communion sermons, In Remembrance of Me.

Survivors include his beloved wife of 62 years, Virginia James Graves; daughter, Becky Parkins and her sons, Sam and his wife Sara of Crozet, VA, and Andrew and his wife Bridget of Salem, VA; daughter, Caryl Jones and her husband Chris and sons, Jacob and Cory of Hendersonville, NC; his sister, Mary Ellen Gerety and her daughter, Fran of Salem, OR; sister-in-law, Jeanette Graves and her sons, Anderson and Charles of Winter Haven, FL; niece, Ann Austin of Blenheim, SC; niece, Dr. Alexa Schlimmer and her husband Jim of Chicago, IL; great-grandchildren, Jack and Carter Parkins of Crozet, VA, and Mara Parkins of Salem, VA; a number of dear nieces and nephews of his wife's family and numerous cousins of the Low Country of SC.

WILLIAM THOMAS HOLROYD

July 28, 1923 – April 18, 2013

The Reverend William Thomas Holroyd died on April 18, 2013. Born in Greenville on July 28, 1923, Tom was a dedicated clergy member of the South Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church.

He was a United States Army Veteran having served in the American and Mediterranean Theaters. Rev. Holroyd was a graduate of Clemson College and the Candler School of Theology at Emory University.

During his ministry he was the first pastor of Trinity UMC, Anderson, which he helped to organize, and Sandy Springs UMC, Sandy Springs; Epworth Children's Home, Columbia, where he later served on the Board of Trustees; Bellinger's Chapel, Fairfax and Brunson UMC; Trinity UMC, York; Gramling UMC; India Hook UMC and Aldersgate UMC, Rock Hill; Bethel UMC, Chester; Lyman UMC; Few's Chapel UMC, Greer and Jackson Grove UMC, Travelers Rest.

He was a faithful volunteer during his retirement for Hospice of the Upstate, Meals on Wheels in Pickens County, Gleaning House Ministry of Pickens, and the House Calls program of the Pickens County Library.

Survivors include his devoted wife of 64 years, Malinda Jennings Holroyd; five sons: Ross and wife, Claudine; Will and wife, Carole; Phil; Lee and wife, Patti; John and wife Ruth; one daughter Jenni Thompson and husband, Terry; four grandchildren: Alaina Goss, Allie, Nic and Samuel Holroyd; and four great-grandchildren: Cole, Asher, Lillie and Pearson Goss.

No finer tribute to Tom can be made than the one by a respected friend: "Tom was the perfect embodiment of what a Christian ought to be."

EDWARD LAWRENCE MAINOUS

December 26, 1929 – November 19, 2012

The Reverend Edward Lawrence Mainous, the son of Conley and Layton Mainous, was born in Booneville, KY on December 26, 1929. He died peacefully after a long struggle with cancer while surrounded by family and life-long friends on November 19, 2012. He came to know the Lord in 1947 and was called to the ministry in 1948. He preached his first sermon and graduated high school in 1949 before attending Asbury College in Wilmore, KY, where he met his wife Dorothy. His first appointment in the United Methodist Church was at Clifty and Island City in Kentucky in 1950. He remained in the ministry up to the time of his death 62 years later. He attended Iliff seminary in Denver and Emory School of Divinity in Atlanta. He and Dorothy were married on June 13, 1954 and had three children, Carolyn, Steve, and James. He joined the South Carolina Conference in 1954 where he served as a pastor until his death. During his time in the conference he served at Fairview UMC, Orville UMC, Victor UMC, Christ UMC, and Trinity UMC, where he served until his retirement in 1995. He then moved to Westminster, SC where he served Westminster UMC and Chicopee UMC as retired supply.

Throughout his life Ed loved the Lord above all else. This was followed closely by his family, his congregation, and people at large. He touched people in both big and small ways every day as he lived his life in a shining example of faith and service. He was always there for people in times of crisis, need, and celebration, and always enjoyed Christian fellowship. One of his favorite songs was "Roses Will Bloom Again", which he sang with all of his children and grandchildren at the celebration of his last sermon. During his illness his faith and trust in the Lord grew stronger and his prayer journal reflected prayer not for him, but always for others. He was faithful to the end of his life. He died on Monday evening November 19, 2012 just 12 hours after the unexpected death of his youngest brother Floyd. His life was a testament to love, sacrifice, and service, as is borne out by the thousands of lives he touched and the countless stories of humor, gratitude, and celebration. We can truly say of Ed that God gained a great saint upon his death with nothing left behind for him to do.

EDWARD CROSLAND MCLEOD
December 21, 1927 – February 2, 2013

The Reverend Edward Crosland McLeod was born December 21, 1927 in Bennettsville, South Carolina to the late John Preston and Olga Crosland McLeod. He answered the call from labor to reward on Saturday, February 2, 2013 at Carolina's Hospital System after an illness.

While attending the public schools in Marlboro County, he began working at the age of 10 on automobiles in his father's garage in Blenheim, South Carolina. He continued his education at Hampton Institute in Hampton, Virginia majoring in Trade and Industrial Education and Auto Mechanics. After graduating, he became employed by the Buick Division of General Motors. He later began his teaching career as an auto mechanics instructor at Wright High School in Blenheim, South Carolina. He was called to active military duty in the Army in 1950. During his tour of duty, he attended many schools on wheel and track vehicles at the Armored School in Fort Knox, Kentucky. He was honorably discharged at the rank of Master Sergeant. Upon returning to Bennettsville after serving his country, he became involved in auto racing and opened McLeod's Garage. His slogan was: "More gas for your dough, McLeod's Garage is the place to go."

In August of 1983, he was employed with Florence School District Four in Timmonsville, South Carolina and continued teaching auto mechanics and auto body repair. While employed with the school system, he was selected as a member of the Citizen Ambassador Program and invited to travel with the organization's Automotive Delegation to Russia and Czech Republic. He also completed further certification studies at South Carolina State University, Clemson University and the University of South Carolina, Columbia. He officially retired in 1995 after completing 45 years of teaching in the public school system. From 1997-2000, he became a State Consultant for Occupational Skills with Florence School District Four. In January 2003, he returned to work with Darlington County School District. He also, was the owner of the Electra Auto Service in Florence, South Carolina.

After receiving the call to ministry in 1985, the Reverend McLeod pastored three United Methodist Churches on the Darlington Charge for one year and the Kingstree East Charge for eighteen years. During his service in this charge, he worked with the Bethel United Methodist Church Community Development Corporation to have five new homes built for needy families in the Lane area. He officially retired from ministry on May 25, 1998; however, he returned as a UMC Retired Minister serving two churches in the Greeleyville Charge. He completed a five-year course of study for ministry and the advanced course of study at Duke University Divinity School.

He was a member of many professional and civic organizations including the Alpha Beta Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc.; National Education Association; The American Council on Education; Black Methodists for Church Renewal; Methodist Manor of the Pee Dee trustee; and the Neighborhood Legal Assistance Program Board of Directors. He was also Director of Disaster Preparation for the United Methodist Churches for Williamsburg County and Clarendon County.

His memory will always be cherished by: His loving wife, Janie H. Williams McLeod of Coward, South Carolina; four beautiful children: Terrance Edward (Candace B.) McLeod of Ladson, South Carolina; Janice La'Vette Williams of Florence, South Carolina; Charis Savitri (Ralph) d'Haiti and Tijuana Marshall Williams of Stratford, Connecticut; six adoring grandchildren: Terrance Justin McLeod, Joshua Triton McLeod, Arianna Faith McLeod and Kaci Sterling McLeod, all of Ladson, South Carolina; Aaron Crosland d'Haiti and Daniel Ryan d'Haiti of Stratford, Connecticut; one brother, Retired Colonel John S. (Pearl) McLeod, Sr., of Orlando, Florida; one sister, Olga Erlene Dawkins of Washington, North Carolina; a special sister-in-law, Ina Henneghan Banks of Coward, South Carolina; one special son, Monta Henneghan of Norwalk, Connecticut.

THOMAS LEONARD MCMINN, JR.

July 4, 1924 – September 14, 2012

Thomas Leonard McMinn, Jr., was born July 4, 1924 in Guntersville, Alabama and entered Life Eternal on September 14, 2012.

Chaplain McMinn grew up in the Anniston, Wellington and Weaver areas in Alabama. Upon graduation from Anniston High School he went to Marion Military Academy. He then graduated from the United States Military Academy at West Point. After an overseas tour of duty in Japan, as an infantry officer, he left the military to earn a Master's Degree of Divinity at Emory University. He then rejoined the military to serve our country as a U.S. Army Chaplain. He was one of the few chaplains to graduate from the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College and was the only chaplain asked to remain to teach at that institution. Chaplain McMinn was also one of the few chaplains to graduate from the U.S. Army War College. He served overseas tours of duty in Korea and Germany. He was the Division Chaplain for the 101st Airborne Division in Viet Nam. Chaplain McMinn retired from the US Army in 1980 as a Colonel after 31 years of service to our country.

He dedicated the last 20 years of his professional life as a pastor to his beloved Union United Methodist Church in Anniston, Alabama. Chaplain McMinn was much beloved by his family, friends and his church family.

He is survived by his wife, Martha McMinn, of Anniston; one daughter, Cynthia McMinn, of Anniston; two sons, Thomas L. McMinn III, of Pell City, and James E. McMinn, of Birmingham; one sister, Frances McDonald, of Rainbow City; five grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; seven nieces and one nephew.

GEORGE CLAY OWENS

September 20, 1921 – July 6, 2012

The Reverend George Clay Owens, 90, widower of Karolyn Knox Keaton Owens, of 1147 Wright School Road, died Friday, July 6, 2012 at Hospice Care of the Piedmont. Born in Smyrna, Georgia, he was the son of the late John and Missy Coker Owens.

George, known in the family as Pop, was a WWII Army veteran who served in the Mediterranean Theatre of operations from 1942 until 1945, during which he was awarded a Purple Heart, Bronze Star, and all battle stars for the Mediterranean Theatre. He attained the rank of Platoon Sergeant.

Pop received an A.B. degree from George Peabody College in Nashville, Tenn. in 1949 and did his seminary work at Duke University. Entering the ministry in South Carolina in 1950, he met and married Karolyn, who attended a church where his uncle, Fred C. Owen, served.

As a local Minister, he excelled in working to make the church a valuable part of the community. When new to a charge, he would visit every member's home during the first few months, encouraging them to be more active in their church and it's programs. Karolyn would always accompany him on these visits and always supported him 100% in his work.

Over the years, many congregations got a real boost from his hard work. Several programs for youth and older adults were started in churches during his tenures, and many building projects were completed. Prior to his retirement in 1991, Pop served the Bethlehem Station (new parsonage built), Lupo Memorial (first building built), McCormick (new parsonage), Lamar, Owings-Brannett (remodeled sanctuary and new classrooms), New Ellenton, Saluda-St. Paul, Lynwood-Trinity, Loris-First, Whitmire, Few's Chapel-Jackson Grove (new social hall), Church of the Good Shepherd (new financial campaign), St. James and Cambridge charges. He served the Homeland Park, Sharon-Shiloh, and other charges as a retired supply.

Active in the affairs of the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church, he served on the Conference's Board of the Ministry and was Secretary of that Board's Commission on Conference Relations. He was a Trustee of Epworth Children's Home in Columbia, a member of the Board of Visitors at Columbia College, and was on other special conference committees.

When serving in a city or town, George would work with other churches of any denomination to have special services for major Christian holidays, such as community wide Thanksgiving Services or scheduled visits to another church's Christmas music program. He also would start a local Ministerial Association, inviting any pastor in the area to attend and share coffee and cake, or a meal at a local restaurant.

In retirement, he was a member of Ebenezer United Methodist Church, Karolyn's home church. He was a member of the Bolton Masonic Lodge in Atlanta, GA for 69 years and recently received an award from the lodge.

Surviving are: sons, Dr. Clay Owens and his wife, Karen of Charleston, SC and John W. Owens and Victoria Bass of Port St. Joe, FL.; grandchildren, Jacob F. Owens, Katherine E. Owens and Corinna F. Owens.

Services were conducted at Ebenezer United Methodist Church with Rev. Andy Bunions and Rev. Charlie Brookshire officiating. Burial followed at Ebenezer United Methodist Church cemetery.

"His master replied, Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you charge of many things. Come and share your master's happiness!" Matthew 25:21

CHARLES GATES PFEIFFER

December 9, 1919 – August 26, 2012

"For the most part, life has been very wonderful for me, and I disagree with Paul when he said that if we do not have any hope of immortality we are of all men the most miserable. For me, life has been very worthwhile, and if there is a future life it is rather like the cherry on top of the frosting on top of the cake. Speculations about the fact of future life I leave to others; the nitty-gritty of future life I leave in the capable hands of God."

Charles Gates Pfeiffer, 92, of Columbia, South Carolina, passed away Sunday, August 26, 2012. Born in Gordon, Nebraska, on December 9, 1919, he was the son of Otto and Velma Gates Pfeiffer. Growing up in the Sandhills of Nebraska, Pfeiffer never lost his love of hunting, fishing, and wide open spaces.

After earning his BA degree from John Fletcher College and his BD degree from Drew University, Pfeiffer enlisted in the United States Navy during World War II, where he served as Navy chaplain aboard the submarine tender USS Howard W. Gilmore and the aircraft carrier USS Ranger. Pfeiffer met his future wife in the naval hospital in Key West, where she was a hospital recreation worker for the Red Cross. After marriage in 1947, the couple returned to Nebraska, where Pfeiffer served several small churches and indulged his passion for hunting rattlesnakes with a pistol. He pursued advanced degrees at George Peabody College for Teachers and Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Tennessee, where the couple's daughter was born in 1951. During this period, Pfeiffer served as minister of the Hermitage Presbyterian Church, the church of President and Mrs. Andrew Jackson.

The family moved to Columbia, South Carolina in 1955 when Pfeiffer was offered the chairmanship of the Department of Religion at Columbia College. Pfeiffer held the first R. Wright Spears Chair at Columbia College and was a founder of the South Carolina Academy of Religion. He indulged his dramatic side by acting in numerous plays, and after roles in such productions as The Bad Seed, Member of the Wedding, and The Ugly Duckling, he was inducted into the Columbia College Players, one of the few faculty members to receive this honor. He served as a class sponsor and regularly coached student teams in the yearly flag football game, the "Ludy Bowl."

Pfeiffer was passionate about educational travel, and instituted a western history travel study during the May interim: Between 1971 and 1989, he took fourteen groups of students camping through the American West in a 1968 VW van, averaging 8,000 miles per trip and putting over 500,000 miles on his Volkswagen. Many students later recalled these trips as the most educational experience of their college careers. In 1990, Pfeiffer was awarded the college's highest honor, The Columbia College Medallion, for exceptional accomplishments, leadership and service.

Pfeiffer's many interests and activities included participating in archaeological excavations in the Middle East, traveling abroad, teaching Sunday school, giving programs at the Shepherds' Centers for Senior Citizens, and addressing service clubs and schools on topics related to the American West. More recently, he became known as a leading authority on the western writer Zane Grey, authoring numerous articles, booklets, and a full length book, Zane Grey: A Study in Values - Above and Beyond the West. He was founder and chairman of the Southeastern Zane Grey's West Society, and served in many other professional organizations.

Survivors include his wife, Leila Rice Pfeiffer, with whom he celebrated 65 years of marriage on August 22nd; his daughter, Rozanna Pfeiffer; and his sister, Frances Palmer of Mountain Home, Arkansas.

THOMAS GLENN ROGERS

December 7, 1931 – September 6, 2012

The Reverend Dr. Thomas Glenn Rogers, Sr., 80, formerly of Surfside Beach, SC, died Thursday, September 6, 2012, at his home. Born on December 7, 1931, in Bishopville, SC, he was the son of the late John H. Rogers and Grace Dozier Rogers Mercuri.

Raised in Florence, he earned his Bachelor of Arts degree from Wofford College and his Masters of Divinity degree from Emory University in 1962. In 1990, he earned his Doctor of Ministry degree from Luther Rice Seminary.

Dr. Rogers served in the United States Army for 28 years, retiring in 1991 as a Lieutenant Colonel. He also was the Chief of Chaplain Service at the VA Medical Center in Augusta, GA, from which he retired in 1993. He served many churches throughout the state in his pastoral ministry with the SC Conference of the United Methodist Church, lastly as associate pastor of Surfside United Methodist Church in Surfside Beach, SC.

MARY ESKEW ROWELL

March 20, 1936 – June 28, 2012

The Reverend Mary Alice Eskew Rowell, 76, of Atlanta, GA, died Thursday, June 28, 2012, at Emeritus at Skylyn Place. Born March 20, 1936, in Anderson, SC, she was the daughter of the late James Harley and Nellie Florence Hamilton Eskew.

Mary was the first female minister appointed by the Bishop to start a United Methodist Church in South Carolina which is now Reidville Road United Methodist Church. She also served as a pastor at several United Methodist churches including Chester and McCormick. She was a former local Spartanburg Chapter and State President of the Jayceettes, board member of Christian Prison Ministries, an Ordained Elder in the United Methodist Church, and board member of Ordained Ministry for the South Carolina United Methodist Conference. She received her M.Div. from Erskine Theological Seminary and BS from Winthrop University.

Surviving are her daughters, Amanda Rowell Keller and husband Scott, and Robin Rowell Slater and husband Greg, all of Atlanta, GA; son, Bob Rowell and wife Kathryn of Spartanburg, SC; grandchildren, Hannah, Sarah, and Olivia Keller, Emma and Aidan Slater, Andrew and Nicholas Rowell; and brother, Thomas Eskew of Atlanta, GA. She was predeceased by a brother, Paul Eskew; and sisters, Harley Eskew and Carolyn Fleishman.

Her funeral service was held on June 30, 2012 at Reidville Road United Methodist Church conducted by the Rev. James A. Williams and the Rev. K. David Caughman with burial in New Silver Brook Cemetery, Anderson, SC.

ROBERT BRADFORD WAY

September 28, 1924 – January 8, 2013

Chaplain Robert Bradford Way passed away on Tuesday, January 8, 2013 in Givens Estates, Asheville, North Carolina. Born in Ellore, South Carolina on September 28, 1924, he was the son of Walter Pinckney and Athena Melette Way. As a Methodist minister, he served the following appointments in the South Carolina Conference for approximately seventeen years: Pinewood, Kershaw, Gramling, Mauldin, Port Royal-Laurel Bay and then served as a chaplain in the U.S. Air Force for twenty-three years. Following his time in the military, Chaplain Way founded and directed a counseling center with a large Methodist church in Satellite Beach, Florida prior to moving to Traveler's Rest, South Carolina. He moved to Polk County in 2007.

Survivors include his wife, Dorothy Coker Way; one son, Robert Bradford Way, Jr. (Rosalyn) of Pittsboro, North Carolina; one daughter, Dorothy Way Martin (C. Thomas) of Columbus, North Carolina; as well as five grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by a son, Walter Pinckney Way, III, who died in 1982. A graveside service was held on January 11, 2013 in Holly Hill Cemetery, Holly Hill, South Carolina with the Reverend Robert B. Way, Jr. officiating with full military honors by the Air Force Honor Guard from the Air Force Base in Charleston, South Carolina.

GEORGE WIGHTMAN WHITAKER, JR.

June 24, 1921 – June 6, 2012

The Reverend Dr. George Wightman Whitaker, Jr., 90, died on Wednesday, June 6, 2012. He was a resident of Agape Senior in Lexington, SC. Born on June 24, 1921, in Williston, SC, he was the son of the late Catherine McNab and George Wightman Whitaker, Sr.

After receiving a BA degree in English from Wofford College, Dr. Whitaker enlisted in the Navy and served his country in the Pacific during World War II (1943-1945), achieving the rank of LTJG. Prior to shipping out, he married his sweetheart, Nancy Harriet Byars of Marion, SC on December 18, 1943. After the war, Dr. Whitaker returned to South Carolina and the eminent birth of his first child. He enrolled in the University of South Carolina and completed an MA degree in English (1947) before moving his young family to Spartanburg to teach English at his Alma Mater, Wofford College (1947-1951). During his time at Wofford, Dr. Whitaker heard and heeded a call to the Methodist ministry. He attended seminary at the Candler School of Theology at Emory University in Decatur, GA, where he received a Bachelor of Divinity degree (1953). Dr. Whitaker began his ministry at Timmons ville and Salem-Timmons ville (1953-1957) and continued on to serve the following churches in the South Carolina Methodist Conference: Aldersgate, North Charleston (1957-1961); Kingstree (1961-1963); Trenholm Road, Columbia (1963-1968); Clemson (1974-1979); Central, Spartanburg (1979-1983); and Trinity, Greenville (1983-1986). During his early tenure as District Superintendent of the Charleston District (1968-1974) Dr. Whitaker enthusiastically, championed the merger of the Methodist Church and The Evangelical United Brethren Church into the United Methodist Church, speaking particularly to the issues of racism and women's rights within the church hierarchy. Other responsibilities within the South Carolina Conference involved his representation on the following boards, councils and committees, as well as in elected and appointed duties: Board of Christian Concerns; Standing Rules; Board of Ministry; Board of Ordained Ministry; Columbia College Board of Trustees (1962-1974); Wofford College Board of Trustees (1978-1986); Conference Council on Ministries; General Conference Delegate; Member Southeastern Jurisdictional Council on Ministries; Jurisdictional Administrative Council. In 1964, he was distinguished by Wofford College with an Honorary Doctor of Divinity degree.

Dr. Whitaker was a genial person, often serious, but with a wonderful sense of humor. He loved God, his family, his friends, and his work. On May 8, 1977, Dr. Whitaker's beloved Nancy lost her battle with cancer. After a time, Dr. Whitaker was blessed with another love and on April 4, 1979, he married Mary Herlong Younginer. In 1986, he retired from the active ministry and he and Mary moved to the beautiful home they had built at Lake Junaluska. There, they were extremely active in many facets of the First United Methodist Church, Waynesville, NC and the Junaluska community, with Dr. Whitaker taking a special interest in building the waterfall and Inspiration Point. Surprising only to them, their dedication was rewarded when, in 1994, they jointly received the Chief Junaluska award. Dr. Whitaker's main hobbies were photography, golf, Elderhostel adventures, Reader's Theatre, travel, including several trips to the Holy Land, and especially gardening. Wherever he lived he planted a new garden that flourished and supplied family and friends with its bounty of fresh vegetables and beautiful flowers!

Dr. Whitaker was predeceased by his first wife and mother of his children; grandson, Michael Neeley; sister, Mary Riley Plott; brothers, Bill and Erwin Whitaker; and his, second wife, Mary. He is survived by his children, George, III (Jessie) of Darlington, Cathy W. Neeley (Ed) of Lexington, and Nancy Lois Whitaker (Hal Ross) of Charleston, 6 grandchildren and 4 great-grandchildren.

LEWE SCOTT WOODHAM

February 4, 1936 – September 23, 2012

Born in Dale County, Alabama, Lewe Scott Woodham was the son of the late Lewe Fletcher Woodham and Lydia Mae Scott Woodham.

He is survived by his wife of 54 years, Betty Ann Watkins Woodham, a sister, Susan Amelia Carter of Boca Raton, Florida, and an aunt, Mabel Baldwin of Mobile, Alabama.

Also surviving are daughters, Lydia Roseann Woodham, Gina Lee Woodham Stubbs, and Sara Jill Woodham Powell, two grandsons, Jeffrey Dale Powell, Jr. and Matthew Cole Powell. Lewe Scott was predeceased by his two-year-old son, Lewe Scott Woodham, Jr.

Scott received his BS degree from Huntingdon College, Montgomery, Alabama, a Masters of Divinity from Emory University, and a Masters in English from Clemson University. He did graduate work at the University of South Carolina, Clemson University, University of Iowa, Lander College, and North Greenville. He was also certified in teaching and counseling.

Reverend Woodham was a retired minister of the South Carolina United Methodist Conference. He served churches in the Alabama-West Florida, Iowa, and South Carolina United Methodist Conferences.

During his service at Lugoff UMC, he wrote articles for the United Methodist Advocate, which included a series of church school lessons. He traveled as a reporter for the Advocate to Israel and wrote articles on his trip-of-a-lifetime to the Holy Land.

Beyond his work in the ministry, he enjoyed writing creatively and wrote many short stories, poems, and made claims to writing the "Great American Novel." He also enjoyed acting and could be found, at times, with the community theater in small roles.

In addition, he worked as a mechanic for a hobby. Just as he ministered to his congregation, he would minister to cars for family and friends. Taking apart engines and putting them together was of great enjoyment for him. Grease under his nails was never an issue.

After retirement, he continued as a counselor for troubled teens. More so, he enjoyed being a grandfather to 2 boys after raising 3 girls. He could count on his grandsons for "help" with his toolbox, growing his tomatoes, or feeding the stray animals he sheltered at times. Equally, they could count on him to share his love of Elvis and Butter Pecan ice cream.

At the time of his death, he was a member of First United Methodist Church, Easley, South Carolina.

MARGARET ANN WILLIAMS DUDLEY

September 2, 1934 – October 29, 2012

Here are a few comments from the one who loved her for so many years and is thankful to God for each year. My wife was a brilliant person who constantly read and volunteered at many things - her two favorite being reading to kindergarten and first grade students and Meals on Wheels.

My most precious memories are of her most often used sense of humor to me in private. One such memory will serve to demonstrate. One day while traveling from one church to another, with her driving so that I could spend time working on my sermon, I heard her just grumbling, "That man was speeding! I had to get up to seventy-five just to get around him." My reward for forgetting my sermon for a while was a great big "Gotcha Ya" smile.

The other memory is that she was a cook "extraordinaire". Was it any wonder that I could often pay her the compliment, "Say anything about my marriage, but please never call it boring."

Darling, to the one who loved you, loves you and always will be the one I consider to be in answer to the question, "Who can find a virtuous wife?" I think I did.

~ Reverend Charlie Dudley

MILDRED AMMON FIELDS

January 26, 1935 – April 11, 2013

Mildred Ammons Fields, native of Atlanta, Georgia, was raised as an only child in a rather affluent urban household, but she eagerly took on the role of "preacher's wife," often living in small towns and raising four children in parsonages much less than she was accustomed to having.

She studied music at Wesleyan College in Macon, Georgia, and Georgia State University in Atlanta and contributed her abilities as organist and director of both adult and children's choirs. She never thought of payment as a church professional because this was her calling as a preacher's wife and values engrained in her by her Christian parents. She was a devoted teammate to her husband, Rev. George D. Fields, for 58 years. Together they served the US Army Chaplaincy, Highland Park Church-Florence, Trinity-Andrews, Grace-Pickens, Woodland-Rock Hill, and Spartanburg Methodist College.

As a mother and grandmother, she took great pride in teaching her children: Grier Fields Diangikes, Michael Fields, Elaine Fields Bermudez, Lynn Fields Proctor, and her grandchildren Jessica Diangikes, Thomas Diangikes, Emilia Bermudez, Nicholas

Bermudez, and George Proctor. She supplemented the family support by teaching piano to private students. She lived as a caring person for all humanity, zealous wife and mother, and devoted servant of the church.

BETTY ELLEN HUCKS HARRIS

March 19, 1930 – November 3, 2012

Mrs. Betty Ellen Hucks Harris, 82, passed away on Saturday, November 3, 2012 in Laurinburg, NC.

Born, March 19, 1930 in Horry County, she was the daughter of the late Joseph Marvin and Harriet Rebecca Hendrick Hucks. She was a member of the Oakland United Methodist Church in Hamer, SC.

She worked as a secretary for the Family Court Judge, Mackie Mills, and was the Associate Probate Judge for Buddy Newton, until his death, when she was appointed Probate Judge. She then was elected Probate Judge, where she served Marlboro County for 12 years. Mrs. Harris was a life-time member of the Probate Judge Association, and a former Woman of the Year for the Pee Dee Council of Girl Scouts.

She loved Christ, and instilled a legacy of Christ into her children and family. She was a very loving, graceful, and benevolent person, who enjoyed spending time with children and people. She was an avid golfer, seamstress, and enjoyed crewel embroidering. She also loved to cook.

Along with her parents, Mrs. Harris was preceded in death by a brother, Truett Hucks; sister, Verma Carabo; and brother-in-laws, Lambuth Carabo, and Billy Daniels.

She is survived by her husband, Gene Austin Harris; son, Joseph "Joey" Harris and wife Lynne; daughter, Betty Jean "B.J." Samuels and husband Gary; brothers, J. Howard Hucks, and Paul Hucks and wife Marie; sisters, Velma Hucks, and Elizabeth Daniels Wells and husband Danny; grandchildren, Joseph Harris, Ellen Turner and husband Jamie, Fletcher Samuels and wife Amber, and Amanda Reiser and husband Lindy; great-grandchildren, Justin and Garrett Turner, Austin Samuels, and Reagan and Emily Reiser; and a sister-in-law, June Hucks; and many nieces and nephews.

CYNTHIA YVONNE REYNOLDS

April 17, 1948 – October 8, 2012

Cynthia Y. Reynolds, of Summerville, passed away Monday, October 8, 2012 at the Hospice Center of Charleston, Mt. Pleasant. A memorial service was held Friday, October 12, 2012 at Knightsville United Methodist Church, Summerville. Burial was in Live Oak Memorial Gardens in Charleston.

Cynthia was born April 17, 1948 in Plant City, Florida, daughter of the late Melvin and Lillian Harned Clements. She was a graduate of St. Andrews High School.

She enjoyed reading, crocheting and cooking. She was a loving mother who enjoyed homeschooling her children. Surviving in addition to her husband, the Reverend Edgar B. Reynolds, III, is a daughter, Dorian McMillan and a son, Jonathan Reynolds both of Charleston and her dog, Shelby.

BETTY JANE ROPER STROTHER

January 4, 1929 - March 13, 2013

Born to Nannie Sexton Roper and Kelus Palmer Roper, Betty was a native of Spartanburg, SC. She had a brother, Doug and a sister, Carolyn (Bobbie). Betty was a graduate of Spartanburg High School and Winthrop College. She did graduate work at Converse College and Wofford College.

On August 25, 1951 she was married to The Reverend Robert Garfield Strother from Plum Branch, SC and on February 3, 1954 they had one daughter.

Betty was a Godly woman who gave of her time and talents and taught many about real love and faith. She set the example, loving everyone she met. She enjoyed cooking, sewing, housekeeping, reading, and Bible study.

Over the years she was a dedicated minister's wife. Together they served churches in Greenwood (Panola UMC), Drayton (Drayton UMC), Union (Green Street UMC), Cowpens (Cannons Campground UMC & Salem UMC), Inman (Inman UMC), Woodruff (Emma Gray UMC), Duncan (Duncan UMC), Pendleton (Pendleton UMC), and Rock Hill (Epworth UMC). During this time she also taught school for 23 years.

She served as an active member of The United Methodist Women and received a lifetime membership. Betty served on the Bethel UMC Senior Adult Council, which involved nursing home and homebound visitation.

She served on the Bethel Altar Guild for many years, and enjoyed reading to the preschool daycare children on a regular basis.

She and "Bob" were married for nearly 62 years. In addition to her husband and daughter, Jane Petty, she was survived by a granddaughter, Melissa Lunsford, a grandson, Michael Triggers, and a great-granddaughter, Breanna Lunsford.

SURVIVING SPOUSES

BLISS JANETTE STANTON AMSPACHER

JUNE 14, 1926 – NOVEMBER 6, 2012

Janette Amspacher, 86, of Purcellville, Virginia, after a few days in the hospital went to be with the Lord. Her children, Linda Bullock Fisher, Edward Dwight Malphrus, Violet Amspacher Cook, and Sylvia Amspacher Huyck survive her. She also has seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren and one deceased grandson.

She enjoyed going to church and participating in the ladies activities and Bible studies. In addition, she and her husband, the late Rev. Merle S. Amspacher, were easily accepted at each church.

She was a great mother, wife and grandmother and great-grandmother and mother-in-law. She enjoyed spending time with family, which she spent the last 16 yrs., traveling from each child's home for about four months throughout the year. She often spent time with her sisters in Floydale, SC visiting friends and other family members.

She worked several years at the Nazerene Church Daycare in Winnsboro, SC. She enjoyed the babies and saw many of the children become adults. Her hobbies were making cards for friends and family, enjoying her high school class reunion get-togethers, and weddings, and holidays with families. She also loved cooking, and drawing pictures of her favorite flowers and birds.

She left family and friends that loved her and will miss her. Her favorite song, "How Great Thou Art" was played as photos of her life were shared with each person at the funeral. She is laid to rest at Greenlawn Perpetual Cemetery in Dillon, South Carolina.

CLARA BRIGHT COLE

August 25, 1918 – August 23, 2012

Clara Bright Cole was born in Bennettsville, SC, to the late Jonas Thomas Bright and Daisy Stubbs Bright. She entered her eternal home August 23, 2012 (two days before her 94th birthday).

She received her education in the Marlboro County School System and Morris College. She taught full time in the Marlboro School System for over 17 years and substituted in other school systems for another ten years.

In 1942 Clara Augustus Bright met and later married an aspiring minister Edgar W. Cole,

Sr. who retired from the South Carolina United Methodist Conference after serving over 40 years. Clara was a perfect wife to her minister husband Edgar. She readily made herself available as church pianist, sang in choirs and served in other needed capacities,

As her mind began to decline, she never forgot GOD. She would constantly ask people "DO YOU KNOW GOD?" In fact, as she was confined in the hospital, approximately 36 hours before her death, she sang JESUS LOVES ME.

Those who cherish and loved this beautiful Lady of GOD are son, Edgar W. Cole Jr., daughter, Gardenia Cole Palsson, daughter-in-law Cynthia Cole, son-in-law Kjell Palsson, 4 grandchildren, 10 great-grandchildren and 6 great-great-grandchildren.

THELMA BEATRICE LLOYD DUBOIS

September 16, 1926 – June 10, 2012

Thelma Beatrice Lloyd DuBois, one of fifteen children entrusted to the union of Laura Mikel Lloyd and Rev. Richard Lloyd by God to nurture, train and love, was born on September 16, 1926 in Camden, South Carolina.

Growing up on a farm enabled her to truly understand hard work; dedication to completion of tasks assigned and allowed her enough space to practice driving with a modicum of safety for her and others. She could entertain you with stories of her 'snatch-and-go' rides as she tried to master the art of shifting gears in an old pickup truck but, as with all else she set her mind to accomplish in her life, she was able to emerge satisfied and more than competent.

The formative years of her education were obtained in the Kershaw County public school system and when the necessary requirements for Graduation were completed, she attended Claflin College (now Claflin University) in Orangeburg, South Carolina. With proper Degree in hand (received in 1947) coupled with an unlimited desire to help prepare youth for their future, she began a career in Elementary Education that spanned 36 years.

Somewhere along the way, Rev. Frederick DuBois met her and, realizing that she was the perfect mate for him, gently persuaded her to agree and was duly blessed with her hand in marriage. Two sons, Robert (now deceased) and Frederick, Jr. added joy to their household. As the family of a Minister, changing home addresses became a normal part of their lives but also provided many opportunities for making new friends.

Knowing that preparing youth entailed more than lessons in a classroom, Mrs. DuBois set out to increase their awareness of life by example, rather than words, subsequently joining many civic and church organizations where she participated with equal fervor and dedication. A very giving, caring, smiling, happiness-injecting loyal, loving person, she never allowed her achievements to make her less tolerant of others, no matter their station in life. Truly a woman who understood and applied the counsel of God from sunrise to sunset, she leaves warm memories of kindness and tenderness with all who knew her.

Spears Choir Member; Active with Evangelism; Supporter of Youth Ministries; Surrogate Grandmother.

Her son, Col. Frederick G. DuBois, whom she loved so dearly and communicated with every day, still whispers the prayer of gratitude at the close of his day that she began praying when he was employed in a place that necessitated his driving a bit of a distance after working all day: "Thank The Lord For Another Day's Journey" and her Amen was "I Love You." She used her journey to love, inspire, encourage and share and expressed no hesitancy at saying the words. "I Love You."

Remaining to smile and be thankful for being a part of her "Journey" is her son, Colonel

Frederick G. DuBois; grandchildren, Rosita Swain, Jeani D. Jones, Victor DuBois, Kyle DuBois, Dionn DuBois; great-grandchildren, Tanesia Thomas, Celesha Butler, Cheyenne Jones, Jade DuBois; great-great-grandchildren, Tajanae Parrish, Jayda Whitehead; brothers and sisters - Walter Lloyd, John Lloyd, Jessie Joy; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and dear friends.

Her son Robert DuBois and granddaughter Melissa DuBois stood with the Angel to welcome her to her heavenly home.

GWEN S. GOSNELL

August 26, 1928 – July 18, 2012

Gwen was born in Landrum, SC to the late Deb and Louise Jones Sanders.

A graveside service was held on Wednesday, July 25, 2012, at Greenlawn Memorial Gardens.

She is survived by two daughters, Susan Simpson Pender of Boiling Springs and Linda Simpson Hamilton of Ventura, CA; a brother, David Sanders of Atlanta, GA; a sister, Carolyn Coates of Spartanburg; three grandsons, Sam David Shell, E5 Evan Pender, and David Bunheirao and his wife Katie; and two great-grandchildren, Lila and Logan Bunheirao.

CAROL M. HIPPI

December 25, 1921 – March 23, 2013

Carol McDaniel Hipp, 91, formerly of 252 Penn Avenue, widow of the Rev. John Gerald Hipp, died Saturday, March 23, 2013 at Hospice House. Born in Marlboro County, she was a daughter of the late William Alexander and Lemma Gibbs McDaniel.

She was a graduate of McColl High School, Furman University and Flora McDonald (now Presbyterian College) in Lynchburg, NC. Mrs. Hipp was a public school teacher, having taught at Clemson Elementary, Springdale in West Columbia, Joanna, and retiring from Greenwood School District 50 in 1984.

She was a member of Mathews United Methodist Church, where she served as a teacher in the Ladies Sunday School Class and in the children's department and was a member of the United Methodist Women.

Mrs. Hipp was preceded in death by her husband; her son, Jerry Hipp and all of her brothers and sisters. Surviving are thirteen nephews and nieces. Services were held at Mathews United Methodist Church with Dr. Bill Harris officiating. Burial followed in Travis Park Cemetery, Saluda.

The family would like to thank the doctors and nurses at Self Regional Medical Center, Hospice House, and caregiver, friend, Alice Doolittle and Harold Doolittle.

LALLAGE BLANTON JONES

October 11, 1908 – July 28, 2012

Lallage Jones was born in Cleveland County, North Carolina, near Shelby. Her family moved to Spartanburg, SC, where she graduated from high school and from Converse College. She met her future husband, Edward Samuel Jones, Jr., at Bethel Methodist Church where they both were members. They married in 1931 and spent 58 years together as a team in life and in the Methodist ministry which Lallage loved. Their daughters are Susan Helms (Joe) of Montgomery, AL, and Nancy Bradley (James, Jr.) of Ridgeway, SC.

Lallage was a talented artist as well as a math teacher in the public schools in SC. She also studied speech and drama at Converse College and pursued this interest throughout her life. She was devoted to Lancaster First United Methodist Church during the last 40 years of her life and was a very active member until her death. She was small in stature but large in faith, love, determination, and resilience. She had many friends and admirers who have been inspired by her long, good life.

MARY M. TURNER

May 17, 1927 – February 1, 2013

Mary Ellen McKee Turner was born on May 17, 1927, in Ware Shoals, SC. Mrs. Turner graduated from Greenwood High School. Mary married Clarence E. Turner in the Methodist parsonage of Lowell Street United Methodist Church on May 25, 1948. After her husband had finished 8 years in the Navy, they settled in West Columbia where each worked until Clarence was called into the ministry. In 1962, the now Rev. Turner and Mary along with their two sons Bill and Stan, started their ministry at the Black Swamp Charge. At the date of her death, Mary had four grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Mary spent much of her time caring for her family and working along with her husband in his ministry. She loved the women's circle groups and had a passion for decorating Christmas trees for the churches. After Rev. Turner passed away in 1992 and 44 years of marriage, Mary resided in Greenwood, SC until her death on February 1, 2013.

DOROTHY EILEEN ZOLLER

February 10, 1919 – April 30, 2013

Dorothy Eileen Zoller, 94, passed away on April 30, 2013 in Gainesville, Florida. She was born on February 10, 1919 in Detroit, Michigan to Harry and Gladys Malvern. She attended the Zoller Gospel Tabernacle in Detroit where she met her husband, the late Reverend John Zoller, who was serving as assistant pastor to his father, John Edward Zoller. They were married January 9, 1943.

Following their marriage she assisted her husband in his ministry to the Hazelton-Shiloh Methodist Church, Hazelton, Indiana through 1944. Other churches served were Parsippany Methodist Church, Parsippany, New Jersey (1945-1946); Grace Community Methodist Church, Oakland, California (1946-1949). In 1949, Reverend Zoller enlisted in the Navy Chaplains Corp. Over the years, Mrs. Zoller accompanied her husband to pastoral duty stations, including Midway Island where she hosted a radio program called "Something Special" and had an interview with James Cagney when he was there filming "Mister Roberts."

When Reverend Zoller retired from the Navy, Mrs. Zoller assisted her husband in the associate pastorship of the Carteret Street United Methodist Church in Beaufort, South Carolina from 1979-81, until Reverend Zoller became the pastor of Port Royal United Methodist Church in 1981, where he served until his death on May 12, 1989.

Judy Attaway, a member of the Carteret Street United Methodist Church moved in with the Zollers in late 1979 to provide housekeeping services and became a caretaker to Mrs. Zoller following her first stroke. In October 2011 Mrs. Zoller moved in with her daughter and son-in-law in Gainesville, Florida.

Her ashes were buried in the Memorial Garden of Grace Presbyterian Church on May 12, 2013. She is survived by her daughter and son-in-law, Larke and Ronald Nunn and her lifelong friend, Judith S. Attaway.

OTHERS

ALONZO CLARK JENKINS

March 3, 1953 – January 4, 2013

The Reverend Doctor A. Clark Jenkins was born on March 3, 1953, in Pickens, South Carolina to the late Reverend Doctor Edward Emmanuel Jenkins, Sr. and the late Mrs. Margaret Miller Jenkins. Clark, as he was fondly known, was ordained elder in the SC Conference United Methodist Church in 1978. He departed this life on January 4, 2013.

Clark graduated from Claflin University in 1974 with an undergraduate degree in Religion and Philosophy. He received a Master's of Divinity degree from Duke Divinity School in 1977 and an honorary Doctor of Divinity from Claflin University in 2009.

Clark's work spread across several states as he served in the following appointments: Wesley UMC (Aiken); York Circuit 4 churches (York 1978-1979); Asbury Temple UMC (Durham, NC, 1974-1978); Centenary UMC (Charleston 1979-1982), Johns Island Parish - 3 churches (Johns Island 1982-1989), Associate Council Director, South Carolina Conference (Columbia 1989-1991), Emmanuel UMC (Sumter 1991-1994), Mt. Zion UMC (Kingstree 1994-1996), Superintendent, Spartanburg District (Spartanburg 1996-2004), Senior Pastor at St. Andrews-by-the-Sea UMC (Hilton Head 2004-2007), Senior Pastor at First Broad Street UMC (Kingsport, TN 2007-2010), and Superintendent, Morristown District (Morristown, TN, 2010-2011).

Affiliations were many and included the General Board of Church and Society, Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Incorporated and life member of the NAACP (National Association for the Advancement of Colored People).

Clark is survived by his wife Dr. Carolyn Pearson Jenkins, his daughter Carmel Natasha Jenkins, his son Jeremy Clark Jenkins, his daughter-in-law Gina Barksdale Jenkins and three granddaughters. He is also survived by a brother Edward E. Jenkins, Jr., of Greenville and a sister Patricia Shell and brother-in-law Thomas Shell and their family of Atlanta, GA. Others include his mother-in-law, Mrs. Minnie Pearson of Bennettsville; two other brothers-in-law, Rev. Thomas Pearson, of Orangeburg, and Mr. Ervin Pearson, of Bennettsville; and a sister-in-law Dianne Pearson Quick, of Bennettsville and their families.

Clark was an avid reader and had a passion for helping others. He spent a lifetime mentoring those interested in the ministry, helping those who were impoverished and in need, and preaching the Gospel. He boldly fought on the front lines of justice, and his work impacted every community he served. Clark and his passion for social justice, his exuberant smile, his commitment to ministry, and his love of life and family and friends will be missed.
