

Aldersgate Special Needs Ministry

*“My people will live in peaceful dwelling places,
In secure homes, in undisturbed places of rest.”
Isaiah 32:18*

The lack of housing for adults with developmental disabilities is at a crisis stage, with growing numbers of aging parents struggling to care for their special needs adult children.

Aldersgate Special Needs Ministry is an agency of the SC Conference of the United Methodist Church, founded to provide homes where special needs adults can live in a loving Christian environment, overseen by a dedicated staff.

Work has already begun! Aldersgate has 2 homes in operation. One home for 6 men is located at the Oaks, a United Methodist retirement community in Orangeburg. In Columbia, a home for 6 women is located near the Epworth Campus. More home sites are being developed. Aldersgate seeks to provide homes for special needs adults throughout the state.

Ways you can help:

- * Donate money or property.
- * Adopt Aldersgate as an ongoing mission project for your church group.
- * Lend professional expertise.
- * Have an Aldersgate representative speak to your church, civic, business or other group.
