To: Candidates and Clergy
From: R. Wayne Horne, Chair
South Carolina Conference Board of Ordained Ministry

God's call to ordained ministry is a sacred one. Through her Discipline, The United Methodist Church has established high standards for those who are to be ordained. It is a sacred trust to enter into and share in the covenant in ministry in the United Methodist Church. Therefore, the work of discernment, mentoring, and the work of the District Committee on Ordained Ministry and the Board of Ordained Ministry is a holy endeavor. Through these processes, the United Methodist Church calls forth servant leadership for Christ's Church and representative of Christ's ministry.

In reading these guidelines, it is apparent that you have already begun the process of discerning your call to ministry. As you review these guidelines, you will discover that there are those who will help you in your journey. Your pastor, District Superintendent, and Mentors (assigned and informal) will assist you as you seek God's will for your life in ministry. Along with these guidelines and The Book of Discipline, these persons will help you move into candidacy and into service as a Local Pastor, an Associate Member, a commissioned minister, or as a Deacon or Elder in Full Membership in the Annual Conference. These leaders will labor to help you discern your call to ministry and understand the processes towards ordination set by the Book of Discipline.

The South Carolina Annual Conference Board of Ordained Ministry intends these guidelines to assist both candidates and pastors with the process of entering and faithfully living out their call to ordained and licensed ministry. Likewise, they guide the work of the Conference Board as it seeks to fulfill her call "to enlist and assist persons called of God in becoming certified and effective ministerial leaders of the United Methodist Church."

As scripture is primary in the quadrilateral, so it should be noted that the Book of Discipline is that which is primary amongst the sources used to guide our life and work together. Our policy guidelines are supplemental resources which give particular expression to this Board's fulfilling its sacred call "to enlist and assist persons called of God in becoming certified and effective ministerial leaders of the United Methodist Church."

Should you have questions about the requirements for certification, licensing, commissioning, or ordination, or these guidelines, please contact the Chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry, Wayne Horne (803-781-9973) or rwhorne@umcsc.org or Kenneth L. Nelson, Coordinator of Clergy Services at (803) 786-9486 or 888-678-6272 or knelson@umcsc.org

Jesus, said, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest." (Matthew 9:37) May God bless you as you seek to respond in faith to the "Lord of the Harvest."

XVIII. General Provisions (Pars. 370)

XIX. Requirements which apply to more than one application process

A. Important Notes, References and Definitions:

1. The term "one year" means one full conference year from one session of the Annual Conference to the next. Similarly, "two years" is counted from one session of Annual Conference to the second subsequent session. The term "year" in Par. 310.1a, in reference to application for candidacy where it is local church membership any 365-day period equals one year (two years equals 730 days).
2. References to the University Senate, a body within the United Methodist Church defined in Paragraphs 1414-1418 appear in Paragraphs 313.2, 315.2c, 335 and elsewhere. It cannot be assumed that a college or seminary which is an associate or full member of the Association of Theological Schools, is necessarily also listed by the University Senate.

The list of approved schools published annually by the University Senate (Par. 1417.4) is definitive in determining the fulfillment of the educational requirements for all conference relationships.

3. The recommendation of the District Committee on Ordained Ministry is required for all readmissions and reinstatements in which the applicant was last appointed, or a Certified Candidate or in the candidacy process where discontinued. (See Pars. 314.2, 320.4, 365-369).

B. Additional requirements in the S.C. Conference:

1. A personal interview with the Board is required for the following: recommendations for Associate, Provisional and Full membership; ordination as a Deacon or Elder; transfer from another denomination under Par. 347.3; readmission under Pars. 365-369; and reinstatement of Local Pastor Par. 320.4.
2. A personal interview with the Board may be required for continuation as Local Pastor (FL, PL, SP), continuation as a Provisional Member, or for any other matter in which a recommendation from the Board is required. In addition, the Board may require an interview with a First Time Full-time Local Pastor.
3. The Board reviews psychological testing (as required by the Discipline) of all applicants for Candidacy for Ministry, Full-time Local Pastor (for first-time full-time), Associate Membership, Provisional Membership, Full Membership, ordination as Deacon or Elder, transfer under Par. 347.3, and readmission under Pars. 365-369.
4. Psychological testing at the applicant's expense may be required for reinstatement of local pastor status under Par. 320.4 or for any other matter in which a recommendation of the Board is required.
5. Guidelines for psychological testing and interviewing, including Testing Application and Consent Letter, are prepared as a separate document by the Board's Committee on Psychological Testing and are available upon request.
6. Submitting a physical examination reported on the form provided by the Division of Ordained Ministry is required of all applicants for candidacy, Full-time Local Pastor, Associate Membership, Provisional Membership, Full Membership and readmission.
7. A physical examination is required for Readmission and Reinstatement under Pars. 320.4, 365-369, or for any other applications in which recommendation of the Board is required.
8. A statement of debts and other financial obligations is required of applicants for Certified Candidate, Full-time Local Pastor, Associate Membership, Provisional Membership; Full Membership, readmission under Pars. 364-368, and transfer under Par. 347.3. The Board asks all applicants to give written consent to a credit investigation as a part of this statement. These procedures grow out of the traditional question asked of applicants in Pars. 330.5d (18) and 336 (18).
9. Anytime action upon an application is deferred because of concerns arising from the credit statement, a complete new CREDIT statement will be required prior to any reconsideration.
10. Any applicant who does not complete the application process for a particular relationship prior to the opening of the Annual Conference session will be required to complete again the entire application process the next year application is made. No part of an application may be carried forward to a succeeding year except psychological testing and seminary information.
11. The Board requires payment by the candidate for the disciplinary Criminal Background Statement.
12. Distance Education rules shall be the same as the policy announced by the University Senate. In January 2011, the University Senate announced the following rules: All United Methodist seminaries and Asbury Theological Seminary shall be allowed to offer two-thirds of the Master of Divinity degree online, with one third of the degree required to be in residence. The only "online courses" allowed to count toward a degree for a candidate seeking ordination in The United Methodist Church shall be those offered by one of the 13 official United Methodist seminaries and Asbury Theological Seminary.

C. Board policies and procedures:

1. The Board of Ordained Ministry considers applications for ordination and conference relationship according to the requirements of the Book of Discipline, the Annual Conference, and the Board in effect at the time the applicant makes application for that relationship.
2. Under the authority of Par. 635.1(f), the Board sets November 1st as the deadline for the completion of District Committee reports to the Board for Full Connection candidates. There shall also be deadlines set by the Board Registrar for completion of the requirements for applicants for Local Pastor; Associate Membership, Provisional Membership; Full Membership, ordination, readmission, transfer (from other denominations), and other relationships which require the recommendation of the Board.

3. The Board of Ordained Ministry has four major committees: Call and Disciplined Life; Proclamation and Preaching; Bible Study; and Theology and Doctrine. These Committees will evaluate candidates for readiness for ministry. Particular attention will be paid to both the oral and written use of proper grammar and composition. Failure in more than one committee will constitute a recommendation to the Board for disapproval for one conference year and the candidate will be required to resubmit the entire work the next conference year subject to final action by the Board. Failure to gain approval in only one of the four committees may result in continuing contact with that particular committee with approval of the Board. The Board may allow the candidate to submit work and have an interview at the next full Board meeting, needing only to satisfy requirements in that one area. Upon denial of the application by the Board, the candidate shall be required to complete the entire application process in a later conference year, within the applicable time limits. The Board of Ordained Ministry secretary will advise in writing any candidate who is not approved by the Board, and the candidate's assigned mentor, that the candidate shall seek the support of their assigned DCOM Mentor, and any other consultant recommended by the Board, with regard to any deficiencies noted by the Board or one of its committees.
4. Policies and Procedures for Academic Style and Intellectual Integrity
 - a. Standards for Academic Style: All work submitted to the Board should be guided by standards of academic style commonly required by institutions of higher learning. Footnotes and bibliography should be done in accordance with the most recent edition of A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, by Kate Turabian.
 - b. Standards for Intellectual Integrity: At a level more fundamental than academic style, all work submitted to the Board should exhibit a standard of intellectual integrity appropriate for the covenant of ordained ministry within the Body of Christ. The Board defines intellectual dishonesty as submitting work that is not one's own.

The Board will investigate intellectual dishonesty in the following way. When a candidate's two readers and the chair of the relevant committee find evidence of possible intellectual dishonesty, the candidate will be notified that s/he will be examined about this issue as a part of his/her regularly scheduled Board interview process. If evidence of intellectual dishonesty is found, the candidate may either withdraw from the ordination process for one year or write a letter of appeal to the chairperson of the Board requesting consideration at the next regularly scheduled Board meeting. If evidence of intellectual dishonesty is discovered when it is too late to give notice to the candidate prior to their interview, the Board will make every effort to comply with the spirit of these provisions.

Signed Statement: Completion of the following statement indicates that you understand both the standards of academic style expected by the Board and the meaning and consequences of intellectual dishonesty. Submit a signed copy of this statement to the Board of Ordained Ministry:

"I certify that the work I am submitting is my own. I have given proper credit to all sources of information and have neither given nor received unauthorized assistance, as defined in section XIX.C.4 of the S. C. Conference Board of Ordained Ministry Policy Guidelines."

5. Each year the Board's Committee on Proclamation and Preaching prepares instructions for the requirement of a written proclamation/sermon for applicants for Associate Membership, Provisional Membership, Full Membership as Elders, and Full Membership as Deacons. These instructions are distributed by the Office of Clergy Services for the respective Division to all known applicants and become part of the requirements for that relationship. Those pursuing Associate membership or Elder Track Membership shall submit a sermon. Those pursuing Deacon Track membership shall submit either a contextual project or a sermon.

The completed responses of the applicants are read and evaluated by the Committee on Call and Disciplined Life.

The Board may, in very unusual or emergency circumstances, consider exceptions when advance written request has been made to the Board Registrar, and schedule interviews at its meeting prior to the opening of the Annual Conference session. Demands of time dictate that such exceptions be rare.
12. With regard to applications, which include the requirements of a physical examination, the Coordinator of Clergy Services may seek clarification or further explanation from the examining physician concerning the findings and evaluation of the examination. The Coordinator of Clergy Services may ask written consent of the applicant to secure additional medical information or may ask the applicant to undergo further examination by a physician or physicians of the Committee's choosing at the Board's expense.
13. Those recommended for election to Associate Membership, Provisional Membership, Full Membership, and Orders shall be present for the opening Clergy Session of the Annual Conference. Those recommended for Readmission and those received by Transfer should be present. Also Applicants for Readmission, Reinstatement, or Transfer shall be present at the Clergy Session.

Only the presiding Bishop may grant exceptions to this requirement, since the reception of the classes is an Episcopal function. Appropriate dress is necessary.
15. The Board approves for attendance at the Course of Study schools, or for the one-year allowable correspondence courses, only those persons currently appointed to pastoral charges. Only those studies which are required for a conference relationship (AM, PM, FM) toward which the student is progressing will be approved.
16. Persons seeking to be certified as candidates for ministry, approved for service as Full-Time Local Pastors, or admitted to conference membership must have the physical capacity for service.
