AMIkids

AMIkids is a nationally-recognized non-profit organization providing our communities' kids an opportunity to transform into responsible young adults. AMIkids offers a promising future to more than 7,000 kids each year through positive and motivating programs that inspire learning, leadership and personal growth. We help kids develop confidence and competency in vital life skills and educational areas, leading them to acceptance of personal responsibility and assisting them in making better choices. There are many opportunities to volunteer at our local programs through mentoring, tutoring, event coordination, administrative support and involvement in other program activities.
