FEATURED SPEAKER:

DR. TAMMY PAWLOSKI

*Director, Center of Excellence
Professor, Early Childhood Education*
FRANCIS MARION UNIVERSITY

Tammy Pawloski grew up in the impoverished areas of rural Horry and Allendale counties of South Carolina, and after earning an undergraduate degree in early childhood education from USC-Aiken, she returned to the region to teach kindergarten, first, fourth and fifth grades. Dr. Pawloski earned her Ph.D. from the University of South Carolina in 1988.

She currently holds a dual appointment of Professor of Early Childhood Education and Director of the Center of Excellence to Prepare Teachers of Children of Poverty at Francis Marion University. Prior to joining the faculty of FMU in 2000, she served in a similar capacity on the Columbia, Aiken, Salkehatchie, and Beaufort campuses of USC, and at Ventura College and Pepperdine University in Southern California.

In addition to her work with under-resourced students, Dr. Pawloski's research interests include family, school, and community partnerships and best practices in early childhood education.
