Frequently asked Questions by District Offices:

WHO EVALUATES COURSES TAKEN IN THE ADVANCE COURSE OF STUDY?

Advance Course of Study (ACOS):

1. An advanced course of study student may take all of the courses at the same school or several Schools.
2. FOR EVALUATION OF COURSES: ACOS students may send COPIES of all their graduate transcripts (seminary and non-seminary) to:
GBHEM, PO Box 340007, Nashville, TN 37203-0007 ATTN: Robert Kohler
GBHEM will sort out the credits needed and send a report to the conference.
The original transcripts must be sent to Clergy Services, 4908 Colonial Dr, Columbia, SC 29203 for the Permanent Record.
3. Most of the courses in the ACOS are elective. The only required courses are UM History, Doctrine, and Polity. All the other required courses, including evangelism, are included in the basic Course of Study. However, GBHEM will look for some balance between Bible and theology on one hand, and the practice of ministry on the other. In addition to courses which can be taken through a theological school, GBHEM will recognize a basic unit of CPE as equivalent to six semester hours of graduate theological credit. Other educational programs can be evaluated on a case by case basis by the Division of Ordained Ministry for ACOS credit.
4. GBHEM guidelines for the ACOS require that all ACOS courses be second level courses. Credit will not be granted for introductory courses to the Bible, theology, or pastoral care since all of these courses have already been covered through the five year Course of Study.

GBHEM sets the prescribed curriculum for studies for the Course of Study School (such as Duke or Candler). GBHEM will evaluate the courses taken at a Seminary LISTED BY THE UNIVERSITY SENATE. Applications to the Course of Study can be found online at the COS school's web sites (4 course per year for FL and 2 courses per year for PL). To have a transcript evaluated for possible COS of ACOS credit, a CATALOG description of the courses with the official transcript of the local pastor should be mailed to Clergy Services to be forwarded to GBHEM.
