From the President's Pen

Ladies, what a marvelous journey we have had thus far.

On April 2nd, our Day Apart retreat was a time for all of us to rekindle our spirit. The Pleasant Ridge Camp And Retreat Center was so beautiful. Reverend Robin Dease spoke about Shalom.

Our Spiritual Growth retreat at Lake Junaluska, held April 29th thru May 1st was a great opportunity to meet with other Methodist women from all over South Carolina. Our guest speaker was Ms. Angella C. Felder. Her theme was "Worshipping God in the Midst of it All". The Greenville District was represented by 36 women.

It was a special honor to install the women at Zoar Methodist Church on May 10th. From the Greenville District of United Methodist Women, we welcome all these wonderful ladies and look forward to seeing them at future events.

On May 17th, the gifts of love for the five mission projects were given at Trenholm United Methodist Church. Thank you Greenville District units for your participation.

June 4th afforded us another trip to Columbia. We met at Francis Burns United Methodist Church for the annual "Come Together, Be Together" meeting. This is always an uplifting, fun time for the South Carolina United Methodist Women to get together and learn so many different things, from Clowning Ministry to recycling.

Looking forward, we have the School of Christian Mission at Spartanburg Methodist College on July 21-24th. On August 13th, the Youth Event will be held at St. Paul's United Methodist Church in Spartanburg, SC. We look toward our 39th Annual Meeting at John Wesley United Methodist Church scheduled for September 17th. All presidents please encourage your unit to attend both the Worship Service and the Business session.

Remember to continue reaching your goals for this year.

1. Mission today, 2. Diamond Unit, 3. Unit of the year, 4. Five star/gold, 5. Reading program

*"Delight yourself also in the Lord, and He shall give you the desires of your heart."
Psalm 37:4*

Peace and Love,
Juanita B. Bowens,
Greenville District President

Treasurer's Notes:

I know it's crazy, but it is time again to start thinking about your pledge for 2012. In order for the District to put together a 2012 budget to present to the membership at the September 17, 2011 Annual Meeting and to turn into Conference by August, we need to have some idea of pledge amounts. If your unit doesn't have their pledge service until later, please try to estimate this amount. And, you can fill out the form below and mail it to me, or you can just e-mail me at susansmith@intexa.com, or you may call me at H: 268-6602 or C: 864-270-0598. This is just the "Pledge to Mission" amount – the first line on your remittance form. For me to use this in preparing the budget, the information is needed by July 31. Also, in this issue should be a copy of the newest "Remittance Form", and the "Special Mission Recognition Form" (Pins order). You can make as many copies of these forms as you wish.

Here is another form for you: "Unit of the Year Award". This form can be found elsewhere in this issue. The deadline for this is September 1, 2011. There is one other item I need to mention. All checks need to be made to: Greenville District UMW. I am planning to be at the Christian School of Mission, and hope to see you there.

Calling All Ladies For a District Women's Choir

This year, we would like to have a District Women's Choir for our District Meeting on September 17, 2011. If you can carry a tune, you are invited to join us. If you cannot carry a tune, you are invited to join us.

There will be one rehearsal an hour before the meeting, in the sanctuary of John Wesley United Methodist Church. It has been promised by the musician/s, that the selections will be familiar songs, and ones that we all can sing along to. We are hoping to have participants representing every church in the Greenville District.

Requirements:

1. You must be female.
2. You must be able to open your mouth and allow some kind of sound to come out.
3. You must wear whatever you feel like wearing (lingerie, pajamas and bathing suits are prohibited).
4. You must sing to the Glory of God.

If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact Mrs. Cheryl Fisher at 864-483-4839, or at chergreerfisher@bellsouth.net. We would like to get a "ballpark" figure of how many will be participating.

Hope you will join us!! Mrs. Cheryl Fisher

Education and Interpretation Coordinator

Greetings,

I hope everyone is enjoying the beginnings of summer. I would like to encourage everyone to continue on your Mission Today Unit Action Forms. I have included a form in this edition of the Airwaves (page 6). Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions about Mission Today Unit form.

Conference School of Christian Mission will be held July 21st-24th at Spartanburg Methodist College. We hope to have a large attendance from the Greenville District.

My local unit would like to extend a "Red Carpet" invitation for the September 17, 2011 Annual Greenville District Meeting, which will be held at the Historical John Wesley United Methodist Church in downtown Greenville. We look forward to showing you our hospitality.

Peace,

Sylvia Marie Clinkscales

Looking Ahead 2012

Do you have special talents, gifts such as leadership, creativity, and problem solving? Do you enjoy celebrating God's grace by spending time with fellow United Methodist Women? Do you like to laugh while brainstorming? Do you like to travel and learn new things? Are you up for a challenge? If your answer is yes to any of these questions; then we need you and you are qualified to serve on the Greenville District United Methodist Women's Executive Committee.

We are all called to service by God. And now we are calling on you to serve.

Please consider what you can offer to the Greenville District United Methodist Women.

You will be hearing more from the Nominating Committee soon.

And looking at them Jesus said to them, "With people this is impossible, but with God all things are possible."

-Matthew 19:26

Spiritual Growth Coordinator

April 2, 2011 was a glorious, Christ filled day when 103 United Methodist Women went to Pleasant Ridge Camp and Retreat Center for our Annual Day Apart gathering. Our speaker was Reverend Dr. Robin Dease. She gave a most inspiring message that lifted our hearts and then presided over Holy Communion. Music, fellowship, the beauty of the mountains and a delicious meal was enjoyed by all that attended.

We are looking forward to returning to Pleasant Ridge again next year for another wonderful Day Apart.

“Come Together, Be Together”

I attended Hymns for and by Women led by Mary Johnson, it was very informative. Here is a brief description of the class.

Centering in silence - Music being played before service begins

Song: “Sing the Wondrous Love of Jesus” - This song tells what’s to happen upon your arrival in Heaven. Hymnal pg. 701

Prayer of Petition (oral reading) Hymnal pg. 485

What is a Hymn? Praise to God sung by a congregation, a poem, prayer, scripture from the Old and New Testament.

Favorite Hymns (sharing in pairs) We were paired off in two's, told our favorite hymn, returned to the group, explained and sang the first verse.

Scriptural and Faith Hymns of Women
Hymns that tells a Biblical Story
African-American Writers of Hymns
Hymns and Themes of Faith
Closing hymn: Let My Little Light Shine

Celebration Litany of Women Hymn Writers (a portion)

Leader: We remember Miriam, Deborah, Hannah, and Mary who sang their songs of faith with loud voices. Theirs were songs of praise, of wonder, of devotion, and of mercy and justice.

People: These women were faithful and bold in expressing God's love.

Songs by Women

Statement of Purpose

Rural Missions works to strengthen fragile, Sea Island houses one plank, nail, floor and roof at a time. Our mission is to restore the foundation of our community – its families – by repairing the homes in which they live. We believe that human dignity thrives in a place that is safe and secure. We are committed to ensuring that no matter how modest a home may be, its residents can sleep easily, knowing they are safe within it. We are strengthened by volunteers, engaged leaders, donors and deserving neighbors who are all guided by something greater than self.

Now more than ever, the Rural Mission needs your prayers and support to allow us to continue to help those in need. Your gift or donation can bring a desperate family hope and answered prayers for a better life. Your support can provide an opportunity for volunteers to grow in faith, understanding and appreciation. We are making a difference and you can help make this happen!

Come Together, Be Together

At "Come Together, Be Together," one workshop offered information on recycling to save the earth. The workshop stressed the "4 R's." REPAIR, REUSE, REDUCE OR RECYCLE! These are a few of the tips given to us.

Recycle whenever possible: Glass, tin and aluminum cans, plastic bottles #1-7 (rinsed and without lids), newspapers, magazines, junk mail, paper inserts.

Recycle used clothing and textiles: Give to Charity. Even Goodwill will reuse even clothing with holes.

Recycle wrapping paper and greeting cards.

Buy unbleached coffee filters (natural tan color).

Use "used" fabric softener sheets to free burned on food from pots and casseroles. Just put one or two in the pot and add a squirt of dish soap and fill with water.

Several hours later wipe the pot and the burned on food is gone.

Keep cloth bags in your cars so you will always be ready for shopping.

Let us all work together to help the future generations of this beautiful planet.

More tips can be found online or at your public library. Share your tips with family, friends and your local United Methodist units.

Spiritual Growth Retreat

Spiritual Growth Retreat at Lake Junaluska was a most beneficial and enjoyable event. Though attendance was down, enthusiasm and fellowship were up. Greenville District had 36 in attendance.

Speaker Angella Current-Felder's messages about "Radical Women" in Jesus' life assured us that we are "beautiful, bold and bodacious": like the women who dared to pour oil on Jesus' feet; like Mary, Martha's sister, who "chose the better part"; or like the bent-over, outcast woman touched by Jesus. She told us God expects all of us to come humbly to "the feast of the Lord" and to invite others also, just as Jesus did.

Morning Watch and Evening Vespers were also inspiring, as was the location.

Grace and Peace to my Sisters in Christ,

Thank you for your support with the books at our Greenville district United Methodist Women Day Apart on April 2, 2011 at Pleasant Ridge Retreat Center.

Just a reminder to all the units that are in the United Methodist Reading Program, this program is a major part of our Mission education efforts. You need to have read books in four major categories:

1. Education for Mission, 2. Nurturing for community, 3. Social Action, and 4. Spiritual Growth.

There are four plans that you can choose from.

Plan I- four books, 1 from each category.

Plan II- 10 books- eight books with at least two from each category

Plan III- 15 books- eight books with at least two from each category and seven additional books from any category

Plan IV- 20 books- eight books with at least two from each category and 12 additional books from any category

Please send me your report of the books you have read and your reading plan for 2010-2011 before now before September 1, 2011. Also, please continue your reading for 2011.

School Of Christian Mission -Youth Event

For the first time ever, the South Carolina Conference United Methodist Women will host three separate youth events in three areas of our state on the same day, August 13, 2011. We have divided our state into three areas or zones. The first zone encompasses the districts of Anderson, Greenville, Rock Hill, and Spartanburg.

The event will be held at St. Paul United Methodist Church in Spartanburg, and the study leader will be Rev. Kempie Shepard.

The events for the day are being planned by the Youth Event Committee. Although plans are not complete, I can tell you that there will be music, discussions, movement, and hands-on activities. The day will begin with light refreshments at registration and will include lunch. Registration forms are on the conference website and in your local district newsletters. You may also ask your local unit president. If all else fails, contact me -jrawlings@sc.rr.com. The youth study for this year is Forgiveness and Reconciliation: Coming Out on the Side of Grace by Jennifer Youngman. A copy of the book is available through Mission Resource Center, www.missionresourcecenter.org, but you do not need the book to attend the one day event. Forgiveness is hard, and reconciliation is even harder. But by God's grace we are capable of both. Forgiveness is a practice Jesus took very seriously. God wired us with hearts that can forgive. We must learn to be tolerant and thankful people. Each girl who attends is asked to bring a health kit or a school kit. These will be presented and blessed at some point in the day. Listed below are the items for the kit that you choose to assemble. It is our hope that circles will get involved by helping the girls purchase and assemble kits. We teach best by example and what better way to encourage a love of mission than to work with our young girls.

*Rev. Robin Dease To Speak At
The 39th Annual Conference Of
The South Carolina Conference
United Methodist Women*

Rev. Robin Dease is an ordained elder in the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church. She is currently serving the historic John Wesley United Methodist Church in Greenville, SC. She received her Bachelor of Science degree from Claflin University, Orangeburg, SC and her Master of Divinity and Doctor of Ministry degrees from Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington, DC. Born and raised in New York City, Rev. Dease calls Bennettsville, SC home. She is one of thirteen (13) children born to Clara Dease and the late Nelson Dease Sr. of Bennettsville, SC. Prior to coming into the ministry, Robin received an associate degree in Fashion Merchandizing. She worked for Marriott International as an executive chef and food service director. Across the Conference Rev. Dease serves on the District and Conference Boards on Ordained Ministry and is the Chairperson of Continuing Education Covenant Groups. She serves on the SEJ Clergywomen Consultation Design Team, Bishop's School of Ministry Design Team, is a Certified Coach for Natural Church Development, and also serves as Adjunct Professor in the Philosophy and Religion Department at Claflin University. Across the state, she serves on various community boards and agencies that focus on the socio-political issues impacting African Americans, in particular women and children. These organizations include: Co-Chair of The Center for Heirs' Property Preservation, Charleston, SC, the United Way, Fostering Families of Greenville, and International Steward. Robin loves jazz music and learning to ride motorcycles. She strives to be a faithful steward in every area of her life. Rev. Dease is single and has no children. The South Carolina Conference United Methodist Women welcomes Rev. Dease as our guest speaker.

Purpose of the United Methodist Women

The organized unit of United Methodist women shall be a community of women whose PURPOSE is to know God and to experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ, to develop a creative, supportive fellowship, and to expand concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the church.

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea; Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof." – Psalms 46:1-3
