June 18-26, 2013

The camp experience is exciting and demanding. Prepare for an incredible week of fun and hard work! Youth and staff will gather after lunch at Spartanburg Methodist College in Spartanburg on Tuesday June 18th to meet and greet each other!

Days will be FULL of fellowship, rehearsals, laughter, singing, fun, NAPS!, and more singing!!!! Youth really need to love singing to be a part of this group! In just a few days, all of the songs for the program (ten or so) will be learned, along with speaking parts, instrumentation, and some choreography.

It's an intense, full, musical time; but will provide teens with great friends, good memories and a wonderful worship experience. On Saturday the group departs the camp via tour bus to sing in various United Methodist venues across the state. Auditions

Auditions are open to youth who want to share their God-given talents with others. Singers will enter into a covenant experience of hard work which pays off with wonderful rewards as Christ is proclaimed through song.

The level of musicianship of singers has risen dramatically over the years. The brief audition will check, among other things, a singer's range, pitch, accuracy, listening retention, and ability to harmonize and blend. Selection in the choir is based on talent, vocal quality, and one's willingness to "fit into the group" to sing for the Lord.

The director needs a few solo voices, but many choral voices are needed to create a beautiful, blended sound. The size of the group will be partially determined by the need to create a vocally balanced SATB (soprano, alto, tenor, bass) choir. This is a selection process, and some who audition may not be chosen. Whatever the outcome of the audition, each singer should continue to use his/her gift for the glory of God.

REMEMBER:

The Spirit Singers 2013 Application Form and $35 non-refundable application fee must be postmarked by February 1, 2013!
