CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES NEW STRUCTURE

The 2011 Annual Conference approved the new structure of Connectional Ministries, and the boards, commissions and committees that fall under Connectional Ministries. The 2011 Annual Conference also elected the membership of the newly-restructured Connectional Ministries and the boards, commissions, and committees that fall under it. Effective January 1, 2012, this structure replaces the previous structure, and those elected by the 2011 Annual Conference replace the previously elected members of the Conference Council on Connectional Ministries, as well as replacing the previously elected members of the following boards, commissions and committees.

The conference boards that are included in this restructuring are: Church and Society, Education, Evangelism, Global Ministries, Health and Welfare, Higher Education and Campus Ministry, and Laity.

The conference commissions that are included in this restructuring are: Communications, Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns, Religion and Race, Status and Role of Women, and Worship.

The conference committee that is included in this restructuring is: Ethnic Local Church Concerns.

The conference boards, commissions and committees included in this restructuring will function until December 31, 2011 with the persons listed earlier in this report. Beginning on January 1, 2012 they will consist of the persons listed in the report that follows. All of the persons listed are members of the newly structured Conference Council on Connectional Ministries, and the membership of the impacted boards, commissions and committees is noted within the report.
