ACTIVE MINISTERS

DELORIS TART INMAN

April 29, 1954 – May 6, 2014

"For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing." II Timothy 4:6-8

On April 29, 1954, in Marion, South Carolina, the late Lennon Sr. and Roxanne Tart welcomed the first of nine children into their lives and named her Deloris. On Tuesday, May 6, 2014 in the Carolinas Hospital System of Marion, South Carolina, the Lord called Deloris back to her Heavenly Mansion.

Deloris accepted Christ at a very early age afterwards becoming a member of the Springville United Methodist Church. She loved the Lord and tried to do the things that were pleasing in His sight. Deloris was very active in her church which she loved and was even called into the ministry.

In February 1983, she was married to the late Theodore Inman Sr. and became Mrs. Deloris Inman. To this union two daughters were born. Mrs. Deloris Inman continued her work in the church while pursuing her education at Cathedral Bible College and Duke Divinity School. She was later ordained as Rev. Deloris Inman and served in the Asbury/Clio Charge, Clio, South Carolina. Rev. Inman was presently serving the Chesterfield Parish of Mt. Tabor and Wesley Chapel in Chesterfield and Hartsville, South Carolina. She was appointed to serve the Latta Charge beginning after the Annual Conference in July 2014, but God cancelled that appointment and called her home to be with Him.

Rev. Deloris Tart Inman was preceded in death by her daughter: Latonia Renell Inman. Left to cherish her memory is a loving and devoted daughter: Zaneta Theodosia (Mark Elliott) Inman McCummings; her grandchildren: Javori Tyler Wright, Latonia Rashell McCummings and Mark Elliott McCummings Jr. all of the home; one step-son: Theodore Clarence (Lisa) Inman Jr. of Dillon, SC; four brothers: Leroy (Jean) Tart, Leon (Leslie) Tart of Marion, SC, Lennon (Voncenia) Tart Jr. of Dillon, SC; Earnest (Shelia) Tart of Fayetteville, NC; sisters: Jeanette Tart, Mable (Randolph) Narciso; Ruby Tart of Marion, SC; brother-in-law: Roosevelt (Betty) Inman Sr. of Marion, SC; uncles: Rev. Walter (Binner) Tart, Freddie Tart and J.W. (Janie) Thompson all of Marion, SC; aunts: Eva (Leroy) Floyd, Anna Faye Wimbs both of Marion, SC and Thornia Mae Massey of Chesapeake, PA and a host of other family and friends.

~ Don't ~

Don't spend too much time in mourning.
Tears are for the sad. I left to be with Jesus, and this should make you glad. Don't waste your hours in grieving. No need to feel distress.
I'm tired of life's frustrations, and had to get some rest.
Don't vex yourself with questions, or try to reason why.
Life here for me was ended; it came my time to die.
Don't lose the love I gave you, feed it with your care.
Grow it with devotion and spread it everywhere.
Don't fret because my leaving came in such a way.
We'll have another meeting, in God's Eternal Day!

CHARLES ERNEST SUMMEY, JR.

November 21, 1967 – July 27, 2013

The Reverend Charles "Charlie" Ernest Summey, Jr., 45, died on July 27, 2013 in Simpsonville, South Carolina. He was born in Gastonia, North Carolina on November 21, 1967, to Charles Ernest Summey, Sr., and Jo Grissom Summey.

Charlie married Julie Johnson on June 27, 1992. To this union was born a daughter, Becca and a son, Adam.

Charlie received his BSEET from Appalachian State University in 1991, and his Masters of Divinity from Erskine Theological Seminary in 2006.

He served the following churches in South Carolina – Harmony, Ware Shoals, Pelzer-Beulah, Associate at Covenant, and Trinity, Greenville. He was also Chaplain for Boys Scouts of America, Troop 159, Blue Ridge Council.

Charlie enjoyed running, playing guitar, reading and being with his family

CYNTHIA LOUISE SWOFFORD

November 16, 1956 – July 10, 2013

The Rev. Cynthia Louise Swofford worked, loved and loved with tenacity, focus and commitment. Within her gentle demeanor lived celebration of the "extra mile", understanding of the "main thing" and acceptance of the giving of one's heart and receiving in return. She was a creative communicator whose preaching gained appreciation and fostered commitment and learning. She was a loving person whose joy in giving love was matched by a willingness to receive it from others.

After a long, life-altering illness, she entered Life Eternal on Wednesday, July 10, 2013. She is survived by her husband, the Rev. Ronald Lee Leonard, and her heart's delight, daughter Sarah Elizabeth Leonard, a student at Boston University. Her immediate family of mother and sisters remain in her birth state of Arkansas.

"Cindy" graduated from Hendrix University in Conway, Arkansas and received her Masters of Divinity from Duke Divinity School. She was ordained elder in the South Carolina Annual Conference in 1986. She served the Faith-Concord Charge of the Greenville District, St. Paul of the Spartanburg District, St. James of the Charleston District, Church of the Covenant of the Spartanburg District, and Lee Road of the Greenville District. Her work in the Annual Conference included service on District and local Boards and for several years of service as the Director of the School of Ministry.

Be thou my vision, O Lord of my heart;
naught be all else to me, save that thou art.
Thou my best thought, by day or by night,
waking or sleeping, thy presence my light.

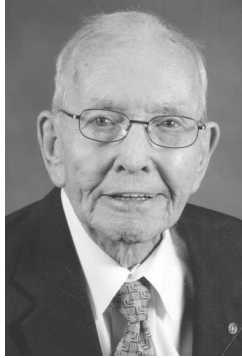

Great God of heaven, my victory won,
may I reach heaven's joys, O bright heaven's Sun!
Heart of my own heart, whatever befall, still be my vision, O Ruler of all.

RETIRED MINISTERS

CHARLES MARTIN BLACKMON

December 1, 1921 – January 27, 2014

The Reverend Charles Martin Blackmon was born December 1st, 1921, in Lancaster, SC. He was the eldest son of William Martin Blackmon and Ella Marion Bagley Blackmon.

He graduated from Spartanburg Junior College in 1943, Wofford College in 1948 (majoring in Education and Psychology) and Garrett Theological Seminary, Northwestern University, Evanston, IL in 1952, with a Divinity degree specializing in Psychology and Pastoral Counseling.

He served with distinction as an Administrative Staff Sergeant in WWII from 1944-1946, European theatre, on the staff of General George S. Patton during the liberation of the Jewish concentration camps. He gave a presentation at General Patton's last staff meeting on the location of supply units.

Reverend Blackmon served a circuit of two churches in the Northwest Indiana conference while attending Garrett Theological Seminary. They were Otterbein UMC (Otterbein) and Montmorenci UMC (Montmorenci). He founded Ridge UMC (Munster) which started in a funeral home and was eventually established over a ten year period. Subsequently, he ministered to Broadway UMC (Indianapolis) before returning to the South Carolina Conference. While at Broadway UMC, he was a Member of the Counseling Center. He was responsible for local and world mission programs, social concerns and membership cultivation. He also assisted the Senior Pastor in total direction of church programs.

While serving in the Northwest Indiana Conference, he was Director of Conference Junior Camp, Member of Conference Board of Social Concerns and Evangelism, Member of Board of Trustees for the Indiana Methodist Children's Home, Secretary of the Calumet District Northwest Indiana Conference, Member of Board of Directors of the Health and Welfare Fund.

After returning to the SC Conference, Reverend Blackmon served at Grace UMC (North Augusta), and Buncombe Street UMC (Greenville). He took a sabbatical leave from the SC Conference and was employed as a Counselor with the SC Employment Security Commission in Greenville. He accepted a managerial position with the SC Employment Security Commission and moved to Rock Hill. He later transferred to Columbia as Area Director of three counties (Richland, Fairfield and Lexington).

While attending Bethel UMC (Columbia) he was voted as Pastor Emeritus for his outstanding service of 26 years. Over the years, Reverend Blackmon was active in many religious, community, political, and educational causes in Indiana and South Carolina. Most recently, Columbia Rotary (33 years) and the Benton Young Friday the 13th Club in Columbia.

Surviving is his wife of 69 years, Gladys Belk Blackmon of the home; daughters, Debbie Blackmon of Rock Hill, South Carolina and Diane Blackmon of York, South Carolina; a brother and sister-in-law, Ben and Cathy Blackmon of LaPlata, Maryland along with several nieces and nephews. Reverend Blackmon was a very loving and caring husband and father. He was an exceptional inspiration to all who met him. He was faithful in ministry for over 65 years and passed away January 27, 2014 at the age of 92.

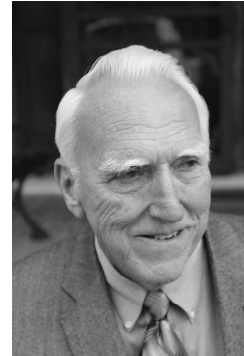

BARRY FRANKLIN BRINSON, SR.

February 18, 1943 – June 23, 2013

The Reverend Barry Franklin Brinson, Sr., the son of the late William Norman and Vera Rudisell Brinson, was born in Charleston, South Carolina, February 18, 1943. He went to be with Jesus on Sunday, June 23, 2013, at the age of 70 years.

Barry married Mary LouEllen Neidlinger on June 12, 1961 in Savannah, Georgia. They had three children, Barry Franklin Jr., William Norman, and Stephen Carson. Barry was proud of his three sons, five grandsons, three granddaughters and two great-granddaughters, as well as the in-laws God so graciously blessed him with.

While serving as a witness to Christ, Barry worked his way to the top ranks as a civil service employee at the Charleston Naval Shipyard. Barry used the skills God granted to start the successful software development company, Halcyon. After retirement from his first two careers, Barry continued using God's gifts to witness with his many talents as a woodworker, jeweler, cane syrup maker, bee keeper, swimming pool and home builder, and mechanic. His greatest talent was teaching God's Word which led him to become a lay leader at Wesley Memorial Methodist Church and then become a local pastor while completing the Ministerial Course of Study at the Candler School of Theology. Barry and LouEllen served the Target and Gerizim churches of Holly Hill, South Carolina from June of 2000 until January of 2009.

Barry again pursued one of his many renaissance talents and published a layman's guide to Revelation, "We Win". In October of 2012, Barry was called to return to active ministry at the Hendersonville, SC charge Ebenezer-Ritter, Salem, Ebenezer-Yamasee charge.

Fulfilling God's call and walking in Christ were Barry's greatest joy which was evidenced by the way he ministered and shared his love for God's people through visiting and supporting the congregations that he led. The gift's God provided to Barry shined when he was able to teach and share the Word of God to the people. Barry was a true disciple in his effort to share the Gospel and the message of God's love and eventual triumph upon His return to usher in the New Heaven and New Earth. Barry taught all who God allowed that trusting in Jesus Christ as our Lord is the only way to get to participate in the glorious return. Barry always taught us to trust in Christ until the day that "We Win"!

DOROTHY NELL COBB CULP

March 6, 1926 – November 23, 2013

Dorothy Nell (Cobb) Culp was born March 6, 1926, the middle child of eleven of Crayton C. and Carrie Farrow Cobb in Arab, Alabama. She passed peacefully on to her heavenly home November 23, 2013.

Dorothy responded to her call to preach at age 15. She conducted numerous revivals and at age 16 pastored her first church, the Union Hill Congregational Methodist Church, in Union Hill, Alabama. She attended Asbury College and while a student married Wayne Culp on August 22, 1947, a student at Asbury Theological Seminary. They had four children: Daniel, Rebecca, David, and Samuel. They served as missionaries to the Democratic Republic of the Congo under the Board of Global Ministries for almost twelve years.

She earned master's degrees from Scarritt College (Christian Education), Converse (Education) and Erskine Seminary (Divinity, Honors).

After the family moved to Spartanburg, South Carolina, she taught school for ten years; then pastored the Golightly-Tabernacle Charge (building a new church at Tabernacle), the Bath-Clearwater Charge and co-pastored with her husband for four years at the Aldersgate UM Church in Greenville South Carolina. They were the first clergy couple in South Carolina to be appointed to a larger church. There a new Sanctuary was built and after a fire, the wings housing the administration offices, Sunday school rooms and social hall were rebuilt.

She was an ever faithful, never tiring, inspirational minister of the Gospel, consecrated missionary, respected teacher, loving wife, mother, grandmother of ten and great-grandmother of eight. She and Wayne were married for over sixty-six years.

And they all "will rise up and call her blessed."

CHARLES LONEY DUNN

October 15, 1926 – November 30, 2013

Rev. Charles Loney Dunn, 87, died peacefully at home on Saturday, November 30, 2013. He was born October 15, 1926 in Conway, South Carolina to Loney Calvo and Mary Ettie Dunn.

He served in the US Navy during World War II. After serving in World War II, he graduated from Conway High School, attended Campbell College, High Point College, and received his Masters of Divinity from Erskine Seminary.

He grew up in a Christian home and like one of his ancestors, Ezekiel Cooper, a Methodist minister answered his call from the Lord. In 1954, he was ordained an Elder in the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church. Called by God to serve Bluffton Charge, Scranton Charge, Shiloh Station, New Zion, Lockhart Wesley Charge, South Carolina Conference Staff, Mt. Pleasant Columbia Charge, St. James UMC (Columbia), Edgefield, and retired from active ministry in 1990. He served 37 years on the Credit Committee of the South Carolina Methodist Credit Union. He was honored with Pastor Emeritus from St. James UMC in Columbia where he worshiped.

He is survived by his wife of 60 years, Joanne Comer Dunn. She was not only his soul mate but his partner in serving the Lord. Charles has one son, Charles Mitchell; three daughters, Carole Anne, Pamela Dianne and Jean Lynette; nine grandchildren, six great-grandchildren, a sister, and two brothers. God and Family meant everything to him. He was so honored to be God's servant and proud to have been blessed with his children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

The funeral service was officiated by Rev. Dr. Tim McClendon and Rev. Lex McDonald. The eulogy was given by his close friend, Rev. Archie Bigelow. Pallbearers were his grandchildren. Honorary pallbearers were the South Carolina United Methodist's Clergy and Brothers from Dentsville Masonic Lodge.

The Rev. Charles Dunn spent his life helping people. He loved people and he did whatever was necessary to administer to the needs of others. He spent his life being an inspiration to everyone who knew him.

The peace we are given is knowing that he will be our "Guardian Angel" until the day our heavenly father calls us home to be with him.

– Pamela DeLaBarre, Daughter

FOSTER BARNEY FOWLER, JR.

June 26, 1926 – May 16, 2014

The Reverend Foster Barney Fowler, Jr. was born June 26, 1926, a son of Foster, Sr. and Thelma Lee Fowler in Conway, South Carolina. After finishing high school in Conway, he joined the Navy in 1944. He was a World War II veteran serving from 1944 to 1946 in the Pacific.

Reverend Fowler was a Motor Machinist Mate Third Class aboard the LCS-3-101. After his discharge from the Navy, he entered the business world in Conway. On December 21, 1947, he and Frances Woodle were married. They were devoted partners for sixty-six years and had three children - Debbie, Bonnie and Foster.

He felt his call to enter the ministry in 1952. At that time he began his formal education by attending Wofford College. He transferred to Erskine College to be nearer churches which had been assigned to him. He also attended Erskine Theological Seminary and Candler School of Theology.

Reverend Fowler served many United Methodist Churches, first, the Princeton Charge, which included Lebanon, Harmony, Kings Chapel and Mount Bethel. When Harmony became a station church, Oak Hill was added to his itinerary. This was quite a challenge to serve four churches while completing his education.

After a very successful ministry of five years at Princeton, he was sent to the Rocky Mountain charge in Great Falls. The churches there were Ebenezer, Heath Chapel, Bethesda, and Mount Prospect. Other appointments were Bethel Rock Hill, Clover, which included Saint Paul, Saint Mark Sumter, Kingstree and First Hemingway. In 1985, he took a sabbatical leave with a promise he would return for two more years.

After returning to Olanta for two years, he retired in 1988 from Itinerant Ministry, but not from ministry. After being retired for eight years, Reverend Fowler was asked to go to Chesnee for a year. This was a very rewarding ministry. While serving churches, he hosted several trips to the Holy Land. It was his delight to take senior citizens and the youth on trips to various places.

During his ministry, he cherished the times he spent ministering to people in a personal manner. He served as a mentor and loving pastor.

He touched the lives of countless people. He could differ with people and still remain friends. He was sensitive to the needs of the people and gave hope to a lot of people. He and Frances spent much time traveling after retirement. Even then, there were many opportunities for ministry wherever he was.

Reverend Fowler made it possible for the family to share fun times with boating, fishing, traveling and camping. He loved his family with a never-ending love. He was always there for anyone of them if they had a problem or a joy to share. By the grace of the Holy Spirit, he was able to serve God and Jesus Christ without neglecting the needs of his family, friends, or church members.

To quote a granddaughter: "Grandad wants us all to feel joy, to love each other, rejoice in the daily gifts provided by God, provide comfort to others, live with love in our hearts and to live a life devoted."

He loved spending time in the Word and cherished his quiet time with his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

THOMAS CARROL GILLIAM

December 31, 1926 – March 18, 2014

The Reverend Thomas C. Gilliam, son of James Newton and Annie Belle Bishop Gilliam, was born in Newberry, South Carolina on December 31, 1926. He died Tuesday, March 18, 2014 at Orangeburg Regional Medical Center with his two daughters with him.

He married his beloved Dolly to whom he was married for more than 65 years. She predeceased him in 2008 as did his oldest daughter, Cassandra Jenkins in 2008 also. His two surviving daughters are Debra Tarver of Savannah, Georgia and Darlene Heaton of Elloree, South Carolina. He has one sibling surviving as well, Mr. Eugene Gilliam of Newberry, South Carolina.

T.C., as he was affectionately known, attended Newberry College and the Candler School of Theology at Emory University.

He always said God called him to serve at age eleven and attributed that greatly to a loving Sunday school teacher of his youth. He began his ministry with the SCUMC conference in 1951.

His church ministries began in 1949 Clinton-Lydia, 1950 Lynchburg, 1951 Rembert, 1952 Alice-Ariail, 1954 Holroyd Memorial-Salem, 1957 Pond Branch-Shiloh, 1961 Gravely Memorial, 1963 Wagener, 1967 Belvedere, 1970 Bluffton, 1972 Shiloh Station, 1973 Woods Chapel, 1977 Union-Sardis, 1978 Edisto, 1981 Oswego-Bethel, 1987 Elloree-Jerusalem.

He retired in 1992 in the loving community of Elloree, South Carolina surrounded by caring friends and neighbors. He loved to play golf, witnessing on the course almost as often as he played. He was a World War II Veteran and was proud of his service.

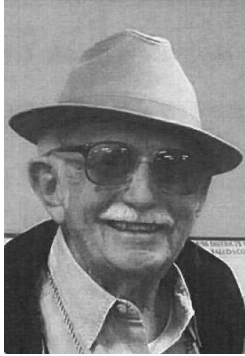

A service was held in his memory at Jerusalem United Methodist Church in Elloree, South Carolina on March 21, 2014 officiated by Rev. Barry Allen.

The depth of how much he will be missed by his daughters can only be measured by the depth of his faith, for which they will forever be grateful.

JOHN PATRICK GRIFFITH

August 16, 1931 – July 29, 2013

Born in Saluda County, John Patrick Griffith was the son of Maurice Athens and Winnie Bell Mack Griffith. He married Priscilla Grant, and they had four children and seven grandchildren: John Mark Griffith, Maurice Grant Griffith (Robin), Rhonda Griffith Billings (Rodney), and Jonathan Patrick Griffith (Jamie). His grandchildren are Joshua, Erika, John Luke, Kelly, Charlie, Jonathan and Kris Griffith. He had one brother, the late Carroll Griffith, and two sisters, the late Thelma Griffith Wills, and his surviving twin, Joyce Griffith Arthur. He reached out to all people as his brothers or sisters and helped them find joy and peace in serving the Lord.

"Preacher John," as everyone called him, graduated from Saluda High School in 1949 and served in the United States Air Force from 1951 to 1955 during the Korean War. While serving with the air-sea rescue unit, he felt a strong call from God to enter the ministry. With this as his goal, he graduated from Wofford College in 1959 and then studied at Duke University. He set out to preach the gospel.

Reverend Griffith, an ordained minister, served both large and small Methodist churches. Wherever he was sent, his congregation loved and appreciated him. He preached passionately from his heart and longed for everyone to personally know Jesus as he did. People recognized that he was truly a man of God. He lived what he believed and taught. His last appointment in the Methodist Conference was Chaplain for Amick Farms. As a minister for the Lord, he counseled those in his care. He helped many through difficult and good times. From this ministry at Amick Farms originated the Chapel in the Woods. Also during these years he and his wife, Priscilla, drove to Charlotte every Tuesday to minister to three NASCAR touring series teams.

During his last fourteen years Preacher John had a Sunday morning ministry that he started at Big Man Shealy's on Lake Murray. This bar and grill was converted into a sanctuary on Sunday mornings. After being diagnosed with cancer in January 2011, he still preached until early July 2013. His wife said of him, "In every church he served, he was a blessing and much loved. He could pray with people and they would feel as though they were in the presence of God. To know him was to love him. John was exactly where God wanted Him – in the Lord's Army.

Preacher John is missed by all who knew him. He loved everyone he came in contact with. Revelation 14:13 says, "And I heard a voice from heaven saying, 'Write this: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord henceforth.'" "Blessed indeed," says the Spirit, "that they may rest from their labors, for their deeds follow them!"

Preacher John did not minister to people for works, but he ministered because Jesus loved people through Reverend John P. Griffith.

ERNEST MARVIN HEAPE, SR.

March 24, 1922 -December 5, 2013

The Reverend Ernest Marvin Heape, son of James Wheeler and Fannie Zahler Heape, had an extraordinary life which began at Early Branch, South Carolina, on March 24, 1922. God granted his wish to die at home surrounded by family and two caring hospice workers. He was predeceased by his first wife, Vivian Gardo Heape in February 2006. Out of that union came a family of four boys: Ernest Jr., Francis, Norman and Stephen. Later in 2006, Rev. Heape married Linda Gladden Heape at Cherokee Place United Methodist Church.

After serving in the Civilian Conservation Corps for seventeen months, he became an apprentice at the Charleston Naval Shipyard. He heard God's call to serve in the ministry, receiving his license to preach in 1944. He was a member of the South Carolina United Methodist Conference and served in various capacities of ministry for over fifty years. He served a six-year term as Superintendent of the Hartsville District and as Pastor Emeritus of Cherokee Place United Methodist Church. Rev. Heape directed a six million dollar campaign for the Ministers' Pension Program in South Carolina. In 1982, he was chosen to serve as Executive Director of the Methodist Home (now The Oaks) in Orangeburg. He continued there until his official retirement in 1986. Since then, he has served as Chaplain of the Methodist Home and as interim pastor in Bamberg, Salley and Rowesville. In addition, he has been a member of several boards and agencies of the Annual Conference, including Evangelism, Missions, and Health and Welfare; and he served as a trustee of Columbia College.

Rev. Heape hoped to be remembered as one who cared about others and who was humble, loving, and compassionate, and preferred to be second rather than first.

He will always be loved and missed by family and friends.

His Homegoing Celebration was held in the Nancy Freeman Stringer Memorial Chapel at The Oaks on December 7, 2013, with the Reverend Doctor William Bouknight, the Reverend Debra Dowdle and the Reverend Ellen Younker officiating.

KINSLER BOYD MACK, SR.

March 19, 1933 – March 22, 2014

The Reverend Kinsler Boyd Mack, Sr. known as K.B., son of Hiram and Flecia Mack was born in North Carolina March 19, 1933 and reared in Gaston, South Carolina. After graduating from high school, he joined the Navy as an enlisted man, got his Bachelors and Masters Degrees in horticulture at Clemson University.

He was married to Sylvia Ann Nichols and had two children, Kinsler Boyd, Junior of Beaufort, and Deborah Sue Iseman of Mt. Croghan. He went to Southwestern Theological Seminary and was pastor at Oak City Baptist Church. Upon joining the Navy, again, he was a chaplain at Great Lakes, Wisconsin. When he got out he was pastor at Laurel Bay Baptist Church (Beaufort) where he served for two years.

He became a county agent for Clemson and was divorced. He married Helen Daughdrill of Beaufort and became pastor of Gillisonville Baptist Church (Gillisonville). He joined the Methodist Conference as associate pastor in Marion in 1978 and served Blenheim, Parnassus, Manning Chapel (Blenheim); Bethlehem, Prospect (Hartsville); Bluffton, St. Luke's (Bluffton); St. Paul's (Ridgeland); Victor (Greer); Pacolet; Providence (Holly Hill). He retired and was called back into the ministry to serve at Sandy Dam, Mt. Carmel, and Peniel (Walterboro) and retired again.

As he served each pastorate, he used his talents to sing and play his guitar in worship services and in social and community groups as well. He was loved, respected and appreciated by each of his congregations.

He and his wife, with their dog Harry, moved to Crystal River, Florida in 2010. There, he passed away of pneumonia March 22, 2014 in the Seven Rivers Hospital. He is survived by his wife, two children with their spouses, three grandchildren, and two great grandchildren.

We rejoice in knowing that he is in the very presence of the Lord whom he loved.

~ Helen Daughdrill Mack, wife

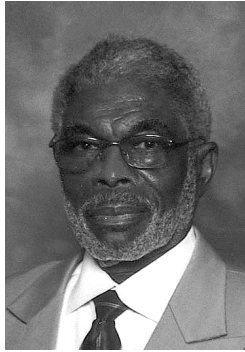

ROOSEVELT MONTRAVEL MCFADDEN

July 12, 1922 – January 3, 2014

Roosevelt McFadden, son of the late Walter and Elizabeth McFadden, was born on July 12, 1922 in Williamsburg County. He committed his life to Christ at an early age in his home church, Bethesda United Methodist and was a faithful servant until he succumbed to death on January 3, 2014.

Following his World War II tour of duty in the United States Army, he matriculated at Claflin University in Orangeburg, South Carolina. He pursued the course of study for ministry, as well as the required credentials for teaching. Because he received the call to the ministry, he continued his studies at Gammon Theological Seminary in Atlanta, Georgia. Later, he received his Master's Degree from South Carolina State University in Orangeburg, South Carolina.

Reverend McFadden was ordained as an elder in 1950 and ministered in the United Methodist Conference for 44 years, fulfilling the following appointments: St. Philip-Zion Hill (1950), Georgetown (1951), Ninety Six (1952), Clio-Asbury Galilee (1954), Branchville-St. Phillip (1957), Maysville Circuit (1963), West Sumter-Mt. Zion (1968), Camden Circuit (1975), and Cross Charge (1984). He offered his caring and concerned spirit to all of his church members and his influence led three sons, Reverend James C. Lane, Reverend Willie Lawson, and Reverend Rufus Wilson into the ministry. Additionally, he managed a dual career for most of his adult life as he served as a teacher and an administrator in the Williamsburg County School District while serving his conference appointments. He pastored full-time after his retirement from the school district. When he retired from the ministry in 1994, he remained active in Bethesda United Methodist Church and the South Carolina Annual Conference throughout his life.

Reverend McFadden committed countless hours to several community organizations.

He was a member of the Retired Ministerial Alliance, United Supreme Council 33°, King Solomon Consistory 32°, Kingstree Masonic Lodge No. 237, Evening Star Chapter Order of the Eastern Star No.246, Pi Sigma Chapter of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc., Williamsburg County Branch of the NAACP, Williamsburg County Retired Education Association, Williamsburg County Alumni Association of Claflin University and The American Legion. He tirelessly dedicated his services to all of his organizations. Because of his love and devotion to his alma mater, he was inducted into the Hall of Fame at Claflin University in 2003.

Reverend McFadden is survived by his wife, Julia Bartelle McFadden; his three daughters, Sheila McFadden, Pamela Knight, and Tracey Hembrick; one son-in-law, Adonis Hembrick; two grandsons, Harrison Knight and Madison Hembrick; one sister, Sarah L. McFadden; a dear cousin, Gloria Burgess and a host of in-laws, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

"For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith." II Timothy 4:6-7

MELVIN EUGENE MULLIKIN

May 18, 1930 – June 23, 2013

Gene Mullikin was born on May 18, 1930, in Greenville and graduated from Greenville High School and Furman University, where he was a member of Kappa Alpha Order. After serving in the United States Marine Corps, he earned a Master of Divinity degree from Duke Divinity School and was ordained as a United Methodist minister in the South Carolina Conference in 1956. Gene passed away after a short illness on June 23, 2013.

Gene was a masterful preacher, a caring minister, and had an extraordinary ministerial career until his retirement in 1995. His appointments included pastorates at Adnah/Antioch/India Hook in Rock Hill, Greeleyville/Lane/Salters, Highland Park in Florence, Broad Street in Clinton, and St. John's and Charles Wesley in Aiken. He served as a Superintendent of the Rock Hill District, was on the staff of the United Methodist Publishing House, and was an editor of the South Carolina United Methodist Advocate. Gene served on numerous conference board and agencies and was a trustee of Columbia College.

Gene is survived by his daughter, Leigh Mullikin Nason; his son and daughter-in-law, Hayne and Linda Mullikin; his sister and brother-in-law, Carol and David Mauldin; and two grandchildren, Katherine Mullikin and Emily Nason.

Rev. Ken Nelson remembers Gene as a minister who could motivate and challenge others while maintaining his strong convictions. His children remember not only their father's commitment to his congregations – many family vacations were interrupted because of congregational illness or death – but also their dad's kind and compassionate nature. They miss him daily.

JACK EWELL RAY

April 28, 1927 – March 29, 2014

Rev. Jack Ewell Ray was born in Montgomery, Alabama on April 28, 1927. He was the son of the late Albert and Estelle Densmore Ray. From an early age, Reverend Ray wanted to show his love for Christ through attending church and lifting his voice in song. He graduated from Huntingdon College in 1952. Reverend Ray loved to sing and had a beautiful voice. It was his love for music that led him to the South Carolina United Methodist Conference and his beloved wife, Sybil Moore Ray. While working on his Masters of Divinity at the Candler School of Theology in Atlanta, GA, Reverend Ray was asked to lead the singing for a fellow classmate at a little church in Starr, SC. Sybil Moore was the pianist for the church. The two fell in love and were married in the Starr United Methodist Church on August 19, 1956.

Reverend Ray began his ministry in Alabama in 1950 when he was licensed to preach. He served two churches while in this conference, Greenville Street United Methodist Church and Saraland United Methodist Church. After entering the South Carolina Conference, Reverend Ray served many charges for the glory of God. He became an Ordained Elder in 1957. Reverend Ray began his South Carolina ministry on the Black Swamp Charge. He was then sent to serve the Bluffton Charge. While serving Bluffton, the Rays were blessed by the birth of their daughter, Rosa Dawn. After leaving Bluffton, the Rays were sent to serve the Branchville Charge, the Norway Charge, the Lynchburg Charge, the Jonesville and New Hope Churches, and the Calhoun Falls United Methodist Church. While in Calhoun Falls, the Rays welcomed two grandsons, Charlie and Jack Waddell. Reverend Ray retired from Calhoun Falls, but he still had a desire to preach. He served John Wesley United Methodist Church and Bethel United Methodist Church in Anderson as a retired supply minister.

On March 29, 2014, Reverend Ray departed this earthly life peacefully at his home in Starr. He was surrounded by his family and friends.

RICHARD EDWARD SEIGNIOUS

December 1, 1930 – July 19, 2013

The Reverend Richard Edward Seignious was born in Charleston, the son of George Williams Seignious, Jr. and Katharine Maud Bignon. On September 12, 1952, he married the love of his life, Betty Jean Booth. They became the parents of four daughters: Deborah (George) Henderson, Delores (Steve) Bruce, Mary (Robert) Allen, and Melissa Seignious. There are six grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Dick graduated from St. Andrews High School, The College of Charleston where he earned a Bachelor of Science Degree, and Emory University where he earned a Master of Divinity Degree. He was licensed to preach in 1952, admitted O.T.S.C. Conference in 1952, ordained deacon in 1954, and ordained elder in full connection in 1956. He served as a Member of the Board of the Greenwood Methodist Home from 1982-1990 where he received "Recognition of Meritorious Service". He served as treasurer from 1989-1990.

Charges served were Folly Beach-St. Andrews (1953), Fort Lawn (1955), Columbia-Epworth Memorial (1959), Elloree (1960), Spartanburg-St. Paul (1967), Gaffney-Buford Street (1972), Sumter-Aldersgate (1977), Dillon-Main Street (1983), Laurens-First (1989), James Island-Bethany (1993), and retired-Charleston (1997). He returned to John Wesley UMC upon retiring, where he was a charter member, and, then, served as an associate minister. In 2009, Dick moved to the Summit Hills Retirement Community in Spartanburg.

Dick's favorite scripture passage was John 3:16, "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life". He lived by these words, and they guided him as he ministered to the people, whether in the pulpit, in his many home visits, or in everyday life. He had deep compassion for others, and would go out of his way to help those in need.

He loved the Church, and was a loyal and faithful servant. The people, in return, loved him. Many friendships grew from his church families. There was an aura about Dick. It has been said that when he walked into a room, everyone felt his presence; that the event could begin because Dick was there. He had a gentle, calming effect, and the world seemed right when he was there. He was also fun-loving. His sense of humor was contagious, and he always had a ready joke.

In addition, Dick loved his family. They admired, respected, and loved him beyond words. He was their center.

Dick's preaching style was relaxed, making it easy to understand his sermons. As always with Dick, there was some type of humor interjected as well as personal stories to make the message real to the people. He preached from the Bible; lived by the Bible.

Dick was a poet, and began sharing his inspirational poetry in his weekly sermons and church newsletters. Eventually, he was encouraged to write and publish a book of poems. This would be the first of two books, "Expressions of Faith" (1984) and "Seeds of Faith and Common Sense" (2006).

Anyone who knew Dick would know that he enjoyed playing all types of sports and was a huge sports fan. His favorite teams were the New York Yankees and the South Carolina Gamecocks, and he was an avid fan of both!

Dick also enjoyed being with his fellow preachers. He and Betty had many wonderful times with them and their spouses each year at Annual Conference.

After moving to Summit Hills, he continued to be an inspiration to all. He witnessed for Christ to those who cared for him, and, in turn, changed their lives. Dick is loved and missed by many, especially his family, and will always be a part of their lives.

ANGELIN JONES SIMMONS

January 23, 1951 – February 20, 2014

Angelin Jones Simmons was the first African American woman to be appointed as a District Superintendent in the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference of the United Methodist Church. In June 1994, the late Bishop Joseph Bethea appointed her as the District Superintendent of the Orangeburg District of the South Carolina Annual Conference.

The daughter of the late Mr. Leroy W. and Mrs. Elsie P. Jones, Angelin was born on Wednesday, January 23, 1951 at 2:30 pm. Her mother told her that she was the most eager child to come into the world, and that she was eating from a spoon at two weeks old.

As a participant in the desegregation of the Berkeley County School System, Reverend Simmons graduated from Berkeley High School in 1967. She entered South Carolina State College at the age of sixteen in 1967. There she excelled in her studies and graduated in 1971 with a Bachelor of Arts in History. She was a member of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated and Lily Chapter #134 Order of the Eastern Star. She earned her Master of Divinity Degree with a concentration in Pastoral Care and Counseling in 1974 from Gammon Theological Seminary at the ITC.

She was ordained a Deacon in the United Methodist Church to Word, Sacrament, and Order in June 1975, and ordained an Elder in 1977. Becoming a full member of the South Carolina Annual Conference resulted in Reverend Simmons being nominated to serve on various boards and committees. The year 1988 was momentous when she was elected as a delegate to the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference where she witnessed and participated in the election of Bishop Joseph B. Bethea. In 1992, she was elected as a reserve delegate to the General Conference in Louisville, Kentucky. She was a delegate to both the General Conference (1996) and the Jurisdictional Conferences (1992, 1996, 2000). She was the first African American clergywoman to be elected to these conferences.

Appointed to the Johns Island Parish as the Associate Pastor in 1975, she began her journey in pastoral ministry. The Johns Island Parish was five churches located on three Sea

Island Coasts of Charleston, South Carolina. She found that each Church and each Island was distinct with their own diverse personalities. She left the Johns Island Parish after seven years. In 2002, she was again appointed to the Johns Island Parish, which consisted of three churches – Bethlehem, New Webster, and Saint James United Methodist Churches. Her appointments included:

1975-1982	Associate Pastor – Johns Island Parish (Bethlehem, New Webster, Saint James, Wesley – Johns Island and Wesley – Yorges Island United Methodist Churches)
1978	Chaplain – Veteran's Administration Hospital
1982-1989	Senior Pastor – Wesley UMC (Pinopolis, SC)
1989-1994	Senior Pastor – Mount Carmel UMC (Charleston, SC)
1991-1992	Campus Minister (Volunteer) College of Charleston and The Citadel
1994-2002	District Superintendent – The Orangeburg District of the South Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church
2002-2013	Senior Pastor – Johns Island Parish – Johns and Wadmalaw Islands, SC

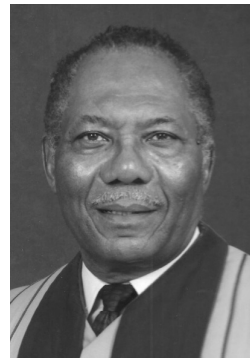

Her precious memory and indelible marks in life will be cherished by her family. Her transition leaves her husband, Mr. Phillip Simmons, Sr.; step-sons, Mr. Phillip Simmons, Jr. and Mr. Antwann Brown; siblings, Mr. Franklin Addison, caregiver Mrs. Lethonia J. (Jacob) Bennekin, Mr. Cornelius (Henrietta) Jones, and Mr. Lloyd Clifford "Cliff" Jones, Sr. (preceded her in death in September, 2013); nieces and nephews, grandnieces and grandnephews; the Simmons family; a multitude of cousins, relatives, extended family members, and friends, including her "best" friend Dr. Katie Cannon and her "beau" friend, Ms. Linda D. Gadson, who will forever be blessed by the life and legacy of Reverend Angelin Jones Simmons...to God be the glory!

THEODORE BRANDON THOMAS, JR.

July 1, 1923 – March 31, 2014

Theodore B. Thomas Jr., was born in Orangeburg on July 1, 1923, to the late Rev. Theodore Brandon and Wilhelmina Minus Thomas, Sr. Affectionately known as "Coach" he devoted his life to the church, his family, community service and to teaching and inspiring young people to realize their full potential.

After high school, Thomas received a full scholarship to South Carolina State College, where he received All American Football honors. In 1944, his college studies were interrupted by his service in the U.S. Army during WWII. While in the military, Thomas participated in the Pacific Olympics in Saipan in the spring of 1945, winning a bronze medal in the discus competition. Returning to complete his college education after the war, he graduated with a B.S. degree from South Carolina State University in 1947 and completed the M.S. degree from Indiana University. Thomas also completed further study at Michigan State University.

Prior to moving to Hartsville and teaching in 1950, Thomas was Dean of Men and Assistant Coach at Claflin University. He taught for more than 30 years at Butler High School and served as Athletic Director and Head Coach amassing a basketball record of 584-144 that included two State championships. His record also includes the following: South Carolina Nominee-National Basketball Coach of the Year 1979; Four Football Conference Championships; State Basketball Coach of the year-1980; Regional Basketball Coach of the Year-1981; One of sixty-five players inducted into the South Carolina State University Athletic Hall of Fame in 1998 and recognized as one of the "100 Most Outstanding Players" in the long storied history of South Carolina State University in 2007.

Heeding the call to ministry, Thomas followed in the footsteps of his father and grandfather, Dr. Daniel M. Minus, founder of Sterling High School in Greenville (both Methodist ministers). He became a licensed minister in the Methodist Church in 1947. While an ordained minister, he also served as an associate chaplain at McCleod Regional Medical Center. His UMC Conference appointments included the York Charge, 1960; Pageland Charge (Salem UMC and Oro UMC), 1961-1973; Latta Charge (Andrews Chapel UMC, St. Phillips UMC, and Glen Chapel UMC), 1973-1993; retired Supply Pastor, Mount Zion UMC; Retired Supply Pastor, New Hope UMC; then returned to Pageland and fully retired in 2002. He also completed Advanced Course Study for Certification at Duke University.

In 1985, he won a Hartsville City Council seat and quickly gained a reputation of being a business-like problem solver. Retiring from City Council in 2007, city officials formally dedicated the $2.2 million, 23,000-square-foot, multi-use facility "The Coach T.B. Thomas Sports Center," named in his honor in 2008. In January 2011, another facility was dedicated in his honor at Hartsville High School, "The Hewitt-Thomas Basketball Court".

Thomas was inducted in the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Omicron Chapter at Gammon Theological Seminary in Atlanta and was a proud 70 year Omega Man. Thomas was a much loved husband, father, and grandfather, and welcomed his first great-grandchild, Liam Brandon Thomas in 2012. Mourning his loss are his beloved and devoted wife, Lovis Thompson Thomas; his daughter Brandolyn Thomas Pinkston (Jerome) of Columbia; his son, Dr. Theodore B. Thomas, III (Janice) of Clinton, North Carolina; grandchildren, Paula Clanton Payton (Tony) of Orangeburg, Dr. Torrence Nathaniel Thomas (Lena) of Washington, DC, Christopher Brandon Thomas (Daphne) of Charlotte, Joya Lee Pinkston of Columbia; a brother-in-law, Tenus F. Thompson of Lawrenceville, Virginia; a nephew, Tenus F. Thompson, Jr. and a niece, Paula C. Thompson of Chesapeake, Virginia.

SPOUSES

RUTH DELORES JAMES ADAMS

November 30, 1932 – August 31, 2013

Ruth Delores James Adams, 80, went to be with her Heavenly Father on August 31, 2013. Mrs. Adams was born November 30, 1932 in Hartsville, a daughter of the late Henry and Maude Melton James. She has spent the last 62 years married to the love of her life, the Rev. Gary B. Adams.

Ruth committed her life to God at an early age and has always kept her eyes set on God. She fully believed that God's will for her life was to support her husband's call into the ministry and to instill the importance of living a Christian life in her children. She accomplished this and more through personal witness, devout prayer life, and bible study.

She amazingly incorporated motherhood, serving as a minister's wife with full time employment while returning to complete her education. Mrs. Adams earned her BS degree in education from USC. She retired from the Williamsburg County School System in 1994.

All should know that "Ms. Ruth" experienced a life of quality, composed of much joy, "connectedness" and spiritual witness through even the more difficult stages of her life. Words cannot describe how much we have been blessed and continue to be blessed by this dear and precious soul.

Rev. and Mrs. Adams served 31 years in The South Carolina United Methodist Conference on the Trio Charge, (Trio, Earle and Suttons) Indian Branch, Darlington; Hebron and Pergamus Charge, and Mt. Vernon United Methodist Church.

Mrs. Adams is survived by her husband Rev. Gary B. Adams of the home in Kingstree, a son, Rev. E. Bruce Adams, of Chesterfield, and two daughters, Alice (Tommy) A. Dukes, of Greeleyville and Nancy R. Adams, of the home, two granddaughters, Christina (Cleve) Morris, of Manning and Nora (Josh) Woike, of Navarre, FL, and her four great grandchildren, Caitlin Parrott and Dylan Morris, and Tristan and Natalie Ruth Woike. She was preceded in death by her parents, her sisters, Betty Reid and Cherry Patricia Tyner, and her brothers Larry and Ronnie James.

BARBARA NALLEY BRANAN

November 6, 1934 – February 22, 2014

Barbara Nalley and Rev. Roger Branan were married on March 7, 1954 in the Fairview United Methodist Church in Easley, South Carolina by District Superintendent Ben B. Black. From their marriage came one daughter, Mrs. Amy Gieger, husband Jay and two grandchildren, Jason Gieger, Jr. and Andrew Roger Gieger.

Roger became a full time minister at the 1954 session of the South Carolina Annual Conference. They served the following churches: Fairview Church - Easley, Toxaway Church-Anderson, Grey Court Trinity, Edisto Charge-Cope, Bluffton and Hardeeville Churches. He did his C.P.E. Training at South Carolina State Hospital, and then was appointed for 33 years at the Northeast Florida Hospital, MacClenny, Florida until retirement in 2000.

Barbara was a beautiful, devoted wife and loving mother. She had a strong love for great compassion and was always willing to listen and sympathize with all people. She loved her cats.

God gave Barbara her wings after losing her battle with pneumonia on February 22, 2014. She was a wonderful person who died in peace. She continues to dwell in and bless all of us who knew her and loved her.

BRENDA KAY IVEY BROWN

September 5, 1942 - March 25, 2014

Remembered by friends and family as a "sweet" person, Brenda Brown died on March 25, 2014 after a lengthy illness. The daughter of the late William Monroe Ivey and the late Margaret Woodrow Wilson Ivey, Brenda was born in Union, South Carolina. After finishing high school, she worked as a medical secretary at Wallace Thompson Hospital. On April 8, 1964 she met Will Rogers Brown, a student pastor in Union, at a county wide Methodist revival. After they married on June 11, 1967, they moved to Atlanta while he completed his seminary education at Emory University.

Returning to South Carolina in 1969 she became a true homemaker as she transformed every parsonage where they lived into a loving home. They were blessed with two daughters: Teresa Kay (6/5/1970) and Mary Elizabeth ("Beth") (3/10/1974). Not one to assume leadership positions in the churches her husband served, Brenda concentrated her efforts in providing a stable and loving family life and living out her faith in a quiet way.

After her funeral at Gramling United Methodist Church on March 27, 2014, she was buried in Union, South Carolina in the Union Memorial Gardens.

Brenda is survived by her husband, the Rev. Will Brown; their daughters Teresa (husband Dr. Brian Fowler and children Olivia and Zane); and Beth (husband Jeff Breazeale and sons Zackary and David). She is also survived by her sister Dianne (husband Dennis Carter and sons Keith and Mark).

Mrs. Parrott was a home maker and the proud wife of a Methodist Minister and also the mother of a Methodist Minister. She was a member of Grace United Methodist Church in Williamston and was active in the United Methodist Women's organization.

She is survived by a daughter-in-law, Rebecca Parrott Colvin and husband, Howard, of Chester, South Carolina; a brother, Pat V. Guyton of Paoli, Pennsylvania; two grandsons, Thomas Dwight Parrott, Jr. of Spartanburg, South Carolina, and Glenn Edward Parrott of Anderson, South Carolina; also surviving are five great-grandsons, Glenn, Michael, Tyler, Dwight, and Brandon Parrott.

In addition to her parents and her husband, Mrs. Parrott was preceded in death by a son, the Reverend Thomas Dwight Parrott; also preceding her in death are a brother and four sisters.

A private family memorial service was held at Forest Lawn Memorial Park in Anderson, South Carolina, where she was laid to rest next to her husband.

MINNIE ELOISE DEATON PETTY

May 17, 1924 – November 8, 2013

Eloise was born in Spartanburg, South Carolina to Sallie Lee and Lester Shell Deaton. After graduating from Spartanburg High School, she married her high school sweetheart and the love of her life, Paul DeWitt Petty. She became a fulltime housewife and later mother to three children, Dee, Sandra, and Deborah.

Her husband Paul answered the call to become a Methodist Minister and so she then became a Pastor's wife. After some initial reluctance, she embraced this role and partnered with Paul throughout his ministry in the South Carolina Conference. Eloise taught Sunday school, sang in the choir and was an MYF counselor. She was active in UMW, and various church committees. Perhaps dearest to her heart was serving on the Worship committee, where she trained and coordinated acolytes. Eloise helped with many socials and fund-raising events. Her baking skills were especially praised. Her long telephone conversations to the sick, lonely, and bereaved will be long-remembered. She had a heart of love and compassion. Her children can attest to this. She was always supportive and encouraging of their talents and pursuits.

In later years she was employed by and retired from the Greenville County RMC office. She was remembered as a hardworking and efficient employee and beloved colleague. She was a doting grandmother and much later a proud great-grandmother. She and Paul enjoyed traveling and made several trips to Austria and other European countries to visit their youngest daughter and family who lived in Vienna.

After the passing of her beloved husband of 63 years and her own declining health, she moved into an assisted living facility in Charleston, South Carolina where she lived for the last 5 years of her life.

Eloise is survived by her three children, Paul DeWitt (Dee) Petty, Jr., Sandra Petty Brown, Deborah Koll-Petty and their spouses, 6 grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren.

ERNESTINE WILLIAMS ROBINSON

July 18, 1917 – November 10, 2013

Mrs. Ernestine Williams Robinson was born in Bamberg, South Carolina to Robert B. Williams and Theodosia Wright Williams. She was married to the Rev. J.W. Robinson for 75 years. She taught for 35 years before retiring. They established the Federal Head Start Program for Berkeley, Dorchester and Colleton counties. She was a candidate for the office of County superintendent of Dorchester County schools during a time when it was neither the norm, nor safe for an African-American.

An impactful ministry of hers was teaching confirmation classes. She believed members should be both knowledgeable and dedicated to church and faith. Ernestine was a delegate to the last Central Jurisdiction Conference, and the last president of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church. She was a lifelong member with the Ministers Wives Association, Eastern Star, and Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc.

Celebrating her life, her legacy will live on through her three children, John Winifred Jr. (Karla), Annette Robinson Marbury (Herbert Lawrence, deceased), William Thomas (Joyce), four grandchildren, Herbert Robinson Marbury, William Thomas Robinson Jr., Carlyn Joyce Robinson, and Lawrence Andrew Marbury (Sheryl), and three great-grandchildren, JaiDa Robinson, Lawrence Johnathan Marbury, and Chloe AnnaRose Marbury, seven grandchildren by marriage, Yasmin Qazilbash, Anwar Qazilbash, Emily Qazilbash, Bryant Mehnert, Ruby Qazilbash, Eric L. Baker, Lakeidra Marbury Baker, and nine great grandchildren by marriage, Daniel Zeitler, Maya Qazilbash, Alexander Qazilbash, Calvin Qazilbash, Isabella Qazilbash Mehnert, Tristan Mehnert, extended family Amya Marbury, Averi Marbury, and Jaylen Harrold, and her beloved community.

ETHEL LEE LEWIS ROGERS

April 23, 1928 – October 26, 2013

Ethel Lee Rogers, 85, passed away Saturday, October 26, 2013 at her home, surrounded by family.

She was born in Vaughn, Mississippi, and attended Daniel Hand School and Tougaloo Preparatory School. She had completed her teacher training and interned at the preparatory school when she enrolled at Tougaloo College and was a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority.

Ethel was first in her Navy Hospital Corpsman Class. She entered the Navy X-Ray School and served three Navy years as an X-ray technician at Chelsea Naval Hospital at Newport, Rhode Island.

Ethel became first lady of Arkansas Baptist College from 1956 to 1959. Ethel became a science teacher for the Jackson Public School from 1960 to 1968. During 1968-69, she earned a Master of Science degree from the University of Washington. In 1974, she earned a specialist degree certification in science. Ethel served 10 years as the first lady of Claflin College, and she served as a director of the computer science laboratory and taught math and science. After retiring in 1993, Ethel returned to Jackson, Mississippi, to take care of her aging father.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Dr. Oscar A. Rogers, Jr. who was a member of the South Carolina Annual Conference and served as President of Claflin University from 1984 until his retirement in 1994; son, Christopher Rogers; parents, Jesse and Elizabeth Lewis and her brother, Jefferson Oscar Lewis, Jr.

She is survived by her sons Christian Shawn Rogers and Christoff Ian Rogers; daughter-in-law, Brenda Rogers; brother, Jesse Lewis; six grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

MARGARET DAVIS ROGERS

July 1, 1921 – February 9, 2014

A native of Columbia, South Carolina, Margaret Davis Rogers was born on July 1, 1921 and died February 9, 2014. She was buried in the family cemetery alongside her husband in Sandy Run, South Carolina. She married Edwin William Rogers Sr. on April 10, 1943. Churches served included the following: Aldersgate, Sumter; Barnwell; Broad Street, Clinton; St. Matthew, Greenville; Central, Spartanburg; John Wesley, Charleston. Columbia churches included Main Street, St. James, and Shandon. As a member at Shandon, Margaret became a Stephen Minister, a trainee in the first program there where she served for many years.

Margaret possessed a keen intellect and enjoyed many positions of leadership in each of the congregations that her husband served. In addition, she became very active in Older Adult Ministry in Columbia; and, served as the R.S.V.P. Director for the Council On Aging prior to her retirement.

In addition to her husband and her Lord, Margaret loved her family. Devoted to higher education, she proudly supported all four children in their academic achievements, as well as her grandchildren. She is survived by her children, Rev. Margaret (Mickey) dePrater (Bill) of Chapel Hill, North Carolina; Dr. Edwin William Rogers, Jr. (Teresa) of Pensacola, Florida; David Lenoir Rogers (Madolyn) of Madison, Wisconsin; Christiana Chumakov (George) of Richland, Michigan; nine grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. A celebration of Margaret's life was held at Shandon United Methodist Church on February 14, 2014.

LOUISE ALBERTA MACK SINGLETARY

February 8, 1927 – October 14, 2013

Louise Alberta Mack Singletary was born February 8, 1927 to the union of Grace Greene and Elijah Mack in Hemingway, South Carolina. She departed this life on Monday, October 14, 2013. She was the youngest of their six children. She was educated in the Florence County Schools and graduated from Wilson High School in the class of 1946.

She was united in holy matrimony to the late Revered Woodrow W. Singletary. To their union, one daughter, Joan, was born. She stood by her husband's side through many difficult situations as well as many joyful occasions. She was the epitome of a first lady, a mother, and a homemaker. She was always willing to serve in any capacity at any time. She did everything for her family. Her mantra was "when life hands you lemons, make lemonade and always...always smile."

After her husband's retirement, she reunited with Cumberland United Methodist Church where she served in many capacities, James H. Spears, Jr. Choir (Choir #2), Communion Stewardess, and the Evangelism Committee just to name a few.

She leaves to smile and cherish her memory and honor her legacy, her devoted daughter and son-in-law Joan and Dr. David Gittens, her sisters, Mrs. Marie Mack, and Mrs. Laura Burton, her brothers-in-law Mr. Frank (Laura) Singletary and Mr. Charles Davis, and her god grand-children Marcus, Jasmine and Janea Richardson, her special care giver, Ms. Mavis Gittens and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

EUNICE HORNE WILLIAMSON

May 27, 1923 – August 3, 2013

Mrs. Eunice Horne Williamson was born on May 27, 1923 and passed away August 3, 2013. She was married to the late Rev. Jennings F. Williamson for 53 years. She had 3 children, 6 grandchildren and 9 great grandchildren.

She was a woman of strong faith and believed in always helping others. She loved her family and would do anything to help them.

She loved her church home, family, and working in the yard. She was self-sufficient into her late 80's. She lived by herself, did all of her yard work and didn't want any help.

She was true to herself and her family until her health took over. When she went to her heavenly home in August, God welcomed a great disciple and a wonderful person to tend to his garden. We miss her but know Mom and Dad are home.

MARY ALICE PARKMAN WILSON

August 16, 1923 – January 23, 2014

Mary Alice Parkman Wilson was born August 16, 1923 in Greenwood, South Carolina and passed away on Thursday, January 23, 2014. She was the daughter of the late Peter Dorn Parkman and Elize Hill Parkman.

Mary Alice graduated from Lander University and taught in schools throughout the state. She was a member of the Red Bank United Methodist Church.

She is survived by her son, George B. "Chip" Wilson of West Columbia, and was predeceased by her husband, the Reverend George B. Wilson.

Funeral services were held at Red Bank United Methodist Church with interment in the church cemetery.

OTHERS

ONEIDA SOLER FLOYD

June 13, 1930 – February 17, 2014

Oneida Soler Floyd was born in Baire, Cuba. She grew up attending the Methodist Church in Holguin, Cuba, with her parents and siblings. When she was 19, a young student missionary from Emory University visited her church. By the end of the night, Herbert Floyd knew Oneida would be his bride. The two were wed shortly after, and their marriage spanned 63 years.

Oneida was a woman of faith and courage as she left her native country and her family to serve the Lord with Herbert. She worked diligently to learn the English language and become a United States Citizen. For 43 years, Oneida and Herbert ministered to 10 churches across the South Carolina Conference. Oneida was the epitome of a "preacher's wife," singing in every choir, belonging to UMW, extending hospitality to parsonage visitors, and cooking wonderful dishes for covered dish dinners. Her gift of a green thumb was evident by beautiful flowers in the yard year round.

Oneida's greatest joy aside from the Lord, were her "chicks" as she lovingly called her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. Max, Carl, Janis, and Judy, along with their families, continue to love and serve the Lord just as their parents did.

CATHERINE ROBERTA (DOT) FORRESTER

June 10, 1928 – March 6, 2014

Dot loved God and her family. She was married for almost 66 years to her beloved husband, Walter Forrester, who preceded her in death. She had been a member of El Bethel UMC since 1950 but attended Cross Anchor-Yarborough UMC and Hebron UMC for 16 years. She cared for the little ones in the nursery and loved rocking those babies and generously gave of her time in the summers for VBS.

She and Walt raised their three children and provided temporary and welcoming havens for other family members when needed. Her door and heart was always open and no one left her home without being well-fed and well-loved.

She loved God's creation particularly the loveliness of her own backyard which produced glorious flowers and fragrant trees; and catfish being caught off the dock at Lake Greenwood. Dot had a beautiful voice and would sing hymns of praise and thankfulness. After the passing of her dear Walt, Dot would always pray over our meals speaking such beautiful words of thankfulness and always ending with "please be sure the children are fed".

She will be missed by her children Gerald (Linda), Sandy (Steve) Hobbs, and Rickey (Lorraine). She was Mama to six grandchildren, fourteen great-grandchildren and one great, great-grandchild. They are: Michael Forrester (Leigh) and sons Chandler and Chance; Gia Atwood (Steve) and children Trace, Caleigh and Reagan; Ansley Webb (Cameron) and children Colby (daughter, Marley), Chase, Cade, Casen and Brynne; Allen Hobbs (Caroline) and children Will and Lila; Paige Forrester and David Switzer, and his sons, John Paul and Winton.
