Anderson District United Methodist Women

South Carolina Conference

March 2013

Greetings my sisters in Christ! We have prepared the flame which has already started in us, so we can become a light that shines through the darkness to enable us to do God's missions in the world.

Officers' Training was held January 12, 2013 at Ariel UMC in Easley. We are so proud of Ariel. They re-organized in 2012 and hosted the cluster meeting for Zone 4. The theme was "Preparing The Flame." The speaker was Bernetha Orr, who is pursuing the Candidacy Process for the Ministry and a member of John Wesley UMC in Easley. She was excellent! We had 69 in attendance. Thank you Rev. Roger Gwinn, Pastor; congregation; Jean Watson, UMW President; Kelly Mathis; and the Local UMW Unit for hosting the training. Thanks to John Wesley, Fairfield, and Easley Chapel for helping Ariel with refreshments. Thanks also to the skit performers: Rev. Kempie Shepard, Josephine Bowens and Johnnie Jackson. This was Gwendolyn Brown's first event as vice president and she did an excellent job!

Wow! We made our pledge of $37,500.00 because you are so dedicated to mission. Our total pledge amount paid was $38,518.36. Thank you UMW and Crystal Lewis for your loving hearts and hard work.

The Executive Committee Meeting was hosted by Mount Zion UMC in Central, February 4, 2013. Thank you Rev. Kurt McPherson, Pastor; Elizabeth Finley, UMW President; and Local UMW for hosting the Executive Committee. The soup and desserts were delicious. Tables were decorated with flowers and valentines.

Legislative Advocacy Day was February 19, 2013, at Epworth Children's Home in Columbia. We had 15 UMW from the Anderson District. First UMC (8), Grace-Williamson (3), Trinity-And. (2), Fairfield (1), and John Wesley (Easley) (1)

The Anderson District UMW Executive Committee is asking all Local Units to give $10.00 to the Sandy Flood Relief Fund, providing your unit has not made a previous contribution. Send the money to Crystal Lewis, District Treasurer for UMCOR- Sandy Flood Relief Fund. Thank you!

The SCCUMW Executive Team is asking all local UMW units to give a second mile gift of $1.00 per member in 2013 to be divided among our 5 mission projects. You may, of course give more. Send the money before 4th quarter. This does not count toward your 5 mission project award.

Mary McLeod Bethune, an African American, was born on July 10, 1875 in Maysville, SC. She was number 15 of 17 children. She graduated from Scotia Seminary (now Barbara Scotia College) in Concord, NC. She was an Educator and Civil Rights Activist. Bethune founded the Daytona Normal and Industrial Institute in 1904, which later merged and became Bethune-Cookman College. She died in 1955. The SC Highway Department is selling License Plates in memory of her for $54.00, of which $30.00 will go toward missions.

Visitation: Crystal Lewis and I did a workshop on "Where The Money Goes" at Grace UMC in Pickens. If you need help or have questions, call or e-mail us anytime.

"Day Apart" is April 13, 2013 at the Hospice of the Upstate in Anderson. The speaker is Rev. Brenda Washington, pastor of New Beginning and Minus Chapel UMC in Greenville.

Your Sister-In-Christ,

Jane Hallums

Help Choose United Methodist Women Leaders

The Mission of the Anderson District Committee on Nominations is to create a team of dedicated, willing officers to lead the district in making a difference in the lives of women, children, and youth. This fall we have an important slate of offices to fill. We will be electing a new president, secretary, treasurer, communications coordinator who puts together the district newsletter, and the secretary of program resources. Each of these officers serves a two-year term.

There will also be two vacancies on the nominations committee. Each of these members serve 4 years on a rotating basis so that there are always veteran members on the committee. These terms are longer so that the members can become familiar with the office responsibilities and the ladies in the district and can then make good decisions in filling each position.

We hope that you will pray about these offices and let us know if you feel led to accept one of them or if you know someone in your unit that you think would make a good district leader. Feel free to contact me anytime with questions about an office or with the name of a person who might be interested. Thank you for all you do for the United Methodist Women.

$$$$$$$$.....MISSION GIVING NOTES

FROM YOUR TREASURER

Anderson District UMW 2012 MISSION GIVING Report:
We exceeded our 2012 pledge of $37,500 and gave $38,511.36!!

Thank you so much for your generous giving and sacrifice to help others! The needs of women and children throughout our local communities, state, nation and around the world remain great. Your giving does matter. Every dollar helps improve lives with food, shelter, education, health care access, job training and most importantly the opportunity to share the saving grace of our Lord, Jesus Christ. The biblical story of the five loaves demonstrates what God can do with the little we have to offer in the face of needs that seem too big to be met.

There are four critical deadlines for submitting quarterly reports to the district treasurer. Mark them on your calendar!!!

- 1st quarter deadline – MARCH 5th
 - 2nd quarter deadline – JUNE 5th
 - 3rd quarter deadline - SEPTEMBER 5th
 - 4th quarter deadline – DECEMBER 5th

ALL GIFT TO MISSION CARDS WILL NOW BE HANDLED IN THE SAME WAY AS GIFT IN MEMORY CARDS. THE UNIT TREASURERS WILL KEEP A SUPPLY ON HAND AND REMIT A MINIMUM OF $5 FOR EACH CARD USED ON THE QUARTERLY REMITTANCE. IF YOU WERE NOT AT TRAINING, PLEASE CONTACT CRYSTAL TO RECEIVE A SUPPLY OF CARDS.

If you would like a circle or unit program or have any questions on Mission Giving, please contact Crystal Lewis at 356-9961, 340 Cann Road, Anderson, SC 29625, craylew55@gmail.com.

“...their joy was so great that they were extremely generous in their giving...” II Corinthians 8:2

Mission School New Name More Choices

We are excited to announce that the new name for our beloved School of Christian Mission is Mission u.

We have met the much requested opportunity for more flexibility in scheduling. This year you will have a choice of a four-day or two-day school. You will have the choice of the traditional four days of in depth mission study paired with the slower paced afternoons filled with options like time to shop at the craft room, to visit the resource room for a new favorite book or have a one-hour short course. Or, you may choose the faster paced two days of intense mission study beginning on Friday morning at 10:00 and ending on Saturday at lunch. The cost of the two day option, of course, is less than that of the traditional four day Mission u. We believe that this two-day choice will allow more care givers, mothers with small children, pastors, and working women and men to attend this wonderful mission education opportunity.

The studies this year include the Spiritual Growth study, Call to Sacramental Living. The social issues study is Poverty, a repeat from the 2012 School of Christian Mission. The geographic study is the Romas of Europe, a study of our mission to the gypsies of Europe.

See the two registration forms for cost and other information. If you want to participate in one of the plenaries or drive a golf cart, please complete that part of the registration form.

Mission Opportunities

From Becky More:

Killingsworth Home desperately needs quarters for residents' laundry. Spread the word

Most of our residents are newly employed and are paying probation fees, fines, court costs, and child support or other debts.

We always encourage them to do this as a practice of healthy and appropriate personal and social responsibility.

Hello,

My name is Rebecca and I am the foster family recruiter for Miracle Hill Ministries. Did you know there are around 1500 children in need of foster care in the Upstate and only about 500 foster families? That means children are being placed outside of their communities, in less than ideal situations, and even in group homes, due to lack of families. Having fostered 25 teen girls myself, I firmly believe fostering is a way for Christians to answer God's call to care for the fatherless. What a way to build the Kingdom, by pouring God's love into a child. Planting a seed which will not only stay in their hearts, but be passed on to their biological families, friends and communities as they return with God's love in their lives.

Foster care to me is so similar to the good news of the gospel of Christ Jesus. We were dead in our addictions, sins and bondage, without acceptance, without security and without significance. The good news is that Christ's sacrifice for us changed all of that as we were adopted into God's family. Transformed into a new creation, made alive in God and to God!

In our efforts to get the word out to Christians that foster parents are desperately needed, we are asking women's ministries to help us. We can come and speak at a meeting, to a Sunday School class or home group, hold an informational meeting, or host a table with information. Please let us know if you are interested in partnering with us in the effort to provide Christian families for children in need.
