THE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS

With the extension of the 2016 quadrennium, our election cycle for members of conference boards, agencies, councils, and committees is delayed. Those terms of office ending in the year 2020, will be instead extended until the 2016 quadrennium ends.

Report Number One is for the election of those institutions that relate to the annual conference, who select and nominate their own board members, and who, by standing rules, pass these nominations directly to the Annual Conference by way of the Conference Committee on Nominations. These nominations are before the Annual Conference for your election.

Report Number Two contains the nominations for the Wesley Foundations and Fellowships.

Report Number Three contains the nominations for the various district boards and committees and they are submitted by the districts for annual conference election.

Report Number Four is the list of all boards, agencies, committees and councils of the annual conference elected at the 2019 annual conference. This report is given as information only. These elections will stand until the end of the extended quadrennium.

THE BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

Every clergy and laity on the Board of Ordained Ministry is a highly dedicated and faithful servant who gives of his or her time and unique gifts to the ministry of leadership development. Together, they prayerfully seek to affirm the calling of each candidate for ministry, with compassionate nurture and accountability. We are grateful for each member of the Board of Ordained Ministry who serves to encourage, provide and develop fruitful leaders in various ministry settings.

Like all ministries this past year, and most recently during the COVID-19 pandemic, the Board of Ordained Ministry has been invited and challenged to discover different approaches to our two primary tasks: leadership development and credentialing. We have worked faithfully and adapted accordingly in the midst of the challenges. It remains a body that collaborates well, even as we exist in an emerging church culture that also faces possible denominational shifts.

At a yet undetermined date, we will celebrate the fruit of persons who have answered a call to ministry and successfully navigated the requirements for commissioning and ordination. These persons are valued as meeting the standards of “readiness” and “effectiveness” for ministry in the local church and other ministry settings. Ten persons will be ordained as Full Elders; nine persons will be commissioned as Provisional Elders; one person will be commissioned as a Provisional Deacon:

Kenneth David Freeman Jr.	FE
Cindy Wolfe Muncie	FE
Sammy Omar Pazi	FE
Nathan Smalls	FE
Elizabeth Fulmer Sullivan	FE
Frances Hillary Taylor	FE
Brenda Joyce Thomas	FE
Carole Anne Waters	FE
Lisa Montque Way	FE
Cheryl Elaine Yates	FE

James Thornton Brown III	PE
William Douglas Herlong	PE
Cameron Thomas Levi	PE
Emma McClain Murphy	PE
Tae Suk Park	PE
Bryan Wray Pigford	PE
Woongchul Daniel Ra	PE
Andrew Warren Sizemore	PE
James David Taylor III	PE

Soon Suk Nix	PD

We give thanks that each has responded to a call to ministry and a commitment to the ministry process, and we ask God's blessing on their continued journey in mission and ministry. We look forward to a time in the future when we can celebrate their commissioning and ordination together.

Also, through the generosity of the churches in S.C. Annual Conference, the Board of Ordained Ministry is able to offer scholarships to assist persons called to ministry to achieve the necessary education to equip them for ministry. This year, we are delighted to recognize the following scholarship recipients:

Seminary Students Scholarship Recipients:

Joseph Daniel Kovas	$3,000
James William Smith	$3,000

The Board also would like to recognize those who have reached a milestone in their continued preparation for effective ministry. The following person completed the five-year Basic Course of Study in 2019-2020:

John Elmore	August 2019	Duke Divinity School
Jerry Godfrey	August 2019	Duke Divinity School
Jacob Thompson	November 2019	Duke Divinity School
Richard Toy	July 2019	Duke Divinity School

As always, we are grateful for the churches and the Annual Conference for ongoing support for the Ministry Education Fund. Through your generosity, the Board of Ordained Ministry has been able to provide financial assistance to students, reducing the cost to them for seminary and Course of Study. This past year, $166,450 was disbursed for seminarians and $67,250 for the Course of Study – totaling $233,700. We invite you to continue to be generous in your support of our seminarians and local pastors as they remain faithful in their leadership devel-

1 opment toward excellence in ministry. Your offering may be sent to the S.C. Conference Seminary Students
2 Scholarship Fund, an endowment of the South Carolina United Methodist Foundation, which provides scholarship
3 awards to candidates for ministry from South Carolina attending United Methodist seminaries and theological
4 schools. Your generosity is greatly appreciated.

5 District Committees on Ordained Ministry are an extension of the Board of Ordained Ministry that are committed
6 to meeting often with all candidates for ministry. They have an extremely important role in nurture and accountability
7 of persons in the ministry process. The Board is grateful for the hard work of every District Committee on Or-
8 dained Ministry.

9 As you have heard, we celebrate God's call on lives to the unparalleled vocation and joy of ministry.

10 There is also other business as it relates to ministry that necessitates our meticulous and particular attention.
11 The Board of Ordained Ministry continues to plan and implement the Bishop's School of Ministry and Clergy Or-
12 ders, to recruit and engage seminarians as potential and hopeful leaders in the SC Conference, to discern and 13 process Extension Ministry requests, to participate in Approval for Service requests, to receive and prayerfully
14 process requests for Change of Status of candidates and clergy, and to engage persons discerning a call to minis-
15 try through the Candidacy Retreats – just to name a few of the ongoing responsibilities of the board. Above all, as 16 your South Carolina Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, we strive to faithfully attend to the nurture and ac-
17 countability of every person called to ministry and those serving Christ in these strange and hope-filled times in 18 which we all find ourselves.

19 On behalf of the Board of Ordained Ministry, we are grateful for the faithful and consummate leadership of the 20 Rev. Ken Nelson, Coordinator Clergy Services, and Sharome Henry, Executive Assistant for Clergy Services. The 21 work of the Board could not be done as smoothly and effectively without the blessing of their guidance, leadership,
22 knowledge, professionalism and love for the Church.

23 Bishop, in response to Business Question 17, "Are all the clergy members of the conference blameless in their 24 life and official administration (§§604.4, 605.7)?" The answer is yes, with the exception of those matters which 25 have been acted upon in the Clergy Session.

26 Bishop, I move the Report of the Board of Ordained Ministry to record.

28 Respectfully submitted:

33 THE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON STANDING RULES

35 The Committee on Standing Rules met in April 2020 to consider requests to amend existing standing rules. This 36 year, the committee proposes changes to four standing rules. As a result, the Committee on Standing Rules offers
37 to the Annual Conference for its consideration amendments to the following standing rules: 27, 28, 48 and 57. In 38 addition, because the Standing Rules still refer to the Board of Laity in some places, the Committee on Standing
39 Rules will change the words "Board of Laity" to "Lay Leadership" throughout the Standing Rules.

40

41 Standing Rule 27

42

43 Rationale: This proposed rule change would save time every four years during the election process for lay
44 delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conference. Each election year, because there is no provision
45 in our Standing Rules or the Book of Discipline for the Conference to pay the expenses of alternate
46 delegates to General or Jurisdictional Conference, someone must make a motion to pay those ex-
47 penses. If we approve this recommendation, the motion will no longer be necessary.

48

49 Standing Rule 27 – Proposed section 27.d

50 27. d. Alternate lay delegates elected to Jurisdictional and General Conferences will be paid (by the South Carolina
51 Annual Conference) the same per diem and travel expenses as other delegates elected to those Conferences.

52

53 Standing Rule 28

54

55 Rationale: This proposed rule change would save time every four years during the election process for clergy
56 delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conference. Each election year, because there is no provision
57 in our Standing Rules or the Book of Discipline for the Conference to pay the expenses of alternate
58 delegates to General or Jurisdictional Conference, someone must make a motion to pay those ex-
59 penses. If we approve this recommendation, the motion will no longer be necessary.

61 Standing Rule 28 – Proposed section 28.e

62 28. e. Alternate clergy delegates elected to Jurisdictional and General Conferences will be paid (by the South 63 Carolina Annual Conference) the same per diem and travel expenses as other delegates elected to those 64 Conferences.

Standing Rule 48

Rationale: Conference Connectional Ministries has submitted a request to change their Standing Rule 48. There are several changes, and for the most part, they bring the Standing Rule into line with the current practice of Connectional Ministries.

Standing Rule 48 – Existing rule:

48. TRANSITION PLAN FOR THE SOUTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE COUNCIL, BOARDS, COMMISSIONS, COMMITTEES AND EQUIVALENT STRUCTURE

INTRODUCTION

I. THE ORGANIZATION, STRUCTURE AND PURPOSE OF PROGRAM-RELATED AGENCIES

The organization with chairs and membership of program-related conference councils, boards, commissions, committees and equivalent structure shall coordinate functions under four Ministry Areas of Advocacy, Discipleship, Lay Leadership and Outreach. These conference agencies shall be constituted by the established annual conference procedures for nomination, election and inclusiveness (See The Book of Discipline 2008 Par. 610.5, Par. 605.3 and Program Structure Plan Sections II. A and III. B and 2011 Conference Standing Rules 34-80).

The structure, as mandated in The Book of Discipline 2008, is inclusive of specific ex-officio members for unique function and/or connectional link. (See Par. 610.5, Par 710.6 and Section IX The Annual Conference of The Book of Discipline 2008 on paragraphs for program-related conference agencies.)

The foregoing structure encompasses the process in paragraph 610 of The Book of Discipline 2008.

The primary purpose of this structure plan shall uphold the defined purpose of an annual conference as stated in Par. 601 of The Book of Discipline 2008, which is "...to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world by equipping its local churches for ministry and by providing a connection for ministry beyond the local church; all to the glory of God."

First, to these ends the following design establishes that there shall be organized in each district of the annual conference a District Connectional Ministries (DCM).

Secondly, there shall be a Conference Connectional Ministries (CCM) consistent with the disciplinary requirements in composition, election, membership terms, reporting methods, lines of accountability, ministry, mission, and structure under four Ministry Areas (See Judicial Decision 1147). This structure of the CCM shall provide for the membership, function, and connectional relationship of the local church, district, and conference with general agencies as prescribed in Par. 610 of The Book of Discipline 2008.

II. DISTRICT CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES (DCM)

A. Functions & Connections of DCM

The DCM shall be composed of four Ministry Areas: Advocacy, Discipleship, Lay Leadership, and Outreach. The focus of the four Ministry Areas shall be to enhance the connectional relationship with equivalent local church officers through relevant programs and ministries designed for local church implementation and/or participation. In addition, the four Ministry Areas shall put into practice connections with CCM and relevant program-related/advocacy general agencies. In order to coordinate with CCM, the scheduled meetings to facilitate DCM work shall be set for January, March, May, September, November. The assigned District Congregational Specialist shall work with the DCM to establish agenda guidelines for planning, setting due dates and reporting to the CCM. With input from local churches through each DCM, the CCM meetings in February and October shall focus on planning, coordinating, implementing and evaluating for the mission and ministries of the connection. Each DCM shall report annually in writing to the CCM by November 30.

B. Membership and Organization of DCM

The DCM membership shall be at least twenty-four (24) persons composed of at least six members of each district ministry area. These persons shall be appointed for a quadrennial term by the district superintendent, the district lay leader and the district congregational specialist. At the time of appointment, it is recommended that Ministry Area members be one-half laity and one-half clergy. Each Ministry Area at their DCM quadrennial organization meeting in January may elect up to four (4) additional members to insure inclusiveness (See Par 610.5). Also, a District Communicator appointed by the District Superintendent, in consultation with the district lay leader and the assigned district congregational specialist, shall be an ex-officio member of DCM. The DCM shall coordinate the election process of DCM officers. No person may serve at the same time on more than one Ministry Area.

District Ministry Area members shall be elected for a quadrennial term. The term limit shall be two consecutive quadrennia, except to permit exceeding this limit for completing an interim vacancy term of less than twenty-four (24) months. After this period of service that member shall be ineligible for reelection to that same district agency until a lapse of two (2) years. Interim vacancies for DCM shall be appointed by the district superintendent in consultation with the district lay leader and the district congregational specialist. The District Superintendent (DS), District Lay Leader, and the assigned District Congregational Specialist shall be ex-officio members of the DCM.

C. Funding of DCM

The primary source of funding for the program and administrative budget of each DCM shall be provided from the respective district program budget and from CCM Program and Administrative Budgets as annually recommended to CCFA for adoption by the annual conference.

III. CONFERENCE CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES (CCM)

(Previously Conference Council on Connectional Ministries)

A. Function & Connections

The CCM shall be composed of the program councils, boards, commissions, committees, and task forces under four Ministry Areas (Advocacy, Discipleship, Lay Leadership, and Outreach) with twenty-four (24) members in each Ministry Area. In addition, each Ministry Area at their quadrennial organization (See SR 37b) may elect up to six (6) additional members to insure inclusiveness. No person may serve at the same time on more than one Ministry Area. The CCM shall encompass the functions and connectional relationships of disciplinary program-related agencies of the annual conference. (See conference agency functions in the Discipline paragraphs 629, 630, 631, 632, 634, 642, 643, 644, 645, 646, 647, 648, 649, 650, 651, 654, and 655 of The Book of Discipline 2008) These program councils, boards, commissions, and committees shall be directly related to the Conference Connectional Ministries. The chair and members of program councils, boards, commissions, committees, and task forces designated under each Ministry Area shall have oversight for representing the functions of their respective conference agency in the CCM. The chair of each agency shall designate one of its members to function as Coordinator of Witness (See function in Par. 610).

The CCM is connected directly with program-related/advocacy general agencies. Also, CCM is linked with general agencies by the annual conference members (with vote) who serve on that corresponding program-related conference agency. (See Par. 710.6) (See SR 38 & 39) Accountability of the CCM with the Annual Conference shall be through the annual CCM reports and implementation of conference adopted CCM programs and ministries utilizing the connectional relationship with DCM and local churches for implementation along with general agencies. The CCM Chair and the Chairs of four Ministry Areas shall submit their annual reports and any recommendations requiring Conference consideration to the Conference Secretary no later than March 1 of each year for printing in the pre-conference materials. Reports and recommendations shall be submitted in a format acceptable to the Conference Secretary. CCM may recommend additional committees to the annual conference for the work and approval of the prescribed membership, powers, and duties (See Par. 610.2).

Scheduled meetings to facilitate CCM work shall be set for February and October. The CCM Director and Chair of CCM shall establish the CCM agenda for planning, coordinating (including agency functions), implementing and evaluating for the mission and ministries of the connection within and beyond the annual conference.

B. Membership and Organization of CCM

Each CCM Ministry Area of Advocacy, Discipleship, Lay Leadership, and Outreach shall organize their twenty-four (24) members from two nominees for each Ministry Area by each DCM following their election by the annual conference session at the beginning of the quadrennium. At the time of election, it is recommended that Ministry Area members be one-half laity and one-half clergy. At the beginning of a quadrennium all quadrennial CCM agencies shall be convened within sixty (60) days upon the close of the Annual Conference session for organization. (See SR 37b) In addition, it is recommended that each Ministry Area at their quadrennial organization may elect up to six (6) additional members to insure inclusiveness (See Par 610.5). Also, annual conference members serving on general agencies (ex-officio with vote) are included on their corresponding conference agencies. (See 710.6 of The Book of Discipline 2008) Other ex-officio representatives in the connection shall be assigned by the CCM Chair to serve on the appropriate conference agency.

By February 1 prior to the beginning of each quadrennium, each DS shall submit the list of nominees for CCM Ministry Areas to be elected by the annual conference to the Director of Conference Connectional Ministries for inclusion in the report of the Conference Committee on Nominations. The Director of CCM shall provide each District office with nominee forms, which shall include biographical data, local church experience, etc. and shall include the nominee's signature indicating willingness to serve. (See SR 34)

Conference Ministry Area members shall be elected for a quadrennial term. The term limit shall be two consecutive quadrennia, except to permit exceeding this limit for completing an interim vacancy term of less than twenty-four (24) months. After this period of service that member shall be ineligible for re-election to that same CCM agency until a lapse of two (2) years. Interim vacancies shall be appointed to the CCM by the respective district superintendent in consultation with the district lay leader and the district congregational specialist. Interim vacancies which exceed twenty-four (24) months of the quadrennium shall be considered as a full quadrennial term of service (See SR 34).

IV. CCM OFFICERS

CCM Officers shall be chairperson, vice chairperson and secretary. These officers shall be elected from the CCM members upon nomination by a CCM Nominating Committee. The CCM Nominating Committee shall be appointed at the end of the quadrennium by the outgoing CCM chairperson. The resulting CCM member vacancy created by the election of a new chairperson of CCM shall be filled as prescribed by the annual conference in Structure Plan Section III.B.

A. Executive Committee for CCM

The Executive Committee shall be the CCM chairperson, CCM Vice-Chair, CCM Secretary and the four chairpersons of the Ministry Areas (Advocacy, Discipleship, Lay Leadership, Outreach) nominated by the appointed CCM Committee on Nomination and elected by the CCM at the quadrennial organizational meeting. The CCM Director shall be an ex-officio member without vote.

The executive committee may act on behalf of CCM to deal with program, missional needs, and emerging ministries to facilitate the work and functions represented in a Ministry Area of the CCM. Any executive committee actions shall be reported to the CCM at the next regularly scheduled meeting. Funding for such interim action by the Executive Committee shall be within the budgeted amounts recommended by Conference Council on Finance and Administration (CCFA) and adopted by the annual conference.

B. Funding for CCM

In accordance with The Book of Discipline 2008, the CCM annually submits the program and administrative budgets to the Conference Council on Finance and Administration (CCFA) for adoption by the annual conference. This adopted budget funds conference and district ministry programming and administration. This budget process provides a specific amount to each program council, board, commission, and committee in each Ministry Area which is recorded in line items of the CCFA Report submitted to annual conference for adoptions (See Par. 614.3 of The Book of Discipline 2008). The budget presented to the annual conference shall include a line item for conference benevolences in the budget of the Commission on Archives and History.

The CCM function in the budgeting process is prescribed in Par. 614.3a(2) which states: It is the responsibility of the conference council on ministries (CCM) to study the budget requests of the conference program agencies and to recommend to the conference council on finance and administration amounts to be allocated from the conference benevolences budget to each such agency, within the total established by the conference council on finance and administration. (See Judicial Decisions 521, 551)

By November 1 funding requests from each chair of the program council, board, commission or committee in the four Ministry Areas shall be submitted to CCM. Budget requests shall be based upon program and ministry designs finalized during the October CCM meeting. The Ministry Area Chairs present their budget requests to CCM at the February meeting. The CCM program and administrative budget requests are presented to CCFA at the March CCFA meeting.

FOUR MINISTRY AREAS

The Conference Advocacy Ministries Area shall be organized, funded as prescribed (See Par. 614.3), and function as mandated for the program-related conference agencies, which are described in The Book of Discipline 2008. The Advocacy Ministries shall be constituted to include, but not be limited to the following: Native American Ministry (See functions Par. 654), Christian Unity & Interreligious Concerns (CUIC) (See functions Par. 642), Church and Society (See functions Par. 629), Religion and Race (See functions Par. 643), Status and Role of Women (See functions Par. 644), Ethnic Local Church Concerns (ELCC) (See functions Par. 632), and emerging community ministries.

Each Advocacy Ministry Area shall identify and monitor implementation of the respective disciplinary functions for reporting to the CCM. Additional members for short term committees and task forces may be assigned by the CCM in the implementation of the Advocacy Ministries.

APPENDICES A-E

APPENDIX A: Introductory Preface

DCM/CCM Structure

The DCM/CCM design will effectively equip local churches for ministry and strengthen the connections for ministry among local churches, districts, annual conference and general church agencies. The initial assigning of annual conference staff into the districts (District Congregational Specialists) has produced concrete results of building ministry programs around needs identified by local churches. The connection design is strengthened by having selected laity and clergy persons from the DCM make up the CCM

1 along with representatives from general agencies and others to insure inclusive membership. By stream-
2 lining the organizational structure, the connectional response to the needs of the local churches will be
3 timely and efficient. Also this structure will facilitate a more direct connection between general agencies
4 and local churches.

35 The CCM shall meet at least twice a year in February and October.

36 The meetings shall include a gathering/worship time followed by a session with all ministry area members
37 for the purpose of evaluation of ongoing ministries and discussion of emerging needs. During a much 38 larger block of time, ministry areas will gather separately for more detailed work with input related to 39 functions of each conference program-related agency. The meeting will conclude with the entire CCM
40 gathering to make decisions and coordinate work.

42 CCM Ministry Areas:

43 Each CCM Ministry Area may establish task forces to plan and implement ministry programs or events.
44 The task force members may include persons selected by the ministry area but not members of the CCM.
45 Funding for the task force will come from the budget of the respective ministry area, council, board,
46 commission, or committee. The council, board, commission, or committee may add additional persons,
47 without vote, to assist in carrying out their ministry.

49 Implementing Issues:

50 Prior service on conference agencies will not preclude a person from serving in the new structure.

51 In order to nominate officers of the first CCM, the chairperson of the current Council on Connectional
52 Ministries will name the nominating committee from members of the four Ministry Areas of CCM.

53 During the last year of the quadrennium (2016) there shall be a review of the new structure and any needed 54 changes shall be recommended to the next session of the annual conference.

total established by CCFA (Par. 614.3b(2)). The results are reported to the Ministry Area chairpersons and the councils, boards, commissions and committees. Agency chairs have opportunity to address any budget concerns they have with CCFA.
 June: CCFA presents the budget to the annual conference for perfection and adoption.
 January 1: The budget allocations take effect for the fiscal year.

APPENDIX E: Standing Rules Amended

Upon perfection of this transition plan and adoption by the Annual Conference, several current Standing Rules will have been incorporated into the plan. The document containing the transition plan, together with all appendices, is hereby substituted for current Standing Rule 48.

The following current Standing Rules have been incorporated within the transition plan and are therefore no longer needed as individual rules: 49, 62, 63, 65, 67, 72, 73, 83, 84, and 91.

To comport with the transition plan, the terminology of current Standing Rule 74.a, concerning representation of district laity members on the Conference Committee on Nominations, is hereby amended to read: "It is recommended that there be one (1) lay person nominated and elected by each District Ministry Area on Lay Leadership."

To maintain consistent terminology between the transition plan and the Standing Rules, references in the current Standing Rules to Conference Council on Connectional Ministries, CCCOM, District Council on Ministries, or DCOM shall be amended to read, respectively, Conference Connectional Ministries, CCM, District Connectional Ministries, or DCM. The Conference Secretary shall be authorized to make such editorial changes in the amended Standing Rules.

If a conflict should arise between this transition plan and any other current Standing Rule not cited in this appendix, the Committee on Standing Rules is authorized to make the necessary adjustments in dialogue with the affected agency and subsequently will report same to the next Annual Conference.

APPENDICES A—E

APPENDIX A: Introductory Preface

VIII. DCM/CCM STRUCTURE

The DCM/CCM design will effectively equip local churches for ministry and strengthen the connections for ministry among local churches, districts, annual conference and general church agencies. The initial assigning of annual conference staff into the districts (District Congregational Specialists) has produced concrete result of building ministry programs around needs identified by local churches. The connection design is strengthened by having selected laity and clergy persons from the DCM make up the CCM along with representatives from general agencies and others to insure inclusive membership. By streamlining the organizational structure, the connectional response to the needs of the local churches will be timely and efficient. Also this structure will facilitate a more direct connection between general agencies and local churches.

IX. MEETINGS:

The DCM shall meet at least five times a year in January, March, May, September, and November.

The CCM shall meet at least twice a year in February and October.

The meetings shall include a gathering/worship time followed by a session with all ministry area members for the purpose of evaluation of ongoing ministries and discussion of emerging needs. During a much larger block of time, ministry areas will gather separately for more detailed work with input related to functions of each conference program-related agency. The meeting will conclude with the entire CCM gathering to make decisions and coordinate work.

CCM Ministry Areas:

Each CCM Ministry Area may establish task forces to plan and implement ministry programs of events. The task force members may include persons selected by the ministry area but not members of the CCM. Funding for the task force will come from the budget of the respective ministry area, council, board, commission, or committee. The council, board, commission, or committee may add additional persons, without vote, to assist in carrying out their ministry.

Implementing Issues:

~~Prior service on conference agencies will not preclude a person from serving in the new structure. In order to nominate officers of the first CCM, the chairperson of the current Council on Connectional Ministries will name the nominating committee from members of the four Ministry Areas of CCM. During the last year of the quadrennium (2016) there shall be a review of the new structure and any needed changes shall be recommended to the next session of the annual conference.~~

The results are reported to the Ministry Area chairpersons and the councils, boards, commissions and committees. Agency chairs have opportunity to address any budget concerns they have with CCFA.

June: CCFA presents the budget to the annual conference for perfection and adoption.

January 1: The budget allocations take effect for the fiscal year.

~~To comport with the transition plan, the terminology of current Standing Rule 74.a, concerning representation of district laity members on the Conference Committee on Nominations, is hereby amended to read: "It is recommend that there be one (1) lay person nominated and elected by each District Ministry Area on Lay Leadership."~~

~~To maintain consistent terminology between the transition plan and the Standing Rules, references in the current Standing Rules to Conference Council on Connectional Ministries, CCCOM, District Council on Ministries, or DCOM shall be amended to read, respectively, Conference Connectional Ministries, CCM, District Connectional Ministries, or DCM. The Conference Secretary shall be authorized to make such editorial changes in the amended Standing Rules.~~

~~If a conflict should arise between this transition plan and any other Standing Rule not cited in this appendix, the Committee on Standing Rules is authorized to make the necessary adjustments in dialogue with the affected agency and subsequently will report same to the next Annual Conference.~~

2021 Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan

This funding plan incorporates, to the best of our understanding, the plan sponsor's obligations and funding of the benefits provided to clergy and laity, as noted below.

It is understood by the signees that defined benefit plan liabilities [Pre-82 Plan, Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) and Clergy Retirement Security Program Defined Benefit (CRSP DB) and other sponsored defined benefit plans] continue until the last benefit is paid to participants and their surviving spouses irrespective of the funding level of the plan. That is, even if the assets in the plan are larger than the liabilities in the plan, the plan sponsor still has a liability (obligation) and potential future contribution due to the plan.

2021 Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan

Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP)

Plan Overview: The Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) is an Internal Revenue Code section 403(b) retirement program providing lifetime income and account flexibility designed for those who serve as clergy of The United Methodist Church. The plan is designed to provide participants with one portion of their overall retirement benefits. CRSP replaced the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) effective January 1, 2007.

CRSP consists of two components:

- A defined benefit (DB) plan--provides a monthly benefit at retirement based upon years of credited service to the Church
- A defined contribution (DC) plan--provides a retirement account balance established and funded by the annual conferences

Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP)

Plan Overview: Supplement Three to the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP), also known as the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) provides clergy with a pension benefit for their years of ministry with The United Methodist Church from 1982 through 2006. MPP is an Internal Revenue Code section 403(b) retirement plan. MPP requires that exactly 65% of the account balance must be annuitized when it is to be distributed. The remainder may be rolled over to UMPIP, another qualified plan or an IRA, or paid in a lump sum.

2021 Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan

Pre-82 Plan (Pre-82)

Plan Overview: Supplement One to the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP), also known as the Pre-82 Plan, provides clergy with a pension benefit for their years of ministry with The United Methodist Church prior to 1982. The Pre-82 Plan was replaced by MPP effective January 1, 1982. If a clergyperson retires within the conference (and does not terminate), the minimum benefit payable is based on two factors:

- 1) Years of service with pension credit--approved by each conference on the recommendation of the Conference Board of Pensions (CBOP) in accordance with plan provisions and The Book of Discipline.
- 2) The conference pension rate (past service rate)--the dollar amount chosen by the conference as the amount payable for each approved year of service with pension credit (may change from year to year).

The number of years of service with pension credit is multiplied by the PSR, and the product is the minimum annual benefit payable to those clergy eligible for Pre-82 Plan benefits. In certain situations, the benefit received from the Pre-82 plan may vary based on the applicability of what is referred to as Defined Benefit Service Money (DBSM), which is the defined contribution feature of the Pre-1982 Plan. At the time that a participant retires, the DBSM account is converted to a life-based benefit. At that point, the clergy's benefit is the greater of the PSR benefit or DBSM benefit. If the conference increases the PSR, the clergy's benefit is recalculated; however the DBSM-based benefit does not change.

Seeking A More Excellent Way:

Beyond the Bounds of Expectations

Barbara Boultinghouse Bridge Builder Award

The Commission on Religion and Race recognizes a person or organization in the South Carolina Conference who has built bridges of understanding by promoting equity and inclusiveness without regard to race, gender, age, handicap or economic condition. This year's recipient is:

Rev. Susan Leonard

Bethel United Methodist Church, Charleston

"Susan has been a voice of reason and peace in the Charleston community," says Will Felts, a Bethel UMC member and its missions chairperson, who nominated Rev. Leonard. "Her bridge-building is growing Bethel's membership. She leads a ministry team of gifted people who are diverse in age, race, gender and sexual orientation.

"She has created an atmosphere of mutual support where all are empowered to share their various gifts toward the common goal of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world."

Felts points to Rev. Leonard's first sermon after her return from the contentious 2019 General Conference, in which she asked those on either side of the human sexuality issue to "lean in to each other."

"Unity," she said, "does not require uniformity."

"In Charleston," Felts said, "Susan has become a quotable voice for centrists. When The Post and Courier interviewed her about events placing our denomination in the national spotlight, she stated that Bethel has members with convictions on both ends of the discussion and 'no matter what the vote is, local churches can still be agents of love.'

"Susan has consistently said, 'My desire is that no United Methodists leave their church over this push to make the church more inclusive.' "

That posture of inclusiveness extends well beyond Bethel, Felts says.

"Across the street at Old Bethel UMC and around the world in places like Sierra Leone, the church is seeking to build bridges of friendship and care where an invisible line has historically separated white from black," he says. "Bethel longs to be a school of love where we are learning and practicing the ways of Jesus."

"Under Susan's leadership, inclusion permeates and is growing Bethel Church. In her, Bethel has a teacher who models the involvement of all people, because this woman with the beatific smile welcomes all people."

– Will Felts, Bethel UMC member

Harry Denman Evangelism Award – Youth

The Foundation for Evangelism recognizes one youth in each conference for responsible evangelism in the local church. This year's recipient is:

Santonio “Tony” Brown

Bethlehem/St. James United Methodist Church, Johns Island

“Tony exemplifies the qualities and character of one who makes a commitment to live out a life of active faith in Jesus Christ,” says Bernard Brown, chairperson of Nurture and Outreach for Bethlehem/St. James UMC, who nominated Tony. “He is a young man who shares Jesus in all walks of life; meaning he is not afraid to pray for and with the congregation.

“He is a lead singer in the church and he is not afraid to let the spirit move in his life. He is always coming up with a new way to be in mission.”

Tony is actively involved – both as a participant and as a leader – in Bethlehem/St. James’ B.O.O.T. Camp, speaking in church and at school, and volunteering his time and talents. He helped lead the church’s Souper Bowl of Caring campaign, helping collect more than 250 cans of soup for hungry college students at Trident Technical College. Tony also volunteers at Haut Gap Middle School, where he tutors other students, participates in multiple sports, and was recently inducted into the National Honor Society.

“I was inspired by Tony’s oration of Rev. Dr. Martin L. King Jr.’s ‘I Have A Dream’ speech on Human Relations Sunday,” says the Rev. Shamond Riddy, Bethlehem/St. James’ director of visitation. “Tony also shared a powerful moment about the life and love of Dr. King as he poured out his soul through song – reminding us that ‘God is Able.’ ”

“Tony is always witnessing his faith as a young person who loves the Lord and understands who he is and who God is in his life. He leads by always showing up ready to serve and inspires by actively participating in morning worship and special services.”

– Rev. Shamond Riddy,
Bethlehem/St. James UMC director of visitation

Michael C. Watson Volunteer In Mission Award – Laity

Recognizes laypersons who exemplify extraordinary volunteer mission service within the South Carolina Conference. This year's recipient is:

Ed Roper

Bethel United Methodist Church, Charleston

"From home repairs at Red Bird in Kentucky to the food pantry at Bethel UMC, Ed Roper is all about doing for others," says Will Felts, a Bethel UMC member and its missions chairperson, who nominated Roper. "And from chairing the church's board of trustees to personally making money-saving repairs on campus, he is all about stretching the church's dollar."

Roper travels with a Bethel team each fall to work on Habitat for Humanity homes in the Red Bird Missionary Conference – one of three UMC missionary conferences that serve in an area where local resources cannot meet the needs and mission support from the whole UMC is necessary. He also gives a week each summer to work with the Salkehatchie Summer Service, leading teens in construction work on rural homes and teaching them Christian values along the way.

Closer to home, Roper has helped Bethel reach out to other United Methodist churches to help them in their local ministry. He volunteers regularly with Hibben UMC's Hospitality Shelter in Mount Pleasant, which provides a warm place for the homeless when the weather turns cold. When he learned that the shelter's kitchen could use surplus food from Bethel's own food pantry, he began delivering supplies. He does the same for Trinity UMC's weekly soup kitchen.

Roper picks up and delivers food from the Lowcountry Food Warehouse as part of Bethel's food pantry ministry, where he also helps out with bagging and giving away the food. He is a regular volunteer each month when Bethel buys pallets of fresh vegetables to give away to those in need.

"Beyond Ed's energy, Bethel benefits from his leadership and his know-how," Felts says. "As trustees chair he's been a magnet for like-minded, hands-on members who save the church money by 'doing' rather than bringing in a professional. Of course, Ed leads in that regard – tackling electrical, plumbing and metal-work jobs himself.

"If there is a more deserving mission volunteer for this award, he surely wears an 'S' on his chest and changes clothes in a phone booth."

One Matters Discipleship Award

Discipleship Ministries lifts up churches that have moved from “zeros” in professions of faith and baptisms to positive numbers in recent years due to renewed focus on intentional discipleship. Recipient receives $1,000 to continue its efforts. This year’s recipient is:

Trinity United Methodist Church (Charleston)

Rev. Michael Wood, pastor

Trinity UMC was founded in 1792 and moved into its current sanctuary on Meeting Street in historic downtown Charleston in 1926.

Today, Trinity is home to about 290 members, a “working church,” not just a “Sunday church,” whose principal outreach ministry is with the homeless and working poor of Charleston.

Trinity UMC has made intentional decisions and efforts to reach the immediate downtown area and surrounding communities, as well as making a deeper impact on those who attend on a “regular” basis. The church makes the presence of God known through:

- Tours of the historic sanctuary.
- A “Blessing Box” in the courtyard, stocked with essentials including food and clothing.
- A growing weeknight service and fellowship meal for the unemployed, the underemployed, the homeless and other underserved populations in the area
- A group of young adult professionals who meet for Bible study, fellowship and a meal.
- Partnering with the Charleston Wesley Foundation in planning a new multi-generational service designed with an added emphasis on the young adults, young professionals and college students in the area. Trinity is offering and providing time in the sanctuary for the service, space as needed for nursery, etc. as the service grows and expands.
- In 2019, Trinity held 4 baptisms and received 3 members by profession of faith.

Herbert Hucks Award

Commission on Archives and History

All churches of the conference are encouraged to celebrate their heritage with this award, which recognizes preservation and interpretation of Methodist history in the local church. This year's recipients are:

Buncombe Street UMC (Greenville)

Rev. Dr. Mike Guffee, interim pastor | William W. Adkins Jr., historian

Members of Buncombe Street's Archives Committee continued their impressive work this year. They have continued to collect the church's records and have worked to add oral histories from the downtown and Trinity campuses, shared information about the church and Greenville's history with the community, and prepared a children's book about Buncombe Street.

Livingston United Methodist Church (Livingston)

Rev. Graham Bennett, pastor | Martha Sligh, historian

The work that the members of Livingston UMC continue to undertake to preserve their history shows that large and small churches alike have much to contribute to preserving and interpreting Methodist history. Livingston's historian continues to organize and preserve the church's records, taking on new projects each year.

Mountain View United Methodist Church (Taylors)

Rev. Carole Walters, pastor | Dr. Rosalind Wood and Rachel Miller, historians

Mountain View's Records and History Committee published a nice booklet documenting all the work they undertook this year to preserve and interpret church history. The historians work to share the church's history with members, have collected new material, continued to organize existing material, and served as resources to other churches working on their own church history projects.

Washington Street United Methodist Church (Columbia)

Rev. Patricia Parrish, pastor | Dr. Michael C. Broome, historian

Members of Washington Street's Records and History Committee have spent much of their time refurbishing Washington Street's museum. They also revised and updated a docent manual for those who give tours of the church to various tour groups. They continued the work of collecting the records of the congregation, and in particular, highlighted receiving a copy of a sermon by Rev. Claude Evans in 1942 on racial equality. Members of the committee work to keep history alive at Washington Street.

Bishop's Five-Star Award

The Evangelism Committee of the Discipleship Area provides an incentive for churches to embrace new ministries each year geared toward growth and outreach. The award enables small and large churches to receive recognition, for which all of these criteria must be met:

- Increase in Sunday school attendance or enhancement of Christian education ministry
- A “new work” that impacts growth
- Members received by profession of faith/rededication: 1 for every 100 members
- Emphasis on youth ministries that demonstrate growth
- All apportionments paid in full for 2019, or a 25 percent increase in apportionment payments compared to two years prior

Every Child is a Miracle Campaign

To strengthen and sustain Epworth through the next 124 years

In June of 2017, the South Carolina Annual Conference delegates approved a conference-wide $10,000,000 financial campaign, Every Child Is A Miracle, to support God's work through Epworth Children's Home.

The campaign will enable Epworth to significantly enhance its work, and increase its footprint across South Carolina for many years to come. As the needs of our state's children and families, and the landscape of child welfare continues to dramatically change, this campaign is essential for Epworth to continue its tradition of excellence and stay ahead of the curve in innovative services.

Sustaining Epworth's Legacy

In 1896 the Methodist people of South Carolina demonstrated the belief that every child is a miracle by establishing Epworth Orphanage. Since that time thousands of children have been provided with a place to grow, learn, and experience the love of God through caring adults.

As Epworth enters the congregational and more public phase of the campaign, and after 124 years of faithful support and service, the United Methodist people of South Carolina have the missional opportunity to demonstrate in a highly significant way that caring for "the least of these" is at the center of our call and work. What a legacy we share, and an opportunity we all have as we engage, as God's ambassadors, in the miracle assisting business of helping all the children we can, as well as we can, with all the resources we can gather.

Has Your Church Made A Commitment To The Campaign?

Primary Campaign Components

The Every Child is a Miracle Campaign is a comprehensive financial campaign that will prepare Epworth to meet the needs of children, youth and families today and in the years to come.

I. Purchase and renovation of the second campus - $3,000,000

Epworth recently purchased the 19-acre former campus of Carolina Children's Home in Columbia. The campus provides Epworth with the opportunity to expand and enhance its programs. The second campus is located adjacent to Trenholm Road UMC and only two miles from Epworth's historic campus on Millwood Avenue in Columbia.

II. Creating The Institute for Child and Family Wellbeing - $3,000,000

As the needs of children, youth and families change, Epworth is preparing to meet those needs by strengthening and expanding programming. The Institute for Child and Family Wellbeing is based on the second campus and creates centers of excellence. Programs may include the Center for Family Engagement, Family Care Center, Center for Independent Living, Center for Counseling, Center for Social Enterprise (Epworth Ice Cream), and others.

III. Increase the Endowment of Epworth Children's Home - $3,000,000

Epworth's permanent endowment funds allow for its ministry to be sustained generation after generation. With careful stewardship, investment earnings from the endowment help provide sustainability to Epworth's ministry and ensures that no child is turned away for lack of funds. Increasing the endowment funds will not only make an immediate impact on programming but will also ensure long-term viability for years to come.

IV. Global Support of Hartzell School & Fairfield Orphanage at Old Mutare Mission, Zimbabwe - $1,000,000

As we care for the children, youth and families who are our neighbors in South Carolina, Epworth also strives to lift up the children for our global neighbors as well. A missional tithe of the campaign will be used to support the work of our sister institution in Zimbabwe, adjacent to Africa University.

What You Can Do To Support The Campaign

Epworth has set into motion a conference-wide plan to engage, enhance and grow support of Epworth Children's Home. Already, over $6 million has been raised toward the $10 million goal. We need you to:

- Keep Epworth in your prayers;
- Highlight the campaign at Charge Conference and District meetings;
- Become a member of the Bishop's Committee of 500;
- Continue to identify and cultivate contributions from individuals, churches and businesses;
- Empower ministry groups (UMW, UMM, MYF, Sunday School classes, etc) to take on an extra project to support the Every Child Is A Miracle Campaign;
- Buy some ice cream!
