A note from your President...

The Lord is my strength and my shield; my heart trusts in him, and he helps me. My heart leaps for joy, and with my song I praise him. Psalms 28:7

We, the wonderful ladies of the Walterboro District have come thus far by faith…….Leaning and depending on the Lord. As a hard working District in the Conference, we continue to be a driving force. As I always state, “We are a strong group of ladies that have large hearts for Mission.” We must continue to make every effort to fulfill our mission statement.

Our annual meeting was held on September 21st at Cumberland United Methodist Church. We had a wonderful time of fellowship. We continue to celebrate our 150th legacy celebration. Our theme was “Women United for Change.” Several awards and accolades were issued to our local units. A challenge has been issued to all units to take the necessary steps to qualify for Mission Today Units and Diamond Units. Also, let’s increase the number of Reading Program participants. Congratulations to all awarded units. A Special Congratulations goes to Bluffton United Methodist Women for having the largest number(17) of Reading program ladies. Way to go Ladies!!

Conference officer training was held on November 9 at Ashland United Methodist Church. Thank you to all officers in attendance. A very special thank you to Sister Queen Trappier for stepping up and filling the gap to ensure we were represented in as many training as possible. A wealth of great information was provided. With that being said, we must have record attendance for our District Officer Training on January 18th. The location will be provided at a later time. Every local President is asked to communicate with their perspective officers to ensure attendance at the Officer’s Training.

2019 is coming to an end and 2020 is rapidly approaching. It is an honor that we, the Walterboro District will host the Conference Come Together Be Together on May16th at Sand Hill United Methodist Church. Let’s all come together as a team and make this event memorable event for all in attendance. Every local unit will play a vital part and asked to support in one fashion or another. Thanks in advance for your support.

I pray God’s blessing upon each of you. We must continue to Pray Until Something Happens. I also encourage and challenge all ladies to make effort to attend more Conference and District events. To God be the glory for all that he has done.

Blessings

Deanna H. Goodwine
Local Unit Treasurer Responsibility

The Local Unit Treasurer handles all the funds and keeps the books of the local unit. Since unit members want to know where their money goes, the treasurer should also be familiar with the programs of United Methodist Women. She should be able to help the unit understand why money is needed to help carry out the PURPOSE of United Methodist Women.

There should only be one unit treasurer, not one per circle.

Specifically, the Local Unit Treasurer:

Make sure you have one checking account in the name of United Methodist Women.
The President of the unit name should be on the account
President and you are the signers on the account.
The bank will ask for a Tax ID or EIN number, Certificate of Inclusion and a Group Ruling Letter to open a new account.
This is held by your United Methodist Women District Treasurer.
Please contact her for the documentation and the appropriate number.
Do NOT deposit United Methodist Women funds in a personal account or a local church account.
• Keep all United Methodist Women funds separate from personal and church funds.
• Obtain working materials: o Ledger book. o Supply of local remittance forms (photocopied from this handbook and website).
• Plan storage space for supplies, papers and books in a safe place.
• Keep a file of all signed pledge cards until the next pledge service and a record of each contribution received at meetings and other occasions.
• Record pledges, offerings and other income in a ledger book or computer records then deposit the money in the group’s bank account as soon as possible.
• Write checks for all disbursements, recording the date, payee, reason for payment and amount in your cashbook or in your computer records.
The President or Secretary should sign or initial invoices to be paid or vouchers associated with each check.
• Balance the books and reconcile the bank statement monthly.
• Be prompt in sending remittances approved by the local group to the District Treasurer.
If gifts are designated, indicate the designation in the proper space on the remittance form.
Never change designations without consulting with the donor.
• At the end of each year, create a giving statement for each member who has given $250 or more.
It should contain the name, address of the donor and a statement: “No goods or services were received in exchange for this donation.”
• Arrange for the year-end audit/review. Ask the auditor/reviewers to send the audit report directly to the United Methodist Women district treasurer.

Thank you for your continued support of The Walterboro District of The United Methodist Women.

I have enjoyed being your Communications officer in 2019. I pray that in 2020 we will have even more good news to share with our UMW Sisters in Christ. Please share your activities, your celebrations and your joys with all of us so that other circles can see what you are doing. Remember that any articles for the March 2020 edition needs to be submitted to me by February 15, 2020.

New for 2020 - UMW Reading Program - Where to Find Books??
For the first time, UMW members must obtain Reading Program Books exclusively from third party vendors - libraries, local bookstores, and online. If you do order through Amazon, please remember to visit smile.amazon.com, Amazon’s charitable giving page, and select "United Methodist Women" as your charitable organization. For all eligible purchases made on that site, Amazon will donate 0.5% to United Methodist Women. As always, most Reading Program Books can also be found for reading electronically on your Kindle, tablet or other devices. For ebooks free of charge, check local libraries, Google eBookstore, Project Gutenberg or Open Library.
The list of all Reading Program Books, 2020 - 2015, can still be found on the UMW website: umwmissionresources.org.

Faith Talks: A Podcast Just for You....
Faith Talks are monthly conversations with United Methodist Women. Each conversation explores themes and resources that empower us to put faith, hope, and love into action. Check out interviews with United Methodist Women mission studies’ authors and more: @unitedmethodistwomen.org/faithtalks.

If you have any questions about our UMW Reading Program, please do not hesitate to contact me.

As members of the United Methodist Women it is important to stay abreast of the bills and actions that are before our State Legislature concerning women and children. There is a wealth of information available to you at www.scstatehouse.gov. The home page shows you:

Chamber Video - Searches and Archives

Quick Searches

Track Legislation by topic, bill numbers, Representatives

State Agency Websites

You can also determine who your Legislators are and there voting record. You also have a link to contact your legislator. You can communicate your support for Bills through the scstatehouse website or by US Mail or via phone. Contact your Legislator to register your interest. Always include your name, address, Constituency, specific Bill numbers and your support/opposition.

You can obtain the bill numbers by going to quick search located in the lower right corner of the website. Type in the word “Women” and hit enter. This brings up all the legislation concerning women, giving you the bill numbers currently being processed. Click on the bill number and a description will appear. In the upper right hand section of this site you can do another search. Enter the word “Children” and get the bills concerning the youth

Please take the time to become involved. The information concerning women and children is very important. Let’s help shape the laws of South Carolina.

Keeping Our History Alive

Most families have a wonderful time talking about the “old” times and adults remembering things they did as children. Our Walterboro District UMW needs to do the same thing all year long. All our units have been celebrating 150 years of activities the United Methodist Women have done in the past. This would not have been possible without someone recording, taking pictures and storing this information.

Now is the time for each unit president in our district to appoint a historian. This person will be responsible for collecting and storing information about their unit’s activities.

I went to the conference training with Sue Owens. There I learned many ideas historians can use. Each one of our units needs to have a historian at our district training in January so I can pass this information on to you. I have supplies you will need, so make sure your historian or a substitute will be at the training to receive them. I will only bring enough for the persons letting me know they are coming. I need your name, church, e-mail, and phone number. Please send these to me as soon as possible. Send to lizzyduncan2000@gmail.com, or text or call 828-808-6478.

Be ye transform by renewing of the mind. I am no longer my own, but thine...Let me be employed for thee.

Greetings from the Spiritual Growth Corner;
The Bible is a conversation partner for life. Reading it recalls and even rewrites our deepest stories, helping us recognize and respond to the true God who saves a suffering, shattered world. Please do not forget the training in Walterboro, January 18, 2020. I hope to see you all there, especially the Spiritual Growth ladies. May your heart be Jolly and Bright this Christmas season.
