A Message from your President

Hope that all is well with you!

The SCCUMW Program Committee is in process of planning our 47th SCCUMW Annual Meeting to be held at Buncombe Street UMC in Greenville.

This year we have invited our past Conference UMW Presidents to be present and greet the body Saturday, October 26th. They will be provided a gift basket from our Conference and each District is being asked to provide one hand-made gift for their baskets. Seven of them are still living and are planning to be present. We will also have Harriett Jane Olson, National General Secretary and CEO present Friday night as our keynote speaker. She will also receive a gift basket and each District is asked to provide a hand-made item for her basket. These gifts should be provided to me no later than Saturday, September 15th! They can be mailed to me, delivered during any event prior to the deadline or I am willing to meet you and pick them up.

Each District Mission Team Members should meet and decide on your gifts. We only ask that the items be hand-made but you can select any type gift to represent your district.
Have you missed out on some of the great 2019 programs presented in Walterboro District’s UMW? Thanks to the planning of Spiritual Growth Coordinator Leandre Roberts, the Quiet Day at St. Mark’s UMC in St. George was inspirational. There was a great speaker, great visiting time at breakfast, and communion to tie us together.

Then in May, we Came Together at Jericho UMC for a morning of smiles, laughs, and healthy gathering. We played games, (Family Feud was definitely a hit, won by the team “We Got This!”) The UMW players presented a skit, “The Legacy Carol” that gave information in a fun setting. (Queen Trappier won an Oscar for her performance). Prizes were given to winners in many games.

Are you disappointed that you missed all the inspiration and fun? Don’t worry, there is still the Annual Meeting at Cumberland UMC in September. At this biggest gathering for Walterboro District, certificates are distributed to units for financial support, for practicing the Charter on Racial Justice, for being a Mission Today unit. Individuals will receive certificates for participation in the Reading Program. Election of new District officers will take place, be sure your vote counts. Guest speaker, Reverend Sherri White of Buckhead and Hickory Hill UMC, will energize everyone with her message. Mark your calendar, September 21, register to attend, then invite members of your unit to ride along with you to see what all the excitement is about. Gathering starts at 9:30 a.m., with the meeting at 10.

NOTE FROM THE DISTRICT TREASURER

I want to thank all treasurers for their good work.

May God bless you and remember COUNT YOUR BLESSINGS!

Thelma
I want to wish all of you a wonderful and safe summer (if we survive the heat this year!) Please share your activities, your celebrations and your joys with all of us so that Remember that any articles for the September 2019 edition needs to be submitted to me by September 1st, 2019.
Blessings and prayers to all,
Walda Letson

Please begin finishing your reading list for the United Methodist Women’s Reading Program. Remember to read at least one book from each category – Education for Mission, Leadership Development, Nurturing for Community, Social Action, and Spiritual Growth. Your lists are due to me by August 31, 2019. I would like to recommend a book that I think you will enjoy:

The Same Sky, by Amanda Eyre Ward: This is a beautiful novel about motherhood, resilience, and faith; a story of two families on both sides of the American border. Author Jodi Picoult states, “This is the timeliest book you will read this year – it puts a human face on the undocumented youth desperately seeking their dreams in America.”

If you have enjoyed a particular book on our United Methodist Women’s Reading Program List, I would love to hear from you.

UMW have an abundance of Program Resources available to support your mission work: Prayer Calendars, UMW Program Books, UMW Handbooks, Response Magazine, and Mission U materials, etc. All of these and more are available online at www.umwmissionresources.org. However, UMW Reading Program Books are no longer available from UMW Mission Resources. Individual Reading Program Books can be purchased online through Amazon.com or any other online book sellers.
If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Blessings,

Cindy Keener, Secretary of Program Resources

St. George United Methodist Women Hold Annual Tea Room  May 2019

On Wednesday, May 1, and Thursday, May 2, the St. George United Methodist Church held its annual TEA ROOM in Parler Hall. It was a resounding success, and many community members enjoyed it.

The usual favorites of Homemade Chicken Salad, Seafood Chowder, Crab Bisque, and Tomato Pies were again served both days. The okra gumbo and homemade pimento cheese sandwiches were also popular. Approximately 70 desserts, from tortes to pies to yummy cakes and delights were savored by all. Local businesses and schools support the tea room orders for take-outs, and many came to eat at Parler Hall and enjoy the bustling room and listen to Jesse Cockcroft’s beautiful piano music playing in the background.

Out of town guests and relatives came as well, and hugs and hellos filled the room. Many circles and volunteers were again involved in making our Tea Room such a grand success and fund raiser. The amount of time and effort spent is hard to tally, but two full days of cooking, cleaning, moving tables, and chairs, and decorating was needed on Monday and Tuesday before the opening day Wednesday. Donations of food, flowers, strawberries, support, signs, and tips also were blessings for the effort. The UM Men also helped in traffic flow and serving and cleaning up. Over 70 church members and volunteers were involved, and all were thanked for their “can-do” spirit and enthusiasm. We share a close community of faith in our church, and see it growing and multiplying into our community. We will joyfully use our proceeds to further God’s work in mission locally, statewide, and beyond.
The ladies of Carteret Street United Methodist Church held their annual Clothes Sale May 3rd and 4th. Many members participated by donating, sorting, hanging, folding, ironing, pricing, and of course, buying clothes. Sales were good but the leftover items were donated to St. Helena’s Thrift Store, CAPA, Salvation Army, St. Francis Center, and Killingsworth Home. The proceeds were given to Bethlehem Mission, Camp Treasure Chest for disabled, and Hopeful Horizons.
On April 13th, Debbie Kadzielewski, Kathy Griebel, Sarah Sweers, Elizabeth Duncan and I attended Quiet Day at St. Mark UMC in St. George, SC. Our speaker was Sister Tara Tucker, who spoke about “Moving Forward as Women”. In order to do this, you must; 1. Let go of the past, 2. Let go of some people in our present who are holding you back in any way. 3. You have got to know it is a FAITH WALK. And most importantly, “Don’t worry about tomorrow, because God has it all in his Glory”. If you were there, then you are a SURVIVOR, because each of us has survived something in our lives. We then shared in Holy Communion given to us by Rev. Leonard Huggins.

Mother’s Day cards and crafts were made over the last few months. We made cards, bouquets of flowers, wreaths and various canvases as well as other items. These were sold between services and at the Annual May Fest Yard Sales.
Bluffton UMW had their annual Bluffton Village Festival Yard Sale on May 11. This year was extremely successful, with lots of great donations and of course, help from our Methodist Men and youth.
