Many great activities have already taken place in 2019, and there are more to come. Please stay informed and join us. Eight of your newly elected officers attended the Leadership Development Days in Tempe Arizona on February 1-3. Sponsored by United Methodist Women National we all learned much. We met our office counterparts from UMW National, and others who hold the same office around the USA. We were inspired by wonderful singing, plenary messages, and workshops of our choosing. Harriett Jane Olson gave a message and update on issues of special session of General Conference.

We experienced a great opportunity to bond as your team of officers, to learn together and to focus on being informed confident leaders.

On February 12th Legislative Day was held at Epworth Children’s Home. We had 298 registered and 264 on campus eager to learn and be inspired. The theme “Every Child is A Miracle” was addressed by all. Our Bishop Jonathon Holston spoke from the heart and offered encouraging words to us as we care and take care of each unique child. Morning speaker the Honorable Senator Gerald Malloy spoke of lessons learned from his father, a very engaged and involved parent. He shared information about bills he is sponsoring and ways for us to get our voices heard. The afternoon keynote speaker Rev. John Holler President and CEO Epworth shared statistics concerning children. He shows his love for all God’s children in both his words and actions. Workshops were well attended and supported UMW National initiatives for 2019. The serious messages and statistical data were softened by the peanut butter ice cream, a traditional favorite of the day.

Many committee meetings have taken place. Plans are well underway for all of our SCCUMW events. Each and every event will provide us an opportunity “to Know God”, our main purpose for being an organization.

We are excited to welcome a new treasurer for 2019. Ruby Hannah of the Charleston district was elected as conference treasurer beginning February 1st. Her contact information is in this edition. Our 2018 treasurer Deborah Edwards is on medical leave and requests your continued prayers as she heals.
At this time, I am called to put a spotlight on our five mission projects. It is important that you remember all five mission projects are dependent upon you. All are in need of your prayers. Your monetary gifts are essential for them to operate and do the Lord’s work within their communities. We have promised to have a relationship with each of them. I ask you to help SCCUMW fulfill that promise. Pray for them daily. Pray for the leaders and those who need their services. Pray for the volunteers who offer support. If possible become one yourself. Look inside your pocketbook at the monies our Lord has placed in your trust. Be sure you spend as you should. Be sure you donate as you would want others to do. Be a supporter. We are over 10,000 members strong. If every month every member gave $5 to just one mission project, that would equal $600,000, providing $125,000 for each project. Wouldn’t that be great? I believe we can do it. Traditionally we have provided $5 per member to Wallace Family Life in the month of February. Have you done your part in 2019? Are you able to do it two months in a row? Consider giving this amount (or more) each month, especially emphasis months. We want our missions to experience 150 years of thriving and serving our communities. Together we can make it so!

Thank you,
Cathy Ford

Greetings UMW Sisters In Christ!

Greetings My Sisters In Christ!

It is my prayer that all local units of United Methodist Women are starting 2019 with mission minds as we move forward with living our United Methodist Women PURPOSE! Being a member of this wonderful organization affords the opportunity to provide assistance to persons that we will probably never meet. What a blessing to be able to be a blessing to others around the world! Is this not what God expects of each of us? He has instructed us to show “agape” love to others everyday of our lives.

I had the privilege of attending Leadership Development Days Training February 1 - 3, 2019 in Tempe, Arizona. It was an awesome experience and an opportunity to network with other Conference Vice Presidents. I am thankful for the experience and chance to represent South Carolina as your UMW Vice President.

Our Conference Program Committee has begun planning for our 47th Annual Meeting. This year’s theme is “Celebrating 150 Years of Limitless Possibilities!” Mark your calendars for this event that will be held October 25 - 26, 2019 at Buncombe Street United Methodist Church in Greenville. Our keynote speaker will be Harriett Jane Olson, National UMW General Secretary & CEO!

More information will be provided as it becomes available in coming issues of Mission Echo and your District Newsletters.

Blessings for your Life Journey…….

SCCUMW Vice President
Janice Cockfield Eaddy
Season Greetings to my Sisters in Christ!

My dear Methodist sisters,
The Spiritual Growth committee is excited to invite you to our upcoming retreat at Lake Junaluska. Our SCCUMW members will come together for two nights and three days on April 26-28th, 2019. We will sing, pray, listen and enjoy fellowshipping with one another.

We are excited to have the Reverend Robin Dease, District Superintendent of the Hartsville District, as our retreat leader. She will be speaking on the theme "Preserved by the Power Divine: Keeping Faith in Changing Times."

Her scripture is, Ephesians 3: 17-18: “17 so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith. And I pray that you, being rooted and established in love, 18 may have power, together with all the Lord’s holy people, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ.”

Our musician, Jessica Volz Hall and song leader Dee Johnson have chosen Great is thy Faithfulness as the retreat theme song. We are happy to have them as first time leaders and hope you will share with them words of encouragement and appreciation for their willingness to share their talents with us.

Our retreat activities begin on Friday at 2:00 p.m. From 2:00-3:00 p.m. and 3:00 to 4:00 p.m. we will have a trolley tour of the gardens with the resident horticulturalist guiding and answering your questions. The trolley holds 33 riders so please email Susan Smith to schedule your ride: suesmithumw@gmail.com. Also during these times, Nancy Watkins of the Heritage Center, the archives for the Southeastern Jurisdiction, will lead a walking tour of the main grounds. Each tour will last approximately one hour. You will have time before conference registration at 3:00 p.m. to go to the Heritage Center, which has relocated to the building next to the Bethea Center or you may visit the Methodist Museum located next to the Terrace hotel. There is no need to stand in a line as hotel check in time is from 4:00-6:00 p.m. with late registration held in your hotel.
Friday from 3:00- 5:00 p.m. the Resource Room, Meditation area and Activity Room (located in the Harrell Center) will be open for you. We invite you to journal, color, play games, work on prayer beads with Barb Brooks or make prayer squares with the other ladies in the Activity Room. The chapel will be open during this time to come sit and begin your retreat in prayer. Please make time during our retreat to go to the chapel and sit and pray. After dinner, our opening service begins at 7:00 p.m., and following this we will have a session on the Prayer Labryinth in the Chapel, Harrell Center will be open and room 319 in the Terrace and the International room in the Lambuth Inn will be open for meeting up with friends for a chat before calling it a night.

If you missed out on any of the activities on Friday, you will have free time on Saturday to participate in these many opportunities.

This retreat will provide you time to relax in a rocking chair, walk the lake, gather with friends, new and old, play a board game, work on a puzzle or sit at Inspiration Point and enjoy the beautiful view of the lake. You may want to take a self guided tour of the Historic Lambuth Inn and stop in their Christmas Shop found across from the check in area. Did you know that the SCCUMW are the biggest spenders at the Junaluska Gifts & Grounds, located in the Harrell center? After shopping there you can choose a coffee, tea, pastry or sandwich and go sit at the café walk enjoying your treat and the clean mountain air.

If you have not yet reserved your room, please call Lake Junaluska. Also make sure to send in your registration to registrar, Susan Smith by April 12, 2019. The form can be found in this Mission Echo or available on the Conference web site umcsc.org.

Perhaps your unit or circle would like to sponsor someone who has never had the "Junaluska experience."

Our desire for you is that you take this time to reflect, renew, and relax. And when you leave the lake, we pray that your faith is strengthened and your love for each other has grown.
Blessings to you all,

Caron Cooper

It’s All About Mission – Let’s Make a Bold Move in Our Giving to Mission!

Hello Ladies,

To God be the Glory for the great things He has done! We thank Him for all the blessings He bestowed upon us in 2018 and for this wonderful start to a brand new year as we prepare to get to work changing lives and circumstances for women, children and youth here in South Carolina and around the world! Although our giving was down some last year, with this being our 150th year of being in mission, my hopes and prayers are that we will make 2019 a year to be really missional!

Our Special Emphasis Months are as follows:

February ------Wallace Family Life Center – asking each member of each unit to contribute $5.00 to Wallace. I understand that some are not aware of this special giving in connection with our normal asking for stamps and gift cards. If this is a hardship for units, please give what you can to help and to show them that we care about them since we have always claimed them as our baby.

March --------Rural Mission, Inc

April ------------Columbia Bethlehem Community Ctr.

September ---Killingsworth

November  Bethlehem Center, Spartanburg

Let us strive to go the extra mile with all five of our Mission Projects and be in prayer for our directors.

The E&I team has set the following goals for 2019:

1. Increase the number of Mission Today Units in each district.
2. Promote Mission U and the Craft Room’s donation and sales. Make sure all units are aware that we need their crafts, their homemade goodies, pickles, etc.
3. Emphasize and support our five Mission Projects by increasing our giving.
4. Work more for the participation in the Campaign for Children.
5. Constantly re-emphasize the importance and the need to contribute to our five Mission Projects, asking for new stamps, used stamps, gift cards and pull tabs from cans.
6. Mission U will be held on July 18-20, 2019 at Spartanburg Methodist College. Items for the Five Mission Projects will be collected.
Charter for Racial Justice Diamond Units

The Diamond Unit certificate is awarded at each District Annual Meeting to each unit that completes three or more activities from the list below that demonstrates the unit’s commitment to the ideals in the Charter for Racial Justice. At least one of the diamond-marked activities must be included. You are to send a copy of this completed form to your District Social Action Coordinator or President by September 15th in order to be recognized at your District Annual Meeting and receive the Diamond Unit certificate.

Together, We Are Building our Legacy

It is finally here! Our 150 anniversary is March 23, 2019. Happy Birthday United Methodist Women!

In 1869, Mrs. William Butler and Mrs. Edwin Parker, wives of missionaries to India, were home on furlough. They spoke to a group of eight women in Boston. Mrs. Butler told about the desperate spiritual and physical needs of women in India. A male doctor could not treat women. Schooling for girls was almost non-existent. Single, trained and dedicated women were needed for medical and educational work.

The women who were present called another meeting of women, wrote a constitution, and organized the Methodist Woman’s Foreign Missionary Society (WFMS). By November 1869, the newly formed organization raised funds and sent Isabella Thoburn, an educator, and Dr. Clara Swain, a doctor, to India.

And so it began. Eight ladies inspired by the words of two wives of missionaries, put into action their faith, hope and love for God’s people on the other side of the globe. Today over 800,000 women continue their work all across the planet. Thanks be to God.

Our Legacy Endowment Fund campaign is in its fifth and (likely) final year. Our goal of reaching $60 million was a bold and forward thinking number. We are not done. We pray for 2019 to be a big year of giving to the Legacy Endowment Fund.

On March 23, many birthday celebrations and fun fundraising events are planned within our twelve districts. Speakers are engaged. Invitations are made to all ladies of the church to learn about UMW and join in. Praise dancing and party balloons will be seen. Chickens are laying eggs and cakes are baking! A great day of service will help the local community. Rocking chairs are ready for sponsors to rock the day away while raising money. Photographs are planned to record membership faces and begin the history of our next 150 years. UMW will lead Sunday services on the 24th. We are all encouraged to “STRETCH” our giving in 2019. If every member gives $18.69 every month in 2019 together we can reach this goal. Now is the time to be courageous and bold together.

We grow dollar by dollar, prayer by prayer. Let us ensure another 150 years of our beloved organization. I thank each of you for the enthusiasm and eagerness with which you have embraced the Legacy Endowment Fund campaign. I know this year’s fifth Day of Giving on March 23rd will be well supported by you. Thank you for all you do!

your South Carolina Conference Legacy Fund Liaison, Cathy Ford
Historically Yours

Each local unit has been requested to send me information that will qualify you as the oldest or the youngest unit in your district. Well, I started thinking—which is dangerous as many of you who know me know. I realized that units that may not have a long history may think you are not important. Oh contrare! (That’s “oh, not so!” in some foreign language.) All units are important!

With that in mind, I am issuing a challenge to all local units, young, old, and all ages in between. As ladies are finding who do have older units, it may be difficult to find the necessary information to prove their age. There were no official birth certificates for United Methodist Women. Records are well-hidden if even in existence that tell the history of their unit. That’s not a good thing. Each unit does have a history.

I have some suggestions that may help you to discover your history. Ask folks who have been in your church for a while. They may have childhood memories of going to Granny’s house in the summer to visit on days that she might have attended meetings of UMW or one of the predecessor organizations (or perhaps you went with your mother when you were younger). What did they do at these meetings? What mission projects did they support? Who were the officers? Perhaps this information is stashed in a file cabinet in a closet somewhere at the church. Perhaps pictures are integrated with family photos. Perhaps there are pictures in scrapbooks that have been gathering dust in the room where meetings are/were held. Perhaps artifacts have been stashed in cedar chests in barns or attics that will tell the story of your unit. (Our unit’s history is recorded on a moth-eaten quilt that was found in a box in a barn of a former member of our church On one of the quilt squares it states, “July 1937 WSG”. That is a part of our history. That quilt is now framed and displayed on our fellowship hall wall.) Talk to folks. Record your findings, however you find them. Perhaps you were one of the charter members of your unit and know all the humble beginnings of your unit. If you can’t find a history—or even if your history is only a few months/years old—write down what you have found. Make a special file for this to be found wherever the church keeps its important documents.

United Methodist Women, as we know it now, has been in existence since 1973. Before that, your unit may have been one of the predecessor organizations. After all, if not for United Methodist Women and these previous organizations, many churches and our denomination would not have any outreach projects at all. We have been working to make a difference in the lives of women, children and youth for a long time. How has your unit made a difference in our world?

This year, we are celebrating 150 years as an organization. This year, older units and younger units are being challenged to offer proof of age in order to celebrate them at our Annual Meeting in October. Yet, each unit has something to celebrate. It just needs to be uncovered. Discover your heritage. Write it down. Keep it in a safe place. Add to it when necessary. There is no telling what we might be celebrating in twenty-five or fifty years. Whoever the Historian is then might ask for some strange information that folks will all celebrate. You will be ahead of the game as you will have been collecting information for years.

Happy hunting/talking/reminiscing/writing/storing!

Sue Owens, Conference United Methodist Women’s Historian.
Nominations Notes

Dear Sister in Christ,

As I assume the role of Chairman of Nomination for the South Carolina Conference, I ask for your prayers and help. In this edition of Mission Echo you will find a Prospective Leadership Form for you and maybe a friend. We need an inventory of prospective leaders for future nominations. Everyone has something to offer. In filling out the form our committee will have information that will be helpful this year or in another year. Our list of prospective leaders is most important as we move forward to get the best person for each position. Any comments you would like to make about anyone in your District for a future leadership role would be a big help to our Nomination Committee. Any and all information received will be held in confidence. Please feel free to call me at 843-525-1822 or email me at cabaniss.mary.e@gmail.com

RADICAL DISCIPLESHIP—THEN AND NOW

Join United Methodist Women at Mission u 2019!

Take a deep dive into the Gospel of Mark, the topic of money, and the inspiring story of women organized for mission.

THIS YEAR, OUR STUDIES ARE:

Practicing Resurrection: The Gospel of Mark and Radical Discipleship by Janet Wolf (Additional studies on Mark for children and youth also available.)

Women United for Change: 150 Years in Mission by Ellen Blue

What About Our Money? A Faith Response by Susan K. Taylor

Be inspired. Be challenged. Respond to God’s call. Continue the powerful legacy of compassionate service and passionate advocacy.

All are welcome!

Location: Spartanburg Methodist College

Date: July 18-20, 2019
Our annual Mission u event will be held on July 18-20, 2019 at Spartanburg Methodist College and the entire Mission u team is excited to welcome you this year. Our course are enlightening and our study leaders are dynamic. They are hard at work making their preparations. We have made some changes and we hope that you will like them.

The first change is that the Spiritual Growth Course will NOT be held in the gym. It will be in the Gibbs Auditorium in Ellis Hall. We have listened to you and heeded the evaluations.

The second change is that study books for the courses WILL NOT BE AVAILABLE IN THE RESOURCE ROOM AT MISSION u. Ladies, this is not our choice, but it is a directive from UMW National that we can no longer order books on consignment. Please see the article by Velva Ellerbe, Secretary of Program Resources for further information.

Everyone who attends will take the Spiritual Growth Course on the Gospel of Mark and you will also take one of the other courses; The History of United Methodist Women or What About Our Money.

The youth study is also on Mark.

The study book titles are:

- Practicing Resurrection: The Gospel of Mark and Radical Discipleship
- Women United for Change: 150 Years in Mission and Beyond
- What About our Money? A Faith Response
- Youth study: Who Do You Say That I Am? Meeting Jesus Through the Gospel of Mark

These books are available at the Mission Resource Center at: umwmissionresources.org.

Get together with others from your unit and order enough for all who will attend and you will only have to pay 1 shipping charge.

Please contact me or Velva Ellerbe if you have questions. My email is: doscherj@comcast.net and my phone number is 843-870-3717.

See you at Mission u!

BIG CHANGES FOR OUR RESOURCES!!!!!!

Our Resource Rooms will no longer have books available to sell on site. Instead we will help you fill out an order form and send it in to the Resource Center for you. Then your books will be shipped directly to you.

The Reading Program books will be ordered through other sources such as Amazon and Cokesbury. Some of them can also be found in your Public Library.

These are major changes in how we have done this in the past but we can work together and make this a successful program. Please continue to visit the resource rooms at your events and let us help you make the necessary changes.

To order the Reading Program books you can go to: amazon.com, cokesbury.com or smile.amazon.com. If you have Amazon prime you will get free shipping. If you order through Amazon Smile the United Methodist Women get a percentage of the sale if you choose United Methodist Women in New York, NY. I believe you can get free shipping from Cokesbury if your order reaches a certain amount.

The Mission u studies will also have to be ordered in advance of the event. There is an order form included in this Mission Echo so that you can send your orders to me and I will have the books for you at the upcoming events, Spiritual Growth Retreat at Lake Junaluska and Mission u in Spartanburg. You can also order them yourself by going to: umwmisionresources.org. All orders will have to be placed three weeks before the event.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions you have.

I look forward to our future!

December

Have a wonderfully blessed holiday with family and friends!

Merry Christmas!!
You May Have Experienced Sexual Misconduct If:

- An incident with a ministerial leader makes you feel uncomfortable or confused.
- You receive inappropriate personal gifts from a ministerial leader.
- Your counseling session with a ministerial leader focuses on their needs and issues, especially details of their intimate relationships.
- A ministerial leader invites you out for intimate, social occasions.
- A ministerial leader touches you in a confusing, uncomfortable, or upsetting way.
- A ministerial leader sends you emails, instant, and/or text messages with sexual overtures.
- A ministerial leader uses theological rationale for questionable conduct.

If You Believe You Have Experienced Sexual Misconduct:

- Pay attention to, and trust your feelings during and after the situation.
- Be direct and tell him/her to STOP the behavior.
- Be safe and leave the situation.
- Remember, you are not to blame.
- Document incidents by keeping and saving a record of dates, times, places, and witnesses of incidents.
- Save emails, letters, cards, voicemail messages, text messages, receipts, or notes.
- Share your feelings of hurt, betrayal, confusion, anxiety, or fear with someone you trust.
- Remember you are not the only person to whom this has happened.

Reporting Sexual Misconduct of a Person In Ministerial Leadership:

- The UMC encourages you to file a complaint if you believe a sexual boundary is violated.
- Submit the complaint in writing, signed and dated, to your Bishop or District Superintendent.
- You may also contact GCSRW’s confidential, toll-free number 1800-523-8390 for support.
- For more information, visit www.gcsrw.org or www.umsexualethics.org.

The UMC believes sexual misconduct within ministerial relationships represents an exploitation of power and is a betrayal of sacred trust. The UMC defines sexual misconduct as a continuum of behaviors that includes sexual harassment which is the creation of a hostile or abusive working environment resulting from discrimination on the basis of gender.
