News from District President

By Harriet Creswell, President, Greenwood District UMW

The Greenwood District units continue to do remarkable work that shows faith, hope, and love in action. I am very encouraged as we proceed through 2017.

On March 4, our Day Apart was held at O’Neal Street in Newberry. The theme was Step Up... Women on the Move. President Kathy Bennett and all the ladies of O’Neal Street were wonderful hostesses. The breakfast food was tasty, the accommodations were more than satisfactory, and the overall atmosphere was welcoming. Thanks to Cathy Trevino and Deborah Nantz for planning such a good program with a wide variety of presentations and musical numbers. Mike Evans told us about some of the good work done after the recent flood in Sellers, South Carolina. We also heard from Brigitte Pressley about the Proverbs 226 ministry at Leath Correctional facility in Greenwood. These are both ministries that are deserving of our prayers and support. Singers Louise Robinson and Mary Linda Hill were awe-inspiring, and Patsy Mays and Rev. Valerie Mireb played their chosen instruments with great feeling. We appreciated the talent shared with us that day. Attendance at O’Neal Street was down somewhat, with 42 people in attendance. Hopefully, attendance at events will improve as the year progresses.

Last weekend, I attended the Spiritual Growth Retreat at Lake Junaluska. Lake Junaluska is always special, and this year was no exception. The weather was perfect, and the lake was beautiful. The Greenwood District was represented by 43 members from nine units, with one person under 40 and four first timers. Reverend Pattie Gordon was our speaker for each session, with Reverend Ann Hoyt and Reverend Rhonda Smith leading the music. The theme of One in Charity was timely and relevant. I believe that every attendee left Lake Junaluska with a new spirit to take back to their units and churches.

We in the Greenwood District are at a critical time. Some units are dissolving, officers are difficult to find, and interest in activities seems to be declining. Please be in prayer for our Greenwood District United Methodist Women. We are the heart of the United Methodist Church!

Once again, thanks for all you do for United Methodist Women.

Harriet

Membership-Nurture-Outreach

By Sue Mitchell, Membership-Nurture-Outreach Coordinator

The final report is in from the 2016 census nationally. This is what I received: “Hi Ladies, Well, this is the FINAL Report of the 2016 UMW Census numbers for the South Carolina Conference. It is disappointing when we know that this is not a true reflection of our membership. We have to find a better way to report our numbers on-line for the future. Thank you for your hard work and keep the faith.”- Gladys Lemon, SC Conference Membership-Nurture-Outreach Coordinator

For the Greenwood district, we went from 31 reporting units to 8 reporting units. I did not call or email to remind units, so I will accept some of the blame. However, I did not know which units responded and which did not. As you can see, much work needs to be done before the 2017 census. I think national was requesting way too much information, we will see what the new report looks like. Many thanks go to the 2016 reporting units: Adams Brigman Circle, Central UMC, Newberry, Kate Edwards Study Group, Langley, Panola UMW, Republican UMW, St Paul UMW, and Tranquil.

Blessings,
Sue

The Legacy Fund and You!
Our South Carolina Conference United Methodist Women Legacy Fund participation is growing. Many donated on the March 23rd 3rd Annual Day of Giving. Thank you! Your gifts were generously matched in kind. Results of that initiative have not yet been released. Attendees of our Spiritual Growth Retreat had an opportunity to participate in the Legacy Fund. They did so in a big way! Videos about the Legacy Fund were shown. Information handouts were shared. Thank you all, each of you who made a donation while at Lake Junaluska! Many ladies are now wearing their 150 pins, a sign of their support for the Legacy Fund.

Social Action News

By Cathy Trevino, Social Action Coordinator

Hi Ladies,

I hope everyone made it safely through the storms. It seems impossible but the year is already half over! Just a couple of updates for you. The Proverbs 226 prison ministry is going strong and they continue to start new programs in South Carolina prisons and around the country. This past March we brought over 60 kids into the prison to visit with their moms. This was the Forgive Me Dear event where the moms got to wash their children’s feet and ask their forgiveness and provide them with a new pair of shoes. We had a talent show, a birthday picnic and lunch provided by Sub-way. Please check out their website to find out more about this wonderful volunteer opportunity at www.proverbs226.org or call me at 864-992-2228.

I want to thank Panola UMC UMW for their donation of Sani-Panties. I sent one batch to Haiti with a group in April and am sending another batch to Tanzania in June. The Davis Circle of St. Mark contributed some underwear to go with the batch going to Tanzania. I am planning on checking with a group going to Cuba this summer to see if they want to take some of the Sani-Panties with them. When I was there in 2014 before the blockade was lifted, I was told that the ladies were limited to only 10 pads a month! Ladies in Africa and other third world counties are forced to use stuff like hay/straw or moss etc. when they have their monthly periods and this causes all kinds of infections. Trinity UMW in Greenwood donated some health kits which were also sent to Haiti in April. I know other units are doing similar things so please shoot me an email at cathyt24@yahoo.com and let me know what you are up to so we can share the projects with others and perhaps get more items to donate.

If you are looking for an opportunity to support women and children another idea is to make Pillow Case Dresses. Main St. UMW are working on these. These items are needed to go to Haiti. Smaller ones are used as dresses for the girls and larger ones are worn by the ladies as tops. They can also use boy’s drawstring shorts and children’s crocks. The crocks last much longer than the average flip-flops.

I want to thank all of our Units for the great works they are doing in His Kingdom. Whether it be donations of food items or kitchen and office supplies, to volunteering or your financial contributions. You are amazing!

Please don’t forget that your Diamond Unit reports (see form on page 5 of this newsletter) are due in to me by August 15th. You can mail these to me at 111 Siloam Acres Drive, Greenwood, SC 29646 or you can email them to me at cathyt24@yahoo.com. I will have copies of the Response Magazines again at our Annual Meeting in September. Hope to see you there.

Cathy

“The Power of Bold” will be the theme of the 19th quadrennial Assembly in Columbus, Ohio, May 18-20, 2018. Momentous in that it marks both the organization’s 150th anniversary and a return to the location of the first Assembly in 1942. Throughout the action-filled weekend, participants will revisit the journey of Mary, who boldly and Answer yes to God’s call to service, commitment to mission with women, children and youth as United Methodist Women in the 21st century.

The Assembly website, http://www.UMWAssembly.org, will officially launch in March of 2017 with regular updates on the event. Registration for the event will open Sept. 1, 2017.

Program Resources

By Barbara Gates, Coordinator of Program Resources

Hello UMW members! As we begin the summer months, we may be thinking of relaxing with a book on vacation. Take a few UMW Reading Program books with you in your suitcase. They make great vacation reads.

A reminder to all unit leaders that you should be gathering your Reading Program reporting forms at the beginning of September and send them to me by email at cbmrocky@aol.com or by mail at 501 Cothran Avenue, Greenwood, SC 29649, by September 10th so that I can compile them for the Annual Meeting in N. Augusta. PLEASE be sure that full names are on the forms so that appropriate credit can be given to your members.

Please remember:

1. Count Bonus books as two books—either as two books in one category or as one book in two categories.
2. If you attend Mission U in July that the mission studies books you use for your classes can be counted for credit in the reading program as follows: .......

* Spiritual growth class book credited in Spiritual Growth category
  • Geographic study class book credited in Education for Mission category
  • Issue study class book credited in Social Action category

I NEED YOUR HELP! Since I am new in this position I would like to ask each of you who have active readers in your churches to please send me the name, address, phone number, email, and church name and city of the contact person for your reading program. I often have things to tell you and I can’t do it without your information. Use the form below and send or email it to me. Thank you.
