"Celebrating 150 Years of Limitless Possibilities"

Written by Kimberly Love Quick

The September issue of Mission Echo is ready for all to enjoy! Whether you found us on Facebook, received an email, or downloaded a copy on the UMW website, we are glad that you are taking a moment to see what's happening with the SC Conference UMW. I hope you are as excited as I about meeting our UMW CEO, Harriett Olson in October. What a treat to be able to share with her our Southern Hospitality during our Annual Meeting. Make sure your registration is submitted and your hotel is booked early because this will be an event you do not want to miss.

Grab a cup a cup of tea and take a moment to enjoy the September issue of Mission Echo!

A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another.

President's Report

Time moves quickly! I cannot believe our summer is ending and fall will soon be here. It is hard to believe we are in our 150th year of service to women, children and youth. Time flies! I pray you remain inspired to continue serving enthusiastically for those in need, as our foremothers did so before us.

Our May 18th Come Together Be Together at Trinity United Methodist Church Spartanburg was fun, fun and more fun. “Sisterhood of Grace: Celebrating 150 Years in Mission” brought ladies from every district together. Wearing shades of green and clothing typical of specific decades added to the fun of the day. Thank you to Spartanburg District Superintendent Rev. Cathy Mitchell for sharing her message and love with us. Collections for Arch Ministry provided us a way to leave a little of our love in Spartanburg. Thank you workshop leaders and our hard working Membership Nurture and Outreach Committee.

Keeping with tradition of prior years, our Mission u July 18-20 was wonderful. It is my favorite event all year long. I enjoy the study books, learning in class and group settings, seeing familiar friends from across our conference and making new friends. The campus staff of Spartanburg Methodist College welcome us and strive to meet all our needs. Our theme was “Radical Disciples Then and Now”. Learning together in Ellis Auditorium with Rev. Angela Nelson was a time for personal sharing, dissecting the message and growing spiritually through the study of The Gospel of Mark and Radical Discipleship. Our study Women United for Change, 150 Years in Mission is perfect in this our 150th year in mission. You will want this book in your personal library. We had 13 youth on campus, along with 30 first timers. Our Bishop and Mrs. Holston visited us, shopped the Craft Room and gave support through word and prayer. Bishop, we are inspired by your constant encouragement and attention, even when juggling a very full and busy schedule. The entire Mission u committee and instructors all did a superb job. Thank you everyone. Be sure to put Mission u on your calendar for July 16-18, 2020. It will be great!

Our four mission projects need your support. It is important that we help them find a way to serve those in need in their communities. Our Mission u Craft Room raised $901.50 shared with our four mission projects. They also raised $170 for Ronald McDonald House. Thank you to everyone who donated crafts and shopped for items. Several districts have held fundraisers for mission projects near them. Thank you. This is a continuing need. You can make the difference in lives of so many through your prayers, your financial gifts, your donations and your service. It falls to me. It falls to you. Let us all do our part to ensure the future of our SC mission projects Bethlehem Center, Spartanburg, Columbia Bethlehem Community Center, Kilingsworth, and Wallace Family Life Center. Thanks be to God.

In peace and with prayer, Cathy Ford SCCUMW President
Greetings South Carolina Conference United Methodist Women!

Greetings South Carolina United Methodist Women!

I am hoping that each of you are enjoying a wonderful summer and looking towards the cooler fall weather! Fall will bring along cooler temperatures but also will bring to our wonderful state a very important guest. Harriett Jane Olson, National UMW General Secretary & CEO will be speaking Friday, October 25th during our 47th SCCUMW Annual Meeting. Our meeting will be held at Buncombe Street UMC located at 200 Buncombe Street in Greenville, October 25th - 26th.

This year’s theme is “Celebrating 150 Years of Limitless Possibilities” using Philippians 4:13 (I can do all things through him who strengthens me) as our chosen scripture. Registrations are now being accepted and a blank copy can be found in this Mission Echo issue. Early registration will end October 15th. Any registrations postmarked after October 15th will incur a $10.00 late fee. We have planned several exciting events that are different than those in past years and are looking forward to your participation. Each of you are needed to make this year’s event successful, and we are praying you have plans to be present.

During our Annual Meeting, we will honor Linda Gadson for her 47 years of service to Rural Mission and the residents of the Sea Islands outside Charleston. Everyone is invited to bring along a Thank-you, Retirement, or Life Blessings card to be placed in a box for her.

One of our pre-conference activities will include an opportunity for each of you to visit Triune Mercy Center. The center is a non-denominational mission church that ministers alongside the homeless in downtown Greenville. Please view the list of needed items included with this September Mission Echo and plan to provide one or more items that will be collected by our Limitless Team as you enter during registration.

Conference Officers’ Training will be held Saturday, November 9th at Ashland UMC located at 2600 Ashland Road in Columbia. Registration will begin at 8:30 AM with the training session following. District Presidents are reminded that their eleven elected officers and Cluster Leaders are expected to be present. The Conference Officers are planning for the training and will be disappointed if your district officers are not present to receive the information in person. There will be time scheduled for each District President to meet with their teams to plan their Local Officers’ Training.

Meet Harriett Jane Olson- our CEO

Harriett Jane Olson has served as chief executive officer of the United Methodist Women’s national administrative and policymaking arm since 2007. United Methodist Women is a nearly 800,000-member organization within the United Methodist Church in the United States. United Methodist Women members give about $15 million a year for work with women, children and youth in the United States and around the world. UMW operates and/or owns the Church Center for the United Nations in New York City, a retirement home for deaconesses and missionaries in North Carolina, a publication and distribution network, and a series of mission education and leadership development events annually. Through these events and our connections around the world, UMW staff and members are inspired, prepared, encouraged and celebrated for their direct service and advocacy for justice.

A Harvard Law School graduate, Ms. Olson practiced real estate and environmental law [1983-96] at a N.J. law firm that is now part of Day, Pitney, before working for the church full-time. From 1996-2007, Ms. Olson was senior vice-president for publishing, editor for church school publications and United Methodist Church book editor at the United Methodist Publishing House in Nashville, TN. Ms. Olson has a bachelor’s degree from Houghton College in Houghton, N.Y., where she serves on the board of trustees.
Spiritual Growth

What an honor these last two years have been for me to serve you as the SCCUMW Spiritual Growth Coordinator. I have enjoyed meeting so many ladies at our UMW events and feel extremely fortunate to have had this experience. I am looking forward to future events and continuing my spiritual journey as a mighty Methodist woman.

Moving forward, I leave with fond memories of my time on the Executive team. I pray that you will continue to support the leadership of the Conference and District team leaders. These hard working ladies are doing their best to keep you informed and involved in our church, nation and world issues.

We must educate ourselves about happenings around us. We must take action when we can and be in prayer for those who are considered “less than.” Our nation and world face issues such as human trafficking, suicide, mass shootings, racial inequality, climate change, division of our country, and the many more “hot topic” issues that we may struggle with. How discouraged we can get! But we must look to God, listen for His guidance, read the words of Jesus and then do our best to do as He has instructed. It is an old tagline, WWJD, but it will always be current. Ask yourself WWJD when you listen to others with opposing views, watch the news or are forced to react to a difficult situation. We are all “practicing” Christians. Though we may never achieve perfection, we must continue to strive to live our lives in a manner that would be in line with Christ’s teachings.

My prayer for you, my sisters, is that you feel God’s presence and guidance during the wonderful and the difficult times in your lives.

Caron Cooper
SCCUMW Spiritual Growth Coordinator
A Note from our Conference Treasurer

I have been a very busy person this year. I have attended a lot of meetings!! In addition to meetings, I attended the Spiritual Growth Retreat, Leadership Training, Come Together Be Together, Annual Conference, and Mission u. I did take a quick trip to the Bahamas in June for a few day’s relaxation. I have really enjoyed being your treasurer this year.

I look forward to working with you all to make SCCUMW the best in the U.S. So, make and pay those pledges, support our SC Missions, attend all the functions you possibly can and have fun. United Methodist Women are the greatest!!

Just a reminder to District Treasurer, your third quarter remittances are due to me no later than September 15, 2019.

Together, We Are Building our Legacy

Thank you to everyone who donated to The Legacy Fund collection received June 5th at our SC Annual Conference in Greenville. Generous donors from every district contributed to the amazing amount of $13,827.47. A Future with Hope was the conference theme. This loving contribution does just that, provides hope for continuation of our beloved organization. Our permanent endowment fund will secure long term stability while allowing us to continue vital programming that fulfills our mission of putting faith, hope and love into action daily.

A new giving campaign has been launched. It is titled Legacy Builder. Members are encouraged to donate $18.69 monthly. It is important for our members to participate in a sustainable and regular way of giving to The Legacy Fund Endowment Campaign that moves us closer to achieving the fund’s $60 million goal by the end of 2020. Endowing core expenses will equip United Methodist Women to make even more of a difference in the lives of women, children and youth in communities around the world and in South Carolina. Some examples are providing healthy snacks to an afterschool program for children living in poverty in rural Kentucky, or supplying books for an international scholarship recipient in the Philippines, or purchasing baby chicks to create entrepreneurship opportunities for women and youth in Mozambique. These are just three examples of our many good deeds done for God’s kingdom on earth.

Let me share the monetary giving totals through June 30, 2019 and giving totals since inception of Legacy Fund.

As of June 30, 2019 the total Legacy Fund monies equaled $19,312,933.25.
Total 2019 South Carolina Conference contributions as of June 30, 2019 total $25,073.92.
Since inception of endowment up to June 30, 2019 SC Conference contributions total $53,548.31.
Total 2019 South Eastern Jurisdiction contributions as of June 30, 2019 total $223,105.35

Since inception of endowment up to June 30, 2019 South Eastern Jurisdiction contributions total $1,155,813.39.

Thank you everyone for supporting and participating in this campaign. Your enthusiasm, prayers and financial support are wonderful. Let us continue to inspire and support one another with our Legacy campaign.

Please be sure to visit our display table at 47th Annual Conference in Greenville. I hope to see you wearing your 150 Legacy pin.

your South Carolina Conference Legacy Fund Liaison,
Cathy Ford
Greeting Ladies,

It’s amazing how time flies when you are having fun and being busy doing the work of the Lord by being missional – helping, leading and caring for His people. I want to thank you for the great work that has been done throughout 2019! We have reached some milestones in our reaching out and helping others. The struggles continue for some and a lot of uncertainty linger for others, but with our continued support and prayers, resolutions will come. I especially want to thank you for all of the items that you provided for the Craft Room at Mission U. This year’s overall attendance was lower than it had been in previous years and we expected that it would make a big impact, but you graciously gave, and the ladies came and bought items and made the Craft Room a success for another year! We also sold 20 bracelets that were made from the colored tabs. These bracelets help to pay for families to stay at the Ronald McDonald House and be close to a sick child. The offering that was received on Saturday will be divided between the mission projects. So, once again, great job! All of your efforts and gifts touch and change many lives! Let’s continue doing this wonderful work!

Special thanks to the ladies who assisted in the Craft Room with the selling and the packing up at the closing as well as to the ladies who trimmed stamps and even took stamps home with them to trim. To all of the units who brought stamps, new and used, gift cards, etc., thank you!

A special note for all District E&I Coordinators: Please send your Mission Today information to me by the 15th of September. This will ensure that we have it in time to place it in the program book at the Annual Meeting. I hope you are making plans to attend the 47th SC Conference Annual Meeting on October 25-26 at Buncombe St. UMC in Greenville, SC. We will need your assistance once again to trim stamps. Also, remember that we are putting special emphasis on this Annual Meeting as we continue to celebrate our 150 years of service. Please remember the gift cards for the four Mission Projects. Thank you for all you do and continue to have a great year. I hope to see you at the upcoming Annual Meeting and the Conference Training on November 9 at Ashland UMC in Columbia.

Again, thanks for a wonderful year in the service of giving!

Blessings and Peace,
Eunice Y. White, SCCUMW E&I Coordinator
Killingsworth has had a very unusual spring and summer. The Board continues to be busy with overseeing the business of our ministry supporting and raising funds for our mission. Great news! With the help of matching funds at $10,000 we totaled our Midlands Gives on May 1 at almost $19,000. We want to send a big thank you to those who contributed to Midlands Gives on our behalf. On Monday, May 13th, golfers gathered at the Oak Hills Golf Club for the 27th Annual Golf Tournament. The event was enjoyed by all who participated. Without the support of our Board and United Methodist Women, this event would not have been a success. Many thanks to all who worked hard on the tournament to ensure its success.

Without an Executive Director in place, we have been challenged in many ways. The house continues to have some property issues. Replacing and repairing air conditioners, and upgrading computers are a few of the major issues we have had to deal with in recent months. The Board has assisted the staff in the day to day operations of the house. The Board of Directors has recently hired a consultant to access the staffing needs at Killingsworth. We look forward to these new possibilities as we move our ministry forward.

Due to the many challenges we have faced, we are postponing this annual Killingsworth Gala event for this year and take a look at our options for 2020. We will keep you informed of other Fundraising opportunities through Mission Echo and District newsletters and announcement at our Annual Meeting!

The most important thing for all to remember is that the house is operating at full steam and residents’ needs are being met through the efforts of our hard working staff and committed Board members. We are looking forward to getting a Director to assist in the day to day operations of the home in the future!

Our Circle of Care program is still on our agenda and we would love to come to your district this fall, winter or next spring. If you would like to organize and host us in your district please talk to me for more information.

Lastly, as a reminder if you are on Facebook and have not already liked us, please do so by typing in Killingsworth Home! Like us and then as you receive messages from Killingsworth please take a few seconds to share what’s happening at Killingsworth with others! We are also working on updating our website under the direction and expertise of Matt Brodie. You may visit us on the web at www.killingsworth.org.

Please remember September is just around the corner and it signals to us that it is Killingsworth Special Emphasis Month!!! Won’t you and your unit consider giving in a significant way during September? Thank you for all you do to support the women of Killingsworth!

God’s Blessings to all,
Flo Johnson
