From Your President...

“All” people are created in God’s image...

That’s the first lesson that was explored in our Spiritual Growth study at our SCCUMW Mission u school held the end of July. The first covenant made by God with his new creation was one of care and grace. How are we doing these days in maintaining this covenant with God? Do we really care about all who are made in God’s image? Do we really care about the resources of this world which he gave to us? Are we uncomfortable accepting that everyone is an image of God and should be treated as such? Do we continue to abuse and exploit our planet for our own conveniences or turn our heads and ignore what is being done to it by others?

This first covenant with God revealed to us in the book of Genesis tied in quite well with our other two studies, one being on climate justice and the other on our missionary conferences in the United States. These include the poor in the Appalachian Mountains, and our Native American sisters and brothers in Oklahoma and Alaska. The fear and mistrust of other people with different backgrounds and different opinions is so prevalent in our society and our world these days. We don’t seem to want to acknowledge that it is God who made each of us in our own unique ways. God wants us to be in good relationship with others just as God wants us to be in good relationship with God. Do we continue to promote this fear of not enough for all, “us” versus “them”? Would it be better if we looked to God’s grace for guidance and action? How would it be if we replaced negative feelings with feelings of grace and care? Isn’t that what our foremothers set out to do at the very beginning of our organization? They decided that God’s grace is for all regardless of who they are or where they live, and these ladies decided to do what they could to care for those of God’s people who were in need of assistance in their lives.

The original founders of United Methodist Women are still great role models to follow. All the women who have followed in their footsteps have continued to keep the mission going. How are we doing at continuing this legacy? Will we carry on as a voice for the least of these? We have opportunities coming up to help our neighbors dealing with sickle cell disease and young teenage girls in our area who are being exploited in the sex trafficking trade. Will we share God’s grace and help care for them?

I want to thank my UMW sisters for all your expressions of sympathy on the death of my mother in June. She was my role model and inspiration for getting involved in United Methodist Women. She was a long time leader for her unit. I have felt your prayers during this difficult time for me and my family.

God bless you all,

Kathy

From Our Vice President

“But be sure to fear the Lord and serve him faithfully with all your heart; consider what great things he has done for you.” 1 Samuel 12:24

Hello My Sisters in Christ,

To God be the glory for all the things He has done..... I thank God for the exciting duties He has appointed me as your Vice President. I consider it a pleasure serving and working with you – the UMW Officers of the Charleston District. I thank you for your support and assistance. I pray that each of you and your family are enjoying this wonderful hot summer.

Plans are in motion for our upcoming 2017 Annual Charleston District Meeting which will be held on Saturday, September 16, 2017 at Knightsville United Methodist Church 1505 Central Ave, Summerville, SC. The Planning committee is creatively planning a program that is sure to be a blessing; I look forward to seeing you all in attendance.

As usual I am requesting all Cluster Leaders to assist with the registration process; you will be responsible for your cluster of churches to sign in. This will also give the women of your cluster the opportunity to meet and greet their cluster leaders. The Program Committee gives thanks to the women at Knightsville for their generosity of hosting this year's annual meeting.

Officers Training will be held on Saturday, January 20, 2018, provided there are no conflict with the Conference calendar, more information will be forwarded to you at a later date through your cluster leaders.

Be blessed my sisters,

Jeanette Alston
Charleston District Vice President

TREASURERS!!!

WHERE HAS THE TIME GONE!!! It's almost District Meeting time. Please have your third quarter remittances to me by 9/5/2017. The information I have received for the fourth quarter of 2016 and the three quarters of 2017 will be used to determine the different awards the units will receive at the District Meeting. As always we want to make sure every unit gets the proper awards for which they have worked. By the time you read this, you should have gotten a pledge card for 2018. If you haven't received one, please call me immediately. If you cannot attend the meeting, you can mail the pledge card to me. Also, please ask your unit to consider raising your pledge for 2018. Because the pledge money from the units has been down, the District felt the need to reduce our pledge to the Conference for 2018. This move was not taken lightly. Hope to see all of you on 9/16/17 at Knightsville UMC. Thank you for all the work you do for your churches. My new and permanent contact information follows:

The Diamond Unit certificate is awarded at each District Annual Meeting to each unit that completes three or more activities that demonstrates the unit's commitment to the ideals in the Charter for Racial Justice. You are to send a copy of this completed form to me before September 1, 2017 in order to be recognized at your district annual meeting and receive the Diamond Unit certificate.

September is National Sickle Cell Disease Month! On September 23, 2017 we will participate in the Sickle Cell Walk. This event is held to create awareness and financial support for those living with Sickle Cell Disease. The profit will be utilized to enhance healthier life skills and assist patients with emergency needs.

We would like to encourage everyone to come out and bring your family to make this event a great success. If registration forms are needed, please contact me at martha.sass@us.bosch.com or call at 843-729-5939. Registration should be done by September 1, 2017 to ensure you receive a t-shirt.

If you received the form, please send along with payment to Sickle Cell Services of COBRA, P, O. Box 71473, Charleston, SC 29415.

Each Unit is asked to donate $50 to the Sickle Cell Walk on September 1, 2017. Please send donations along with the registration form to COBRA (attn.: Novella Larkins). She will keep track of all of the units that donate. I have attached another copy of the registration form and I am encouraging each unit to have one or two participants to come out and support the walk, if possible.

Thanking you in advance for your participation and donation,

September is National Sickle Cell Awareness Month, enabling us to focus on this devastating genetic disorder which affects about 100,000 people in the United States and millions more worldwide. Individuals affected must struggle and manage to live with the ramifications of this disorder on a daily basis. The level of severity of the disorder varies among those who are affected.

Research is being supported through strategic partnerships among Congress, NIH, CDC, other federal agencies and the American Society of Hematology to improve treatment options and hopefully find a cure.

Concerted efforts between health and social services providers are needed to consistently address medical, psychological, physical and social issues to avoid unnecessary sufferings.

The Sickle Cell Services of COBRA and Sponsors will hold their Annual Sickle Cell Walk on Saturday, September 23, 2017 at the North Charleston Recreational Department's Park Circle. The walk will begin at 9:00 am with check in at 8:15 am. Community Services Tables, music, testimonies, honoring/memorial recognitions, and refreshments will take place until 2:00 pm.

Proceeds from the walk will support patients and families in enhancing healthy life empowerment skills for better health results.

Walk in Honor of a Living patient or in Memory of a deceased.

Pre-Register on Eventbrite.com or obtain a Registration Form. Adults - $20.00
Children under 12 - $10.00.

Deadline to qualify for a shirt prior to the event is September 1, 2017. Late registrations do not qualify for a shirt. All contributions are tax deductible.

Calling All Quiltters

Ladies,

The S.C. Conference is planning a special project for next year's Annual Conference which requires quilters from each district to make a special quilt representing their district. Funds are available and I have a lady in my unit with quilting supplies she would like to give away. If we have any interested quilters to help with this project or who just want quilting supplies, please contact me as soon as possible.

Thank You,

Kathy Roys

KILLINGSWORTH

transforming women

1831 Pendleton Street • Columbia, SC 29201

To Friends and Supporters and to those we hope will become both!

This letter is written to ask your consideration of sponsoring Killingsworth's annual Gala fundraising event: a dinner at Seawell's with a fashion show presented by Chico's and music throughout provided by The Dick Goodwin Quartet and featuring a festive silent auction. This year our theme will lead us into the Christmas season as we highlight 70 years of working to help women transform their lives at moments of significant change.

As a 501(c)3 nonprofit agency of the United Methodist Church for decades we have been offering a transition home and a supportive environment of counseling and referral services to adult women who have experienced tragic and debilitating crises. Our residents are referred to Killingsworth by both public and private agencies: drug and alcohol treatment centers; in-patient and outpatient mental health facilities; corrections facilities; shelters for victims of domestic violence; social services at Ft. Jackson and local hospitals as well as local pastors and other helping professionals.

Killingsworth is hosting our Annual Gala at Seawells. The Gala is a much anticipated event for many in the Midlands during the fall. We have had fantastic support. Let's work towards having a sell out for our 70th birthday celebration!

It is helpful to know that there are people in our community who support those who want to make significant, often difficult changes and live productive, meaningful lives. We would appreciate very much your gift of sponsorship to celebrate South Carolina women making those difficult choices and changes.

If you have any questions please call (803) 771-6359. Thank you for any support that you may be able to offer.

Sincerely,

Flo Johnson
