Message From The President

I am getting excited already for what is coming our way in October at Union UMC in Irmo. We are expecting a large turnout from around the state. Things are being planned to ensure we have it all together and ready to receive our guest.

But first things first... Thanks to Debra Schooler and the program meeting for planning our time together for our 45th District annual meeting coming on September 16, 2017 at Washington Street United Methodist Church located on the corner of Washington and Bull Streets. Registration will begin at 8:45a. If you have not sent your registration forms to Pam Thomas, Treasurer, please do it today. It is important to get registrations in early so that we can plan for your attendance. Reports should all be in by now. Also remember to send your Campaign for Children report to me by September 15. There is not a form for this report. All you do is give volunteer hours that you and yours ladies have spent working with children. Thank you very much for your cooperative spirit. These reports are vital to success of our program book and annual meeting.

Tee shirt order form has been distributed for ordering your Columbia District shirt to wear on Friday of the Conference annual meeting in October. Shirts will be delivered to you at our District meeting in September. If you have not gotten an order form, please see it included in this issue of Gleanings. You must move fast! Let's show our strength and unity by everyone ordering your shirt and wearing it at the Friday opening session.

Nineteen ladies attended Mission u. Thanks to all who attended.

Who's making nylon scrubbers? I have 80 on hand right now. The goal is to have 400 by October 1. Please call or email me with the numbers you have made thus far. I know that several ladies are working on them. Mt. Hebron ladies are doing butterfly bookmarks which we hope to have one for each person attending the SCUMW annual meeting in October. These items will be place in the registration bags.

We would love to have all Columbia District ladies in attendance. So get registered to attend the 45th annual meeting.

Thanks for all you do!

Sincerely,

Sandra Love

Columbia District President

News From Our Vice President

Wow this year is flying so fast! So much has happened this summer! Mission U was a great success! I heard comments like "very inspirational" and "best ever"! It was certainly a special time with the youth, the wonderful ladies in attendance, and with my special "man" in attendance!!! We learned, we worshiped and experienced fellowship with each other!!! If you want to experience this special time, join us next July and I promise you will be blessed!

We are looking forward to our District Annual meeting on September 16th, and we hope you will come and support our Columbia District as we celebrate our year together!!!!

Our South Carolina Conference annual meeting is October 27-28 at Union United Methodist! Registration forms are available in the June & September issues of "Gleanings"!!! Come and enjoy United Methodist women from all over the State and learn, share and worship with us!

Blessings to you as we enter our Fall season! Hope this time will be a time of faithful service for us all!!

Debra Schooler

Columbia District Vice President

Secretary News

As we begin to look forward to cooler temperatures, children and grandchildren back in school, senior vacations, and football games, we also need to take time to complete all reports and checklists due to the President and various committee chairs. These reports help complete conference reports and help the Executive Committee assess our programs for 2017. We can then develop goals for 2018 and beyond.

One of the goals for 2017 was to develop a District Directory. It is important for our units to stay in communication with the District Executive Committee and their counterparts in the district. A directory was developed but lacked information for many of the local units. District unit president, vice president, secretary and treasurer receive a mailed copy of Gleanings. If we do not have your names and addresses, this copy can not be mailed to you. I am including in this issue of Gleanings a form asking for contact information for each of these offices. Please send information for the 2018 officers of your unit. I am working on restructuring the directory and want to have it available at the District Training Session in January. This training will be held at Chapin United Methodist Church on January 13, 2018. If you do not elect officers until that first meeting in January, please bring your list to this meeting. I will add those names to the directory and resend to the Cluster Leaders to send to the churches. This is a learning experience for me and thanks for all those who will be returning the needed information as quickly as possible.

We will be considering the revision of our Bylaws and Operating Procedures at our October, 2017 Executive Committee meeting. This is another work in progress and hopefully the document will be approved at the meeting.

Enjoy your remaining summer days and look forward to seeing each of you at the District Annual Meeting, September 16, 2017 at Washington Street UMC and the SC Conference Annual Meeting, October 27-28 at Union UMC in Irmo.

Education and Interpretation's Report

Let us continue in spreading the word about the five missions in our state that we as United Methodist Women support: Killingsworth, Rural Mission, Wallace Family Life Center, Bethlehem Center, Spartanburg, and Bethlehem Community Center, Columbia.

Each of our missions have many needs both financially and various items, but each mission has also requested lots of prayers. All missions need: new postage stamps for mailing, copy paper, trash bags, gift cards (Walmart), paper products. Each mission expresses their gratitude to the UMW for all the support to their organizations.

I have just returned from Mission u in Spartanburg, (my first) an event that was especially inspiring to me. I enjoyed the fun and fellowship, and the studies were interesting and thought provoking. Each of the five missions in SC had displays and representatives to answer questions. If you have never attended, I encourage you to put that on your calendar for next year.

Columbia Bethlehem Community Center – Summer camp began Monday, June 5 from 7:30 am - 4 pm. There were 21 campers. This year's program concentrated on health and wellness, several field trips, lots of games including arts and music crafts for the children as well as computer educational instruction. Breakfast, lunch, and snacks were served.

The Summer feeding program which started Monday, June 5, fed an average of 42 children, 21 from the neighborhood.

CBCC has signed another agreement with Richland School District One to offer GED classes this fall. The goal is to recruit 15 students with classes starting Tuesday September 5. Classes will be Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday 10 am - 1 pm.

The "FOODSHARE" program continues at the CBCC twice a month where families can purchase a basket of food for $20.00 cash or use EBT Snap for $10.00.

A Community Garden with the help of students from Benedict College has been created at the CBCC facility.

Back to School Cookout held August 13, 2017 4 pm – 6 pm at Columbia Housing Authority

Fall Fest to be held on October 6, 2017 5:30 pm – 7:30 pm at the Columbia Bethlehem CC will be collecting School Supplies

Spartanburg Bethlehem Community Center – The Center sponsors programs for seniors, families, and youth. The Thrift Store, the computer services classes, and limited fitness equipment all contribute to serving the community. Children enjoy a gardening club, scouting, and seasonal sports. Suggested items are as follows: postage stamps, gift cards (ex: Wal-Mart, Office Depot...for office supplies, BI-LO...for food supplies, individually wrapped snacks (for after school program), and non-perishable food items (for food pantry).

Rural Missions –Rural Mission's is still repairing and/or rebuilding homes damaged by Hurricane Matthew. Workers, building supplies, gift cards for residents of the renovated homes to purchase needed items such as bedding, lamps, cleaning supplies, etc, volunteers willing to spend a few days to work on home renovations, and visits from UMW members to see firsthand the work of the mission team are needed. Several needs are gift cards (Wal-Mart, Office Depot for office supplies), Gatorade/Powerade for work crews, paper products (cups, plates, paper towels, etc.).

Wallace Family Life Center – We have all new leadership (Myself and Linda Sanders, the new Program Coordinator) and the leadership is committed to improving the WFLC standing in the community and among the UMW programs throughout the state. Fact is simply that the WFLC cannot fulfill its mission without the ongoing increased support of the UMW.

Kevin Long has reported that the Center is closed during August and will start back up with the Adult Education program and after school program in September. Postage stamps remain at the top of their Wish List along with Paper products and cleaning products as well as quart and gallon size Ziploc plastic bags.

Killingsworth – The Gala is coming! November 9. 2017 at Seawells! Be in prayer for their beloved cook of twenty years, Henrietta Holland, who has high blood pressure and cannot work for several weeks. They were asking for volunteers to supply dinner for the ladies. Please call Killingsworth at (803) 771-6359 for more information. A few of the requested needs: gift cards from grocery stores, Walmart, and Office Depot (office supplies and it is in walking distance from Killingsworth), bus passes (www.catchthecomet.org), Laundry detergent (not HE) and dryer sheets (not liquid fabric softener).

Serving Him Together,

Nylon Scrubbers as Gifts From Columbia District

Hello My UMW Sisters,

As we move forward in making plans in preparation of our SCUMW sisters in October 26 -28, 2017 at Union UMC in Irmo, I need your help in making keepsakes for each attendee at this event.

While Mt. Hebron ladies are already preparing “Angel bookmarks”, I would like to add nylon scrubbers to our keepsake list for our guest.

I know we have 100's of crochet and knitting enthusiast in our midst. We need volunteers to begin making nylon scrubbers to be included in the registration packets as gifts from Columbia District.

Below is a photo of what I have in mind and also the website you may visit to get instructions on supplies and patterns.

Just google “pot scrubber crochet pattern” and you will see a nice lady giving instructions

Or just click this link <http://mysweetsomethings.blogspot.ca/2012/06/free-pattern-friday-reusable-crochet.html>

We will need around 400 of these.

Please email me at slgtar@aol.com to let me know if you can help. You may even get your friends involved. Feel free to make them in any color your desire

Let's get started!!

In His Service,

Sandra Love

To celebrate the United Nations passing of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights for all people, the Columbia Unit of Church Women United is seeking nominations for the 2017 Human Rights Award. We ask that you nominate someone from your church, work, family or community, including community organizations. The theme this year is "Kindling New Fires of Hope," which focuses on social justice as:

The nominee should be available to attend the Human Rights Celebration service on October 6, 2017 at Shandon Presbyterian Church, 607 Woodrow St., Columbia, South Carolina, 29205. Registration and refreshments are at 11:30 AM; worship service begins at 12 Noon.

Your nominee does not have to be someone who has been in the public eye, but a person or group that has worked endlessly toward equality for all, regardless of race, ability or economic status. The nominee can be a leader in the community who has advocated for health and economic justice; or an individual committed to lifting the causes of peace and justice, children's rights, and/or the rights of persons with special needs.

KILLINGSWORTH

transforming women

1831 Pendleton Street • Columbia, SC 29201

To Friends and Supporters and to those we hope will become both!

This letter is written to ask your consideration of sponsoring Killingsworth's annual Gala fundraising event: a dinner at Seawell's with a fashion show presented by Chico's and music throughout provided by The Dick Goodwin Quartet and featuring a festive silent auction. This year our theme will lead us into the Christmas season as we highlight 70 years of working to help women transform their lives at moments of significant change.

As a 501 (c)(3) nonprofit agency of the United Methodist Church for decades we have been offering a transition home and a supportive environment of counseling and referral services to adult women who have experienced tragic and debilitating crises. Our residents are referred to Killingsworth by both public and private agencies: drug and alcohol treatment centers; inpatient and outpatient mental health facilities; corrections facilities; shelters for victims of domestic violence; social services at Ft. Jackson and local hospitals as well as local pastors and other helping professionals.

Killingsworth is hosting our Annual Gala at Seawells. The Gala is a much anticipated event for many in the Midlands during the fall. We have had fantastic support. Let's work towards having a sell out for our 70th birthday celebration!

It is helpful to know that there are people in our community who support those who want to make significant, often difficult changes and live productive, meaningful lives. We would appreciate very much your gift of sponsorship to celebrate South Carolina women making those difficult choices and changes.

If you have any questions please call (803) 771-6359. Thank you for any support that you may be able to offer.

Sincerely,

Flo Johnson

Killingsworth Gala Silent Auction Items

Dear UMW ladies,

Killingsworth is asking your help in collecting items for silent auction. The list of suggested items are below. Please help make this a profitable night for Killingsworth.

Thanks in advance for your support and participation.

Sandra Love

Accessories - purses, wallets, umbrellas, tote bags etc as well as office accessory items (organizer boxes, paper weights, pens).

Outdoor items – coolers, picnic items

Art – prints, paintings

Baskets – gift baskets with themes are wonderful sellers. Last year we had baskets with gardening items, “pamper me”, Christmas cheer, Gamecock, Tiger or other college items, home movie night, breakfast foods (mixes, jams and jellies, even cookbooks), kitchen items (towels, pot holders, implements, etc and – of course – chocolate

Gift Certificates – nail and hair salons, tickets to events, restaurants, specialty shops

Children’s items – cute clothing, baby throws, toys

Christmas – Wreaths and table arrangements are usually great sellers. Other ideas are holiday themed serving accessories, ornaments, figurines, pillows, linens

Holiday items – Thanksgiving and autumn items are also popular

Clothing – handmade hats and scarfs are great

Electronics – last year we had a Bluetooth receiver and a Camcorder. There are numerous items that would sell well in this category – use your imagination

Food – cakes – either homemade or donated by a bakery are very popular. One year a bakery donated some beautiful cupcakes

Home/garden décor – decorative plates, pillows, vases, flower pots, bowls, bathroom accessory items, sun catchers, candles/candle holders

Jewelry – Our ladies love it all

Kitchen/dining – Knives, cookbooks, pitchers, glasses, casserole dishes, candy dishes, Pampered Chef items, dishes, crystal, tea/coffee pots, small appliances

Pottery – handmade sells well

Sports – 2 golf baskets were included last year. Sports equipment would be a great addition

Throws – afghans are always great – especially in school colors

Items we would love to have that we didn't have last year but have had in the past – handmade baby cradle, garden bench, small chairs (painted with coordinated pillows)

Vacation homes – beach or mountain condos or houses for weekends, a few days, whatever the owner is willing to share.

Books – religious, contemporary, children's books

Since we are working with many recovering addicts we do not want to include anything alcoholic. Wine glasses that can be called "goblets" are ok.

We do need items in excellent condition. New with tag is nice, but not essential. Use your own good judgment. Many of the purchases are intended to be gifts

Items don't need to be limited to these suggestions. Feel free to talk to us about other ideas.

Please bring your donations to Killingsworth and complete our donation slip. We do need an estimated valuable for your own tax records and to help us determine suitable starting bids.
