SEPTEMBER 2017

45th Annual Meeting of the Anderson District United Methodist Women

Saturday, October 14, 2017 • 10:00am
Registration begins at 9:00

Theme: "We Walk by Faith... Not by Sight"
~ 2 Corinthians 5:7

Join with your sisters in Christ at Bethesda UMC, in the Powdersville community, for this annual gathering as we celebrate another year of spiritual growth, learning, teaching, mission service, and more.

The mission collection this year is simply one item; a basic necessity - toilet tissue. When asking the representatives of the five SCCUMW mission projects of the number one item needed (aside from monetary donations) their response is, "toilet tissue!"

Let's rally around this collection project by getting the word out to all of our members & church family and bring or send donations to Annual Meeting.

We will divide all that is collected among our five SC missions:

Wallace Family Life Center
Rural Mission, Inc.

Columbia Bethlehem Community Center
Killingsworth

Bethlehem Center - Spartanburg.

Find the meeting registration form on page 6.

From the President ~
Kate Hyder

Happy September! The fall of the year is quickly coming upon us. That means Annual Meetings (Anderson District on October 14 at Bethesda UMC in Powdersville and SC Conference on October 27-28 at Union UMC in Irmo). It also means yearly unit reports are due. If you have missed the September 1 deadline for reports, please get them to the proper people ASAP (see page 11 of the June Network News newsletter) or contact me directly.

Reports that need to be done annually: Annual Reporting Guide, Names of deceased members, Charter for Racial Justice Diamond Unit Award, Mission Today Action Form, and Reading Program Reports. Reports can be summited after the deadline but may not be recognized at Annual Meeting; and they are still needed for Conference reporting.

As we continue to mourn the loss of Carrie Anderson, our Committee on Nominations Chair, we are happy to report her successor, Martha McKinney. Thank you, Martha, for accepting this opportunity to serve.

This day and every day let us give thanks for His great generosity in entrusting us (UMW) to do His work. May we always be alert to the opportunities to share His good news.

Social Action
Mission Coordinator

The week of July 23 - July 29, 2017 was one of the most powerful weeks I have experienced during my Christian walk. It started with VBS at Bethesda UMC where I was volunteering as the storyteller. I shared the stories of creation, Jesus' birth, and David and Goliath. From each story, I was trying to emphasize certain themes. The creation story shows that everything that God created is good. The birth of Jesus shows us that nothing is impossible with God. David reminds us that God looks towards our heart not our appearance.

Later in this same week, I attended Mission u. During our second study, "Living as a Covenant Community", we were given the opportunity to walk around the room, no talking, and just look at each other. I was able to witness different women of race and nationality look at each other with nothing but love in their eyes while giving amazing hugs! This small activity reminded me of the lessons I was able to teach the children of Bethesda and the Powdersville community earlier in the week. If everyone would look at each other knowing that everything God created is good, nothing is impossible with God, and to take the time to look at the heart of all people; imagine how wonderful it would be to be in this covenant community!
