ACTIVE MINISTERS

DONALD EUGENE ALEXANDER, JR.

August 17, 1959 – January 1, 2021

Don was born August 17, 1959 in Greer, SC to parents Donald and Doris Alexander. He had one older sister, Donna. Don's father and several uncles served as Wesleyan ministers in South Carolina and Georgia. Don graduated from Byrnes High School, Spartanburg Methodist College, Lander University, and Duke Divinity School.

He and his wife Rhonda, were introduced by mutual friends, and they were married October 2, 1982. In February 1985, they were blessed with a son, Donald Alexander, III (Trey).

Before he accepted a call to ministry, he was a leader with the Boy Scouts of America and worked with the youth in his home church, Duncan United Methodist Church in Duncan, SC.

During their first years of ministry, Don and Rhonda often said, "God was in need of a laugh," as they handled the situations He sent their way.

He had a major concern for people's souls. He counseled and witnessed to drug and alcohol addicts, the homeless, and many others. Missions were very important to him. He led mission groups to Red Bird Mission in Kentucky; St. John's Island, South Carolina, after hurricane Katrina; and Bay St. Louis and Gulfport, Mississippi. He helped raise donations for children's homes, women's shelters, and others, but always came home wishing he could have done more.

In his free time, he enjoyed family gatherings and taking his grandchildren hunting, fishing, and on trips to the beach and mountains.

Don was privileged to serve as pastor at the following churches during his ministry: St. Paul; Plum Branch, Republican - McCormick; Bethel – Union; Mt. Bethel-Sunset; and Porter's Chapel – Pickens. He was serving at Bogansville United Methodist Church, in Jonesville, SC when he passed away.

MARK ASBURY BOWLING

August 8, 1962 – October 20, 2020

Mark Asbury Bowling passed away October 20, 2020, joyfully serving his first and final appointment as pastor to Lamar UMC. Mark entered vocational ministry late in life. A graduate of Furman University, he flourished in the field of accounting and finance over 25 years before answering the call. In preparation, Mark earned a Masters in Christian Ministry from North Greenville University while continuing to work fulltime and serve on staff at his home church.

In 2019, he followed the family's footsteps by becoming a licensed local pastor in the SC Conference. He had nearly completed all the requirements for a Doctorate in Christian Ministry from North Greenville University and was awarded his degree posthumously. Mark loved God and loved people: was easygoing and quick with a smile. He was passionate about discipleship and on fire for Christ's church. He put his whole heart into everything he did and lived with a sense of urgency. Although Mark held numerous degrees and titles, he downplayed those accomplishments. The only title he bragged about was "Papa".

Mark is survived by his wife, Elena Bowling; daughter Meghan Greer, husband Curtis and granddaughter Ralyn Greer of Liberty, SC; daughter Michelle Peterson of Columbia, SC.; daughter Taylor Bowling of Greenville, S.C; brother Rev. Ralph T. Bowling III and wife Karen; and by many aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, and nephews. He is preceded in death by parents Rev. Dr. Ralph T. Bowling Jr and Carolyn Bowling.

GUY MICHAEL SCALES

December 21, 1958 – December 28, 2020

Rev. Guy Michael Scales was born December 21, 1958, the son of the late Guy Wilbur Scales and Lena Vinson Scales of Jonesville, SC. He was a graduate of Union High School, Spartanburg Methodist College and Haywood Technical College.

He was married to Susan Little Scales for 38 years. His passion for the outdoors shone in his career with the South Carolina Department of Natural Resources, his advocacy for natural resources through leadership roles on multiple boards and agencies, and his work as a farmer.

Most recently, he entered ministry and served as the pastor of Whitmire and Carlisle United Methodist Churches. Mike loved being around people and never knew a stranger – only someone he just had not met yet.

He was known for his strong work ethic, his ability to strike up a conversation with anyone, and for his outstanding storytelling skills.

His family and friends will remember him for his love of the Lord, his family, his church families, his community, and the outdoors – all of which he shared generously throughout his life.

He is survived by his wife, Susan Little Scales, daughter, Rev. Emily Scales Sutton and her husband Marc Sutton of Rock Hill, SC; his son, Matthew Newell Scales and his wife Dr. Kristi Ford Scales of Jonesville, SC; his grandchildren Wylie Matthew Scales, Isabella Kaye Sutton, James Florence Scales, Alexandra Rogan Sutton and Wilbur Lee Scales.

RETIRED MINISTERS

CHARLES DAVID BARRETT

June 24, 1933 – October 7, 2020

Rev. Dr. Charles Barrett was the son of James and Helen Barrett of Rock Hill. Charlie attended Wofford College, served as student pastor in the SC United Methodist Conference, and entered seminary in 1956 at Emory. During his early ministry, he helped organize Epworth UMC (Rock Hill). Later, he earned a Ph.D. in Theology from Drew.

When Charlie returned home, he married Sally Cross and moved to Spartanburg to teach in the Wofford Religion Department. He and Sally had two children, Sandra and Christopher. In 1977, they became charter members of United Methodist Church of the Covenant in Inman. There, he served as a long-time choir member and Bible Study leader.

Charlie taught 33 years at Wofford. His humor, humility, and scholarship made him a much-loved professor, and he mentored many pre-ministerial students and ordination candidates. He was especially proud when son Christopher and daughter-in-law Elise entered the ministry in the SC Conference.

He authored four books: Understanding the Christian Faith, God Under Our Skin: Christ and Covenant in the Christian Conversation, and Funny Things Can Happen on Your Way through the Bible, Volumes I and II.

Charlie was known for his warm conversation and joyful singing. He was also an avid fan of Wofford athletics. He and Sally were married 54 years and blessed with five grandchildren. He never wavered from dedication to his family, Christ, or the Methodist Church that he so loved.

DeARMOND EMORY CANADAY

November 29, 1920 – December 4, 2020

One of De's favorite hymns was "They Will Know We Are Christians by Our Love". As best as he was given to understand, De tried to live out his ministry in faithful response to this Gospel imperative.

He endeavored to show love in action through pastoral care within the congregation he was sent to serve. He also consistently called those congregations to active ministry outside their sanctuary walls – wherever and to whomever those ministries might lead.

De strongly believed in the critically essential role of prophetic ministry. He courageously advocated for the racially, socially, and economically marginalized. He challenged and confronted systems and structures, speaking truth to institutional power – even with his own beloved United Methodist Church. De affirmed the sacred worth and inherent dignity of every human being.

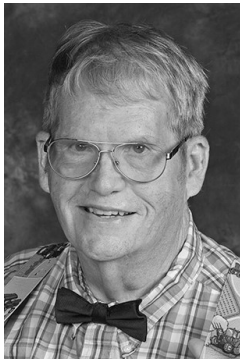

His faith journey was deeply enriched by listening to and learning from the life experiences of others. Whether he was serving the local church or serving on many church, college, and community committees, boards, and agencies, De approached life with great passion and intensity – just as he did on the tennis court until his late 80's!

Above all, De Canaday dedicated his soul to loving the gracious God whom he felt was continually calling God's people into a hopeful future of opportunities for ministry. De was always seeking to discern the new things God was doing in his midst. He sought with all his energy to respond joyfully in active ministry to that ongoing Call.

~ Bill Canaday, son

JOHN SCOTT CLONINGER SR.

November 4, 1952 – September 29, 2020

The Reverend John Scott Cloninger Sr., 67, passed away at his home in York, SC September 29, 2020. He was a son of the late Jimmy and Helen Cloninger of Great Falls, SC. His brother, James "Mack" Cloninger, preceded him in death.

His wife, Reverend Nellie Cloninger; sons, John Scott Cloninger (daughter-in-law Beth), Franklin Cloninger (daughter-in-law Natalie); daughter, Patricia Cloninger, and five grandchildren survived him.

The Reverend Scott Cloninger attended Great Falls High School, Clemson University, and Wingate College. He received his Master of Divinity from Duke University.

As a pastor, Scott was received into the SC Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church on trial in 1981, and appointed to attend Duke Seminary.

He served the United Methodist Church for many years in many places across South Carolina, serving the following churches.

- Tranquil-Center Charge, Mullins, SC, becoming an Ordained Elder in 1984
- Poplar-Antioch-Salem Charge, Conway, SC
- Surfside United Methodist Church Associate Pastor, Surfside, SC
- Mt. Pleasant United Methodist Church, Blythewood, SC
- Hendersonville Charge, Walterboro, SC, Co-Pastor with his wife, Nellie
- Mt. Lebanon-Kinards Charge, Greenwood, SC
- Union Grove United Methodist Church, Belton/Anderson, SC
- Heath Springs Charge, Heath Springs, SC
- St. Luke-Zion United Methodist Church, Walhalla, SC
- Liberty United Methodist Church, Liberty, SC
- He retired in 2012 after many years of faithful service to the church.

Scott loved to sing God's praise, serving in many church choirs as well as the SCUMC Clergy Choir. In addition, to his service as a pulpit minister, Scott also served with the United Methodist Conference Youth Ministries assisting with Leadership Week and Youth Annual Conference where he spent much time running the canteen and as a group counselor. Scott also served with the Kairos Prison ministry.

Scott was a sports enthusiast and avid gardener. After attending Clemson University, he was a steadfast Clemson fan and enjoyed going to games of all kinds there. Growing up on a farm in Blackstock, SC, he enjoyed immersing himself in the country life wherever he served and felt at home in his garden.

As a husband, Scott highly valued his covenant relationship between himself, God and Nellie. Taking the tiny love between Nellie and himself, he nurtured this love into the amazing love that lasted more than 40 years. As a father, Scott was the biggest fan of his children, supporting them loudly and proudly in every endeavor they took on. He was a master of providing gentle guidance, helping to counsel and care for them wherever we were. As a grandfather, he took a lot of delight in his grandchildren. His silly nature brought lots of joy to both he and the grandchildren. He was built with shoulders for crying on and arms for giving the best hugs.

Scott, more than anything, loved people. As a pastor he loved the people in his congregation, as a person he loved the people around him of all backgrounds and personalities. He could converse with almost anyone and was the embodiment of love and care.

WILLIE FURMAN DICKS, JR.

November 12, 1949 – November 27, 2020

Chaplain Major (Ret) Willie Furman Dicks, Jr. departed this earthly life on Friday, November 27, 2020, in Sumter, South Carolina. He was born on November 12, 1949, in Sumter, to Mrs. Addell Singleton Dicks and the late Willie F. Dicks, Sr. Chaplain Dicks was baptized, confirmed and raised as a member of Emmanuel United Methodist Church, his family's home church for generations, in Sumter.

He graduated from Lincoln High School in Sumter, South Carolina in 1967. In 1971, he earned a Bachelor of Science in Biology and Chemistry from Claflin University, Orangeburg, South Carolina. While at Claflin, Willie was inducted into Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Incorporated.

In 1976, he was licensed to preach by the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church. He graduated in 1979 with a Master of Divinity degree from the Interdenominational Theological Center and Gammon Theological Seminary, Atlanta, Georgia. While in seminary, he served several churches in the North Georgia Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church.

After graduating from seminary, he served as pastor of St. James United Methodist Church in Sumter and pastor of the Marion Parish (Bethel, Springville, and Pleasantville United Methodist Churches) in Marion, South Carolina, until his April 8, 1985 appointment to serve as a Chaplain in the United States Air Force.

His assignments as an Air Force Chaplain were as follows: Lowry Air Force Base (AFB), Denver Colorado; Osan AFB, Republic of South Korea; Carswell AFB, Fort Worth, Texas; Walter Reed Medical Center, Washington, District of Columbia; Scott AFB, Belleville, Illinois; Charleston AFB, Charleston, South Carolina; Shaw AFB, Sumter, South Carolina; and his final assignment, Langley AFB, Hampton, Virginia. He retired from the Air Force after twenty years of honorable service on April 1, 2005.

Rev. Dicks returned to the South Carolina Annual Conference and served as pastor of Oro United Methodist Church in Pageland, South Carolina, New Hope United Methodist Church in Ridgeville, South Carolina, St. Paul United Methodist Church in Ravenel, South Carolina, and St. Matthews United Methodist Church and Emmanuel United Methodist Church, both in Camden, South Carolina. Rev. Dicks retired in June 2020 as an Elder with forty-three years of service. He had an infectious personality, and a singing voice that graced and touched many lives throughout his ministry. His special love for his family and friends was priceless.

He leaves to honor and cherish precious memories his wife, Kechia Crump McSwain Dicks of the home; daughters Melissa Evette Dicks of Charlotte, North Carolina, and Adriene Monique Dicks of Atlanta, Georgia; a loving 96-year-old mother Addell Singleton Dicks of Columbia, South Carolina; a brother Rev. John (Beverly) Dicks, Sr. and their four children; an uncle Woodrow (Shirley) Singleton; and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

EDGAR HERBERTON ELLIS, JR.

July 20, 1935 – July 18, 2020

A funeral service for Rev. Dr. Edgar H. Ellis Jr., 84, was held at 10:00 a.m. Tuesday, July 28, 2020 at Dunbar Funeral Home, Devine Street Chapel, with burial in Fort Jackson National Cemetery. The family received friends immediately following the service. All were invited to join a live-streaming of the service on Dunbar Funeral Home Devine's Facebook page at 9:55 a.m.

Ed died Saturday, July 18, 2020. One of eight children, Ed was the son of Edgar Herberton Ellis and Grace Collins Ellis, born in Columbia on July 20, 1935.

Ed was a United Methodist minister for 41 years in the South Carolina conference, serving churches in Laurel Bay Island (1967), Bethel Spartanburg as Associate Pastor & Youth Director (1968-71), Triune Greenville (1971-73), Simpsonville (1973-79), Woodland Rock Hill (1979-86), First Bennettsville (1986-89), Bethany Summerville (1989-93), and First Cayce (1993-98).

Ed graduated from Edmund's High School in Sumter in 1954, Spartanburg Methodist College in 1956 and St. Andrews University in 1965 with a B.A. He received his Master of Theology from Duke University in 1967 and his Doctorate in Ministries from McCormick Theological Seminary in Chicago in 1986. Ed served in the Air Force from 1957 to 1958, running the tech library and achieved the rank of First lieutenant. He was active in his local communities, serving on the Board of Spartanburg Methodist College for 10 years, the governing board of Rotary International and as president of the Simpsonville Rotary Club. He was a board member and former chaplain of the Spartanburg Civitan Club and awarded the Distinguished Service Award for contributions to the Civitan Handicapped workshop, which allowed physically and mentally handicapped to learn basic skills to grow towards self-sufficiency personally and financially.

Ed's love of roses lead him to not only grow award winning roses but to serve as President of the Greenville Rose Society, a member of the American Rose Society, where he served as a judge from 1974 to 1987 and to write a book, "Growing Roses can be Fun."

Dr. Ellis was awarded the SC Order of the Palmetto in 1992 by Governor Carol Campbell for his humanitarian work following the aftermath of Hurricane Hugo in Summerville. He was also honored by Spartanburg Methodist College for his many contributions, when in 2012 they named the first "Green" educational building in South Carolina, Ellis Hall, in his honor.

Ed was predeceased by his first wife of 40 years, in 1996, Iris Loraine Clardy, who he met at Spartanburg Methodist College and his daughter, Patricia Loraine Ellis, in 1999. Both of which succumbed to cancer. He was also predeceased by his sisters: Loretta Grace Ellis, Rose Marilyn Ellis, and brothers, Leroy Frank Ellis, George Ellis, and Clarence Melton Ellis.

Dr. Ellis is survived by his wife, Dr. Charlotte Lindler Ellis, a retired pediatrician with Pediatric Associates in Columbia; brother-in-law, Claude Lindler; sister-in-law, Jeanne S. Lindler; sister, Marcia Jean Hanna (Jerry); brother, Hugh Benjamin Ellis; nephew, Jessen Lindler; nieces, Keller and Greta Lindler; and nieces and nephew in Canada, Lisa Pratt, Rosemary Pratt and Jonathin Pratt.

Special thanks to caregiver Marvin Goodly, Dr. Brad Word and his nurse Teresa.

JOHN LAW EPPS, JR.

June 30, 1939 – June 24, 2020

Born in Newberry, John attended college at the Citadel, then the Perkins School of Theology where he attained a PhD in systematic theology.

John lived out his passion for disclosing the wonder and mystery of everyday life through a number of roles and locations. In 1964 after marrying Ann Stanley, he served as pastor in the Greenwood District. Subsequently, the South Carolina Conference assigned him to the Ecumenical Institute, Chicago. Through that assignment, John and Ann lived and worked in a variety of locations, including a distressed neighborhood in Chicago, and Malaysia as the Regional Director of village development, Southeast Asia. During this time, John also taught facilitative leadership methods to business and government leaders in the region as well as online to University of Maryland graduate students.

An avid reader, John indulged a passion to write, publishing three books, one of which was The Theology of Surprise – Exploring Life's Mysteries and editing two volumes of speeches by the Ecumenical Institute founder, Joseph Matthews.

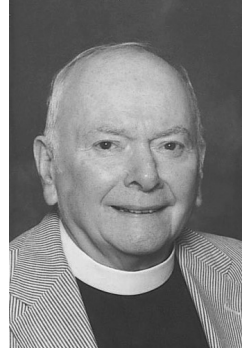

John's love of music led him to pursue re-learning the piano upon retirement in 2016. Practicing daily, he learned Mussorgsky's "The Great Gates of Kiev."

Tributes to John for his work and writings are many. Perhaps this book endorsement for Meanderings, is representative: "John has an ability to look beyond the surface and to dig deeper into the significance and meaning of daily life."

ROBERT AUBURN HALL, JR.

December 31, 1929 – March 1, 2021

Robert (Bob) Auburn Hall, Jr., the son of Robert and Virginia Wilcox Hall, was a native of Spartanburg where he graduated from Spartanburg High School and received a four year scholarship to Wofford College. Upon graduation, he entered the U.S. Army as a lieutenant, serving one of his two years on the front lines in Korea. After service, Bob began graduate study at UNC Chapel Hill and attended the University of Sorbonne, Paris, France as a Fulbright Scholar, followed by a professorship in French at Eckerd College in St. Petersburg, Florida. He was the lay leader in his local church there and at the age of thirty-nine, Bob entered divinity school at Vanderbilt University with plans to join the SC Conference. His first appointment was at Fort Mill, followed by others in James Island, Pageland, Cowpens, and Greer. Greenville became Bob's home after retirement, where he then served Buncombe Street part-time as Parish Minister. Bob passed away on March 1, 2021 in Greenville. A service was held at Buncombe Street UMC on March 18 with interment at Sharon UMC, Greer.

Not only did Bob have a scholarly approach to preaching, in that he incorporated his teaching skills in his sermons, he also had a genuine affection for his congregants. He thoroughly enjoyed their fellowship and he was always available in their time of need. One of his more satisfying civic duties was as Guardian Ad Litem.

Bob is survived by his brother Charles F. Hall (Lynda) of Charlotte, N.C and sister Helen H. Fridy (James) of Clemmons, N.C. and numerous nieces and nephews.

JOHN WESLEY HIPPI

March 25, 1953 – October 27, 2020

The Reverend John Wesley Hipp, husband of 45 years to Carol Ferguson Hipp, passed away Tuesday, October 27, 2020. Born in York, SC to the late James Voight and Anne Barnett Hipp, he attended Spartanburg Methodist Junior College and graduated from Wofford College in 1975. He received his Masters of Divinity at Chandler School of Theology, Emory University.

John served the SC Conference in the following churches: St. Johns- Aiken, Wagener UMC- Wagener, Adnah- Rock Hill, St. Paul - Saluda, Chapin UMC- Chapin, First Church- Conway, and Bethel UMC- Charleston. During the last 8 years of his ministry, he served as District Superintendent of both the Orangeburg and Florence Districts. In 2018, he was named Pastor Emeritus of Bethel UMC. John was also on numerous boards, committees, and councils, most recently, The Board of Trustees at Wofford College.

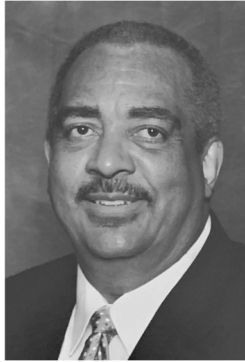

In 1981, he was called as a Chaplain in the Army National Guard. For 28 years, he ministered to countless men and women. He served on Active Duty from February 2003-May 2004 in Homeland Security. In 2004, he was promoted to State Chaplain of the SC National Guard until his retirement as a Lt. Col. in December 2008.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by his daughter, Stephanie Anne King (Jim) of Charleston and son, Benjamin Wesley Hipp (Beth), of Pawley's Island. He had 4 precious grandchildren, James and Connor King, and Taves and Arden Hipp.

WILLIAM ALFORD JONES

January 9, 1940 – January 24, 2021

On January 9, 1940, the late Mr. and Mrs. Willie A Jones welcomed their sixth child. They named him Willie Jr. He was the baby among his siblings: Teretha, Cleveland, Cora M, Eunice, and Hazel. The family resided in Marion County. His parents and friends called him "Bill". His parents were lifelong members of St. Phillips United Methodist Church. Bill was a member along with his parents and siblings. Rev. William Alford Jones was 81 and departed this life Sunday, January 24, 2021, in Marion County.

Bill grew up and attended the public schools of Marion County. After graduating from Marion County Training School (Johnakin Middle School), he matriculated at South Carolina State College (SC State University) in Orangeburg, South Carolina. There he earned his Bachelor's and Master's Degrees in Education.

After completing his college studies, Bill was employed as an Agriculture teacher in Allendale South Carolina. He taught there for five years, then was employed at Gibbs High School in Pamplico as an Agriculture teacher. When that program was consolidated, he was employed as a science teacher in Florence School District One. He accepted the opportunity to become employed as an Agriculture Agent with the Clemson Extension Service in Marion County. He retired from the Extension Service as County Director of Georgetown, Horry, and Marion Counties after twenty three years of dedicated service. He dedicated many days of hard work and patience to every job he had.

During his first year of employment, Bill met and married the former Jeanette C. Hall. To this union, their one and only child was born, Patrick Alford Jones. The three were inseparable throughout Patrick's formative years. Their bond remained up to the present.

Surviving are: His soulmate, Jeanette of their home, his son Patrick (Elizabeth) of Austin, Texas, grandchildren: Chandler William, Carson Patrick, and Carmen Elise Jones; Godchildren: Diane G. Williams, Josiah Smith. His nieces: Valerie, Zenobia, Pamela, Brenita, Rita, Artney; nephews: Reggie, Martin, Anthony, Buddy; Special Cousin Marsden Owens and other great nieces and nephews.

Included in the many organizations and Christian involvement: Man of the Year Award; First AA President of the SCCEA Agents, First AA Chair Marion School District #1, First AA Chair Pee Dee Federal Board of Directors, First AA United Methodist District Lay Leader, Worshipful Master Joppa Hill Lodge #176. He was a 33rd Degree Prince Hall Free and Accepted Mason, Past potentate, Bejilah Temple #163 and Past CIC of McDonald Consistory.

He served in every local church leadership position at St. Phillips United Methodist Church and St. Stephens United Methodist Church.

God called him into the ministry after his professional career retirement and he was blessed to pastor at St. Michael UMC and the Marion Parish. Serving others gave him great joy.

Rev. Jones always provided well for his family and friends. He loved the outdoors and did beautiful landscaping around his home and kept the family farmland groomed. May his soul rest with the Creator of heaven and earth.

The family of Rev. William Alford Jones in consideration of the current health crisis facing our world, nation, state, and the local community, has decided to hold a private 50 people or less, family only, funeral service for their loved one with private interment immediately following. While the Jones family would love to be surrounded by your presence, they acknowledge the health risks to family, church members, friends, and particularly to those who are most vulnerable to this disease, the elderly, and those with chronic health conditions. What the family needs most at this time are your prayers and understanding. Thank you for your concern and cooperation.

STEPHEN RAY JORDAN

August 6, 1951 – January 1, 2021

Stephen Ray Jordan was born in Asheboro, NC August 6, 1951, to Ray and Lucille Jordan. Steve graduated from Asheboro High School in 1969.

Steve graduated from Southern Wesleyan College in 1973 and attended Asbury Theological Seminary in 1976. He attended Duke University Theological Seminary from 1988 to 1989. Steve served in the Wesleyan Church from 1976-1986. He transferred as an elder to the South Carolina Annual Conference in 1986 and served as assistant and Pastor until his retirement in 2016.

He served many communities in South Carolina, known by many as Preacher Steve. He counseled many families in their time of need and frequented nursing homes to visit his oldest members. He spent his life in the service of the Lord, with unwavering faith. His voice filled the sanctuary with singing and praise. Through song, his ministry was at its strongest, stirring the spirit within those around, and with a clap of the closing hymnal, he would deliver a sermon straight from the heart.

He left it all on the field. Unlockable from the 3-point line, and dangerous in the paint. He displayed precision, which once dropped a hole in one during tournament play, and focus which once took him headlong into the outfield fence.

Steve was a loving husband and a caring, compassionate father. His forgiveness knew no bounds. His lessons in life were of the power of faith, of our duty to community, and to live a life that honors God.

HAPPY WILLIAM LOUIS LONG

July 29, 1939 – January 18, 2021

Happy was born in Kingstree, SC. He received his BA from the University of SC, and Master of Divinity from Perkins School of Theology, SMU. As a UMC Elder, Happy answered his call to serve the elderly and to be their advocate.

While at SMU, he worked at the Methodist Home, and as assistant administrator for Golden Acres Jewish Home for the Aging in Dallas Texas. His ministry to Holocaust survivors was recognized by B'nai B'rith. After graduation he was chosen to pilot an intercity program for the aging in Minneapolis MN. It was here that Happy was ran into a tree during an ice storm, crushing his right sciatic nerve and hip and breaking both legs. Happy decided he could walk and insisted that his bones were set to walk, which he did after months of terrible pain and therapy.

He realized his desire to be a chaplain by graduating from the chaplaincy program at Baptist Hospital in Columbia, SC. Moving to PA, he served HCR ManorCare as one of two national lead Chaplains. Happy considered being a chaplain for the PA State Police his greatest blessing. He retired with his wife, Valerie, to San Antonio to be near her family.

Happy's deep faith in and love of God is seen in his gift of fortitude by working and walking despite a lifetime of considerable pain; and in his compassion for those he served. He was known for his gifts as administrator and facilitator. He was also a faithful husband and a friend to many.

FORREST DAVID MILLS

January 12, 1941 – August 4, 2020

Chaplain Forrest David "Dave" Mills, loving husband, wonderful father, caring granddad, dedicated servant, and accomplished global traveler died peacefully on Tuesday, August 4, 2020. Dave was 79 years old and lived in Summerville, South Carolina.

Dave was born in Parkersburg, West Virginia in 1941. He was an enlisted airman from 1962-1965 in the U.S. Air Force. He served for 3.5 years before leaving to start college courses and answer God's call to join his ministry.

Dave married his true love, Sandy in 1967. Dave graduated from Morningside College in Iowa, and then completed seminary at St. Paul's Seminary in Missouri in 1973. Dave was ordained in the United Methodist Church in Iowa.

He re-entered the U.S. Air Force as a Chaplain in 1977. Dave served for 24 years before retiring in 1997. Dave then returned to South Carolina where he served the United Methodist Church for another 10 years.

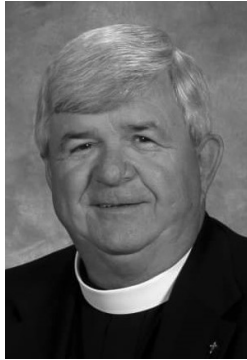

Dave retired in 2007 to be able to enjoy travel with Sandy, and to spend time with their 2 children and 8 beautiful grandchildren. Dave and Sandy's loving marriage lasted for 53 years. He was a loving and faithful husband, caring and supportive father, kind and fun-loving granddad, a dedicated servant to God, and a compassionate man who sought to help others in need.

Dave's innate ability to connect with people allowed him to positively touch and impact their lives. His family, friends, and all the people whose life he touched along the way will deeply miss Dave.

WILLIAM TERRY MITCHELL

November 14, 1946 – February 8, 2021

Terry entered into the ministry late in life and was his happiest while in the pulpit. He loved ministering to the congregations that he served in Greenville, Pelzer/Beulah, Union, Honea Path/Donalds and Starr/Hebron. He retired after serving Honea Path/Donalds but missed preaching so much he took the charge of Starr/Hebron when it came open.

Terry also loved to sing and recorded a CD with his son and sang at church and social gatherings in the community. While in Union, Terry had a radio broadcast on the local radio station and did a short devotional every Sunday morning. Terry was very active in the communities that he served in by volunteering for Relay for Life along with other activities. He had the gift of never meeting a stranger and once you met him, you loved him. Terry loved to camp and fish when he was not preaching.

Terry will be greatly missed by his wife (Rita), sons (Chris, Mark, Greg) and daughter (Daisy). 10 grandchildren, who loved their Papa dearly, also survive him.

Revelation 3:8 I know your works. See, I have set before you an open door, and no one can shut it; for you have a little strength, have kept My word, and have not denied My name.

ARTHUR WESLEY MURPHY

October 7, 1942 – December 19, 2020

Rev. Wesley Murphy, husband of the late Sherry Prater Murphy passed away, December 19, 2020 at his home.

A native of Oconee County, SC, Rev. Murphy was the son of the late Carl Lecurgus and Parilee Tolar Murphy. He was a beloved coach and teacher early in his career. Later, he was called into the ministry where he served many churches in his 20 years. He was a former minister of St. Luke United Methodist Church where he was currently a member. He was an extraordinary husband, father, son, grandfather, and friend who loved Christ.

Rev. Murphy is survived by his daughters: Ashli Johnson (John), Christi Williams, and Chanda Knappek (Kurt); brother: Emory Murphy (Joyce); sister: Caren Blair (Alton); and grandchildren: Tori Johnson, Will Henry, Grace Williams, Eric Williams, Tristan Pye, Trevor Pye, and Kyle Knappek.

In addition to his wife and parents, Rev. Murphy was preceded in death by two grandchildren: Michael Murphy Williams and Timothy Brian Williams; son-in-law: Michael Jonathan Williams; brothers, Thomas Lee Murphy and Jessie Gordon Murphy.

THOMAS JEFFERSON PEARSON, JR.

July 4, 1951 – May 6, 2021

Reverend Thomas J. Pearson, Jr., age 69, lovingly known as "Jeff", departed this earthly life and began his eternal life on Thursday May 6, 2021 at 3:37 a.m. at The Regional Medical Center in Orangeburg, South Carolina. He was born in Bennettsville, South Carolina on July 4, 1951, the oldest of four children to Minnie Lee Ervin Pearson and the late Thomas J. Pearson, Sr.

While growing up in Bennettsville, Jeff joined Smyrna United Methodist Church and became part of the Willing Workers Children's Group, the Youth group, Youth Sunday School classes and the Junior Choir.

As an honor student at Adamsville High School in McColl, South Carolina, Thomas was a loved and respected student leader. He participated in an oratorical contest and won with a rendition of "Let My People Go". Having joined the school band in fourth grade, he enjoyed playing piano, guitar, and trombone. Following graduation in 1969, Jeff entered Claflin University and earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Music Education. He then accepted an opportunity to serve as band director of Laurinburg Institute in Laurinburg, North Carolina.

Inspired by God, Thomas accepted the call to ministry and matriculated to Gammon Theological Seminar at the Interdenominational Theological Center in Atlanta, Georgia, where he received a Master of Divinity degree in Christian Education.

Thomas became an Elder in the South Carolina Annual Conference and served as pastor of the Greenville Charge (Laurel Creek and Bethlehem UMC), from 1991 to 1997. Afterwards, he served the North Charge, Orangeburg District, pastoring at St. Mark UMC from 1998 to 2012.

During this time, Reverend Pearson served on various boards and committees at the State and District levels: The Board of Camps & Retreat Ministry, the Commission on Communications, the Committee on Investigations, the Bishop's Task Force against Gambling, the District Committee on District Superintendency, the District Council on Ministries, the Committee on Standing Rules, the Committee on Nominations, the District Committee on Ordained Ministry, the District Trustees, and the Committee on Lay Speaking.

While pastoring in North, South Carolina, Reverend Pearson served on the Board of Visitors at First Citizens Bank in North and Orangeburg, Chairperson of the School Improvement Council at North High School, Secretary of North Edisto Lodge #18, President of North Branch NAACP, and a member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity.

At the South Carolina Conference of 2012, Reverend Pearson was assigned as District Superintendent of the Walterboro District United Methodist Church, consisting of ninety-six churches in eleven counties. He received an award for the Walterboro District having the highest apportionment percentage over a five-year period. Reverend Pearson often recited Psalm 133:1, "How good and pleasant it is when brothers live together in unity!" "What a beautiful world this would be if we all lived together in unity! Hallelujah!"

Thomas leaves cherished memories and an unconditional loving bond with his devoted wife, Luretheia M. Pearson of the home; four children Traci Samuel (Clarence, Jr.), Columbia SC, Thomas Pearson, III, Mullins, SC, James Eric Pearson, Myrtle Beach SC, and Marcia Parks, Dallas, GA; five grandchildren, Shakemma Pearson, Jordan Pearson, Clarence Samuel, III, Caylen Samuel, and Kristian Parks; one great-granddaughter, Nyla Ford; his loving mother, Minnie Lee Pearson, Bennettsville, SC; three siblings, Dr. Carolyn P. Jenkins, Columbia SC, Diane P. Quick (Carl, Sr.), Bennettsville, SC and Ervin J. Pearson, Bennettsville, SC; two aunts, Odessa Wardlaw, Kearnesville, NC, Willie Ruth Ervin, High Point, NC; one uncle, Evans Ervin, High Point, NC; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. He is also survived by Jean Pearson, mother of Traci, Thomas III and Eric.

EUGENE KING SCOGGINS

December 13, 1922 – November 15, 2020

The Rev. E. King Scoggins, 97, husband of the late Sarah Burnette Dennis, entered into rest on Sunday, November 15, 2020. Born December 13, 1922, in Murrells Inlet, SC, he was the youngest son of the late Rev. Emmett Francis Scoggins and the late Cora Bell Lupo.

He attended school in the towns where his father was serving as a minister. He graduated from Cheraw High School. After high school, he received an AB degree from Wofford College while majoring in English. He graduated from Duke University Divinity School with a Master's Degree in religion. While at Duke University, he served as the school's mascot, "The Duke Blue Devil."

He served as a Minister of the South Carolina Methodist Conference for 39 years. He served as pastor of the Methodist Churches in Nichols, North Myrtle Beach, Emma Gray Memorial, Woodruff, Kingstree, Bishopville, Walterboro, and Batesburg. He retired from the ministry in 1985 and moved to Bishopville.

He is survived by nieces, Alice Scoggins Scott of Conyers, GA; and Nancy Scoggins Floyd of Spartanburg, SC.; and by nephews, Bates L. Scoggins, Jr. (Pat), and Carrol E. Scoggins of Spartanburg, SC; John E. Vaughan (Joyce) of Sulphur, LA, Gregg S. Vaughan (Deloris) of Summerville, SC; Neil D. Vaughan (Emily), Michael E. Vaughan (Linda), and Steven F. Vaughan of Charleston, SC; and Maurice McDaniel, Jr., of Atlanta, GA. He is also survived by a number of great-nieces and great-nephews. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his first wife, Claire Lathem Scoggins, his second wife, Sarah Brunette Dennis Scoggins, and by all of his six brothers and sisters.

GARLAND LOYAL SMITH, JR.

October 25, 1942 – January 11, 2021

Garland Smith served the Fairfax Charge in the Walterboro District for twelve years (1994-2006) before retiring in 2006.

RANCE PELHAM SPRAYBERRY

June 11, 1933 – November 21, 2020

There is one word to describe Rev. Sprayberry's life, service: service to the Lord and service to others. Rance was born in the small town of LaGrange, Georgia to his mother and an abusive, alcoholic father. Soon, a single mother who maintained a fulltime job at the textile mill near their house was raising him and his two brothers.

Rance was active in MYF as a member and president as well as achieving his Eagle Scout rank. After graduating high school, Rance thought about going into the ministry, but the Lord said it wasn't quite time.

Rance earned a bachelors' degree in business administration from LaGrange College and pursued his Master's at the University of Georgia. Rance had a long career working with the Boy Scouts, State of Georgia as a Vocational Rehab Counselor, an Industrial Relations Manager at various mills and eventually a hardware store owner. All during his career, Rance remained active in the church as a lay speaker, lay leader, bible study leader and Sunday school teacher.

In his community, Rance was a Boy Scout leader as well as a member of the Hogansville library board and for a time Chair of the board. In 1996, God decided it was time. Rance became a part time local pastor while studying at Emory University School of Divinity. Rance served churches in the North Georgia conference and South Carolina Conference.

Rance is missed by his family and those he touched during his life.

THOMAS SHADRACH SUMMERS, JR.

December 8, 1938 – July 22, 2020

Born in Orangeburg SC on December 8, 1938, Tom was the son of the late Thomas Shadrach Summers, Sr. and Kitty Way Griffith Summers. Tom attended Palmer College for business in Charleston, SC, received his Seminary Degree from Southern Methodist in Orangeburg and attended Claflin University.

He recently retired from pastoring the Blackville United Methodist Church in Blackville, SC and Williston United Methodist Church in Williston, SC. He previously pastored churches in Cameron, Holly Hill, Sumter, Bamberg, and Ehrhardt.

Tom was an avid golfer, fisherman, and an artist. His parents and his dear devoted wife Annie Holmes Summers preceded him in death. Survivors are his beloved sister and her husband of Orangeburg, Sylvia S. Boone and Louis C. Boone. His cherished children, Thomas S. "Tom" Summers, III (Diana) from Ridgeland, Kimberly Anne S. Lupori (Scott) of Sumter, Timothy Luke Summers of Williston, and Paul Douglass Summers (Sandy) of Virginia. His grandchildren, Kathryn Tess Fowler (Forrest), Mark Lupori, Christian Summers, Angel Rodgers, and Jeremy Tuten (Jordan).

Our father will always be known for his loving heart, his kind words, his love for Christ, his laughter, and gentle soul. Rest in peace daddy, we love you.

CHARLES PORTER TEAGUE

May 6, 1975 – January 5, 2021

Our community lost a man of great faith and integrity on January 5, 2021 when Dr. Charles Teague, 75, passed away. Dr. Teague attended Brevard College, High Point College, and Emory University, ultimately earning a Doctorate of Divinity.

Dr. Teague served in roles ranging from chaplain and professor to Dean, Vice President, and President throughout his career at High Point College, Brevard College, and Spartanburg Methodist College. A former SMC Trustee stated that he made those who worked with him “proud of a job not just well done, but done with humility, professionalism, passion and a calling to do God’s work in ministry.”

Dr. Teague’s accomplishments were many, yet every decision he made reflected his high moral character. His kind, thoughtful, and sensitive leadership inspired everyone he met to be the best version of him/herself. By placing the needs of students, faculty and staff first, Dr. Teague empowered others to find their passion and pursue it.

Charlie found a home at Central United Methodist Church where he was encouraged to grow in his faith, serve others, and fellowship in a community that embraced all of God’s children.

When expecting his first granddaughter, Charlie stated, “I hope she will learn compassion and that love is not something to take lightly, that she will come to know who she is and give herself to what she’s passionate about.” He can rest well, as he has certainly taught these lessons to both of his granddaughters, and to many, many others.

GEORGE WILLIAM WATSON, SR.

August 25, 1933 – February 16, 2021

Rev. Dr. George William Watson, Sr. was born in Aiken, South Carolina on August 25, 1933. He entered into eternal rest on Tuesday, February 16, 2021. He attended Mather Academy, a private boarding school in Camden, South Carolina, for his formative education.

George married his forever love of sixty-five years Adell Wilson Watson on August 16, 1955 in New York City. He later attended Claflin University in Orangeburg, South Carolina where he joined Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. and graduated Magna Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Arts in Religion and Philosophy in 1961. In 1966, he graduated Magna Cum Laude from the Gammon Theological Seminary in Atlanta, Georgia with his Master of Divinity degree. To compliment his degree in Divinity, George earned a certificate from Edinburgh University in Scotland in 1974. He holds an Honorary Doctor of Divinity degree from Claflin University.

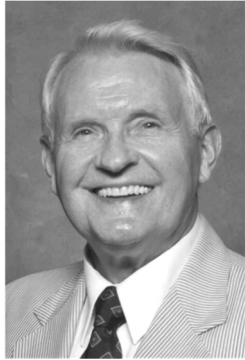

Once completing his education, George began his professional roles in the United Methodist Church throughout congregations in South Carolina. He served as the pastor of St. Mark United Methodist Church and Antioch/Shepherd United Methodist Church in Sumter; Bethel United Methodist Church in Marion; Old Bethel United Methodist Church in Charleston; and Trinity United Methodist Church in Orangeburg.

In addition to his pastoral roles, George also served as the Chaplain for the College of Charleston, the Medical University of South Carolina, South Carolina State University, and the District Superintendent of Florence District and Spartanburg District.

THOMAS McKENDRE WILLIAMS, JR.

January 14, 1930 – August 18, 2020

Chaplain, Lt. Col. Thomas M. Williams was born in Charleston, SC, graduated from Charleston High School, Wofford College and Duke Divinity School. After serving the United Methodist Church in Lynchburg, SC, he entered the US Air Force as a chaplain where he served for 20 years. While on active duty, he was assigned to bases in Utah, Mississippi, Texas, England, Germany and Labrador.

Much of his ministry was with students in technical training and at medical centers. For two years, he was assigned to The Institute of Religion and Human Development at the Texas Medical Center in Houston for training in Clinical Pastoral Education.

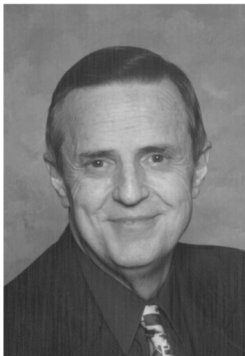

In 1975, he retired from the air force and returned to SC to take a position with the SC Dept. of Mental Health at Morris Village, a drug and alcoholism treatment center. There he was Clinical Chaplain and supervisor of Clinical Pastoral Education, later becoming Chief of Program Development and Training until he retired in 1994. He was a member of Trinity UMC in Blythewood where he served in many capacities. After retirement, he delivered Meals on Wheels and worked at the soup kitchen at Washington Street UMC.

During his life, he was always a humble, compassionate servant and a loving husband, father and grandfather. In 2014, he and his wife moved to Wildewood Downs Retirement Community. He is laid to rest at Ft. Jackson National Cemetery.

NEEDHAM RODGERS WILLIAMSON, SR.

August 18, 1939 – August 31, 2020

The Reverend Needham Williamson was born in Lake City August 18, 1939. He grew up in Kingstree, SC, and felt the call to ministry at about six years of age.

He married Bettine in 1960. They had two sons, Rodger and Lawrence, and six grandchildren.

He received a BA from Wofford in 1961 and his MDiv (cum Laude) from Emory in 1964. Needham served 41 years as a SCUMC Pastor in eleven churches, two years as a District Superintendent. He retired in 2003.

He served on Boards of Trustees for: Columbia College, Epworth Children's Home, Lander University, Habitat for Humanity, and United Way. He coined the name "United Methodist Volunteers in Mission" (UMVIM) and was the First SC Overseas Construction Project Leader, to Haiti.

Needham was a committed minister taking pride in his work while inspiring that same attitude among others. He was well-grounded theologically, encouraging and supportive of laypeople. To Needham, ministry meant having and facilitating "a sense of God's presence and matching gifts with needs, giving back to God what he's given to me and doing what's right and appropriate. I find people where they are, find where a church is, and take them a little higher; in essence, I try to move them more into mission." Through humor, he attempted to shadow the stereotype of ministers not being regular folks. Needham's forte: loving the people, and being a pastor to pastors.

Following his first wife's death in 1996, we married in November 1997 until his passing August 31, 2020. He loved restoring vintage Mustangs, collecting model trains and cars, and was an avid reader.

ROBERT MORRIS WOFFORD

May 3, 1929 – January 2, 2021

Robert Morris Wofford, 91, of Spartanburg, SC died Saturday, January 2, 2021 at his home. Born May 3, 1929 in Inman, SC, he was the son of the late Lewis Edward and Goldie Foster Wofford and husband of 64 years to the late Doris T. Wofford.

A graduate of Wofford College and Emory University where he received his Master of Divinity Degree, Rev. Wofford was an ordained Methodist minister, retired after 60 years of service. He served and was a member of Immanuel United Methodist Church for his last 16 years in the ministry. A special father, his life was a demonstration of being Christ's selfless, honorable, humble, and loving servant.

Survivors include his daughter, Maria Wofford Eubanks (Randall) of Spartanburg, SC; son, John Mark Wofford (George Day Loder of the home and a number of nieces and nephews.

Graveside services were held Thursday, January 7, 2021 in Greenlawn Memorial Gardens, Spartanburg, SC, conducted by The Rev. Will Brown and The Rev. Bill Thompson.

SPOUSES

ELAINE FUNK BELANGIA

December 7, 1942 – October 4, 2020

Elaine Funk Belangia went to be with her Lord and Savior on Sunday, October 4, 2020. Elaine was born December 7, 1942, the only child of the late Donald Funk and Miriam Mims Funk, in Kingstree, SC. As she moved throughout the state as the spouse of a United Methodist minister, she was a supportive wife, loving mother, dedicated teacher, and casserole queen.

A teacher at heart, she shared her passion for learning with SC school students for over 30 years. Elaine could do it all – she could teach a first grader how to read, inspire a ninth grader to appreciate a Shakespearean monologue, or encourage a church youth group broken down beside the road on a mission trip. Even after "retiring," she continued to teach part-time as an adjunct English professor at USC Salkehatchie.

In all, Elaine was privileged to live in nine church parsonages, yet she was thrilled that during the last two decades of her life she was able to remodel a home of her own near St. George, SC, where they had served in their first and last ministerial appointments. During her early retirement years, Elaine enjoyed decorating her new "new" civil-war-era home (without having to seek approval from a church committee), growing and canning vegetables, discussing books with her book club, picking out tunes on the piano, vacationing at the beach with her grandkids, and creating casseroles out of Campbells soup and any available vegetable or meat (a lifelong hobby that some family loved but other beneficiaries dreaded).

She is survived by her husband of 56 years, Wash Belangia of Reevesville, SC; her daughter, Kelli Shrivastava and husband, Sam and children, Ian and Miriam of Mason, Ohio; her son, Webb Belangia and wife, Shannon and children, Grace and Caroline of Mauldin, SC; as well as her adult grandchild, Trey and wife, Dana and daughters, Makinley, Stephanie, and Lilly of Sumter, SC.

Elaine received her MA from Furman University, her BA from Columbia College, and her high school diploma from St Stephen High School. She remained a learner and teacher to the end, spending her last year as a resident in the Memory Care Unit of the Springs Assisted Living Center in Simpsonville, SC, where she continued to mother other residents and bring joy with her lively sense of humor and tales of the past. She was proud to speak of her 1000's of students, her children, and most of all, Wash – her third-grade sweetheart, the love of her life and partner in ministry and service.

A memorial service will be held at a later date.

CATHERINE COX CAVIN

October 31, 1939 – November 25, 2020

Catherine Cox Cavin, 81, passed away November 25, 2020 at her home in Surfside Beach, SC. She is survived by her husband of 62 years, Rev. Donald E. Cavin, children DeLeith Brooks, Sandra Pouncey, Scott Cavin, Wes Cavin, and 17 grandchildren/great-grandchildren.

Catherine actively served in all of the United Methodist churches Don pastored – Albany, GA; Bath; Greenwood (St Mark); Ballentine (Salem); Clover (First); Marion (First); Greenville (Lee Road, Berea Friendship, Arrington Memorial); and Greer (Memorial). She fully supported her husband's call to ministry and her children and grandchildren's many activities, for which she was often personal chauffeur. She loved to use her hands, whether it be cooking, sewing, or crocheting and was an avid fan of the South Carolina Gamecocks.

Catherine served as a Teacher's Aide in Lexington School District 5 from 1970-1975, Secretary for UMC District offices in Greenwood in the 60's and Marion in the 80's, and Executive Secretary for the Louis Rich Corporation from 1975 to 1981. She retired in 2002 from Liberty Life Insurance Company in Greenville.

She was a committed leader in the United Methodist Women (2 terms as President of the Greenville District UMW and multiple roles in the South Carolina UMC Annual Conference UMW). A skilled musician, Catherine served as organist and pianist in multiple churches or organizations and provided private lessons for many over the years. She suffered declining health due to severe strokes and ravages of dementia. But what was weakened late in life has now been restored by Jesus!

PATRICIA ANN MILLER DUNCAN

August 25, 1934 – August 22, 2020

Patricia Duncan was married to Rev. J.C. Duncan for 67 years. She was the mother to three children, the grandmother to four granddaughters and the great-grandmother to ten great grandchildren.

She was the choir director at Lyman United Methodist Church for 62 years. She began playing the piano and organ for LUMC at the age of fifteen.

Pat could light up any room with her contagious smile and laugh. She loved both her family and her church with all her heart. Her legacy continues to live on through the choir members who continue to sing to this day.

She lived her life as a true Christian woman and a disciple of the Lord.

JULIA ANNE GRIFFIN ERVIN

October 30, 1941 – September 27, 2020

Dear Mom,

We want to say thank you. We could not have said it enough if we said it every day. Thank you for giving us life, thank you for always being with us and standing by our side and cheering us on.

You taught us to love and fear God, to be humble and respectful. The sheer strength of your love kept us safe and made the world a wonderful, magical place where anything was possible.

We will never know all the sacrifices you made and all the times you stood in our place to keep us from harm. You were there when we cried and won and lost. Even when we made mistakes, you took our side.

We learned to tell the truth, be kind and never backtalk our elders. We learned to be honest, hardworking, and respectable, and to raise our family in the church. The love you gave your grandchildren was amazing and you made each one feel special.

You showed us how important it was to have a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. When you said you would pray for us, you did, and we felt it.

You were worried when you were about to leave us that your job was not done, that we would not know what we would do without you. Mom, we will be fine because you taught us so well. You were the best mom and best friend to each of us. You were a good and faithful servant - Thank you Mom.

LEE CANTLEY FARMER

June 16, 1932 – September 3, 2020

Born in Williamsburg County, South Carolina, a daughter of Ravenell Dupre Cantley and Minnie Grier Williams Cantley, Lee grew up on a farm in the 1930's and 40's, well accustomed to a way of life which would prepare her to be a diligent, tireless, and capable worker throughout her years, until that villainous thief Dementia robbed her of her abilities, but could not take away the beauty of her soul.

Lee grew to be a beautiful Southern Lady. Her calling in life was to be the wife of a Methodist pastor. In the little Elim Methodist Church, where her father and mother first met, Lee first met, and captured the heart and soul of a young Methodist pastor, Zach Farmer. They were married in 1962, and began their life's journey together at Jamestown in the Hellhole Region of Berkeley County, where their only child – Mary Branham (John) – was born. Over the ensuing years, they were privileged to serve 25 churches together.

In addition to serving as her husband's secretary, she worked in various administrative positions wherever they lived. For sixteen years, she served as administrative assistant to the district superintendents of the Walterboro and Orangeburg Districts of the S.C. United Methodist Conference.

It was not the accomplishments of her keen intellect, nor the skillful work of her hands, nor the tireless attention to duty, that tells the true story of the woman. The majesty of her life is to be found in the quiet and virtuous grace of her gentle spirit and presence, which was a light unto the pathway of countless souls, leading them straight to God. The greatness of her heart, the beauty of her blameless life, her ever kind and generous spirit, elicited such a natural attraction that everyone who knew her loved her.

God gave Lee 88 years to be an exemplar of Christ-likeness in a woman; always giving her very self and gifts and labors for someone else, never for Lee. She loved everyone – but most of all, for 58 years she loved a man who loved her greater than any man ever loved a woman.

MARSHA LOMINACK LEE

March 13, 1946 – January 28, 2021

Marsha Lominack Lee was born March 13, 1946, in Newberry, SC. Her parents were the late Erlene Wheeler Lominack and Edward Kirby Lominack, Sr.

Mrs. Lee graduated from Newberry High School and Columbia College. She received her master's degree from Middle Tennessee State University. She worked as a teacher for thirty years in Charleston, SC, Chattanooga, TN, Murfreesboro, TN, Columbia, SC and Irmo, SC. She retired from teaching in 2000.

Mrs. Lee was a longtime member of United Methodist Churches, where she volunteered in various positions. She was also a member of Sunday School Classes, and the United Methodist Women. For the last ten years she was a member of Memorial UMC in Greer, where, among other things, she was a church greeter par excellence. In addition to her voluntary work at Memorial, for several years she and her sister had a "Book Bag" ministry for homeless persons.

Mrs. Lee enjoyed yard work, photography, reading, and visiting grandchildren. She and her husband, the Rev. Dennis R. Lee, whom she married in 1999, traveled extensively both before and after retiring, including trips to Australia, New Zealand, England, Ireland, Scotland and many states in the US.

Mrs. Lee died January 28, 2021. Survivors include her husband; a son, Christopher K. McClure; two stepdaughters, Christy L. Sharp and Susan L. Balsinger; a brother Edward K. Lominack, Jr., MD; a sister Karen L. Moose; and seven grandchildren.

A memorial service and celebration of life was held at Memorial UMC, Greer, on Sunday, February 7. A graveside service was held at Rosemont Cemetery in Newberry, SC, on Saturday, March 13.

BETTY SUE FRAZIER NEWTON

February 17, 1935 – September 3, 2020

Mrs. Betty Sue Frazier Newton passed away Thursday, September 3, 2020 at McLeod Hospice House in Florence, SC. She was 85 years old.

Mrs. Betty was born on February 17, 1935 in Statesville, NC, to the late Lonnie and Margaret Lelia Lentz Frazier. She was a member of First United Methodist Church in Bennettsville. Mrs. Betty served as a schoolteacher of 42 years, pastor's wife, and mother all across South Carolina, beginning in Darlington and ending in Conway. While teaching, her focus was primarily students with disabilities. She was Teacher of the Year in the local schools, and active in church, developing programs for children's activities. Upon retirement, she and her husband, Leon Newton, resided at the family farm for over 23 years.

She leaves behind to cherish her loving memory, husband, Rev. J. Leon Newton; son, David Hunter Newton; daughter, Susan Newton Graebe and husband Chris; grandchildren, Robin Hunter Newton and wife Paige, Bradley Carter Newton and wife Kari, Caroline Graebe, and William Graebe; great-grandchildren, Kaleigh Grace Newton, Blakeland Christopher Newton, and Fiona Newton.

JAMES THOMAS SAYLOR

March 19, 1940 – July 21, 2020

Jim Saylor was a man of many gifts and many loves. Jim was a family man. He had three brothers, one sister, four children, two stepchildren, five grandsons, and twin great granddaughters. His life centered around his family, and he showed love and support to them in boundless ways.

Jim was a mathematician. He received his Master's degree in Mathematics at the University of South Carolina and taught high school math. He cared deeply for his students' success and helped many a high school student master algebraic concepts. He was also a school administrator and later served as the Assistant Executive Director of the South Carolina Education Association.

Jim could fix anything. He would ponder over detailed schematics and then execute the task with precision and finesse. He was rarely daunted by a project, no matter how large and how complex.

Jim loved cars, both old and new. He refurbished a 1967 Mustang and a 1967 Chevy Caprice in our garage. He was an avid NASCAR fan and attended races from Daytona to Martinsville.

Most importantly, Jim was a man of God. He served Oak Grove UMC in Swansea as a lay servant and treasurer, developing the most incredible Excel spreadsheets in the church's history.

His family and friends so sorely miss him, but he left us better people because we had the honor of knowing him and loving him.

GARY W. TOOTHE

October 19, 1954 – January 1, 2021

Gary was born October 19, 1954, in Baltimore, MD., the eldest of 4 children.

He graduated with honors from the University of Georgia, having earned a degree in Marine Botany.

Although Gary was raised Presbyterian, he quickly became United Methodist when he married a United Methodist minister. He even sat in on some of her classes at Lutheran Theological Southern Seminary in Columbia, SC.

Often known as the "Spare in the Parsonage," Gary frequently filled the pulpit when asked to do so. His sermons were thought provoking and enjoyable, but he was best known for his Children's Sermons. Even the adults loved them. He served many years as a Basic Lay Speaker, and a Certified Lay Speaker.

He also served on many committees in the church. If there was a way he could help, he was there.

Gary loved his Lord and Savior above and beyond anything or anyone. He worked diligently to be the kind of person Christ wanted him to be. Gary served on mission trips to South Africa, and the Redbird Mission in Kentucky. He often said he gained more from those trips than the people he went to serve.

After the love for his Lord, his wife, his family and friends, Gary loved trains. Especially vintage steam engines. He travelled around the world enjoying and riding on trains and studying railroads.

Gary leaves behind a devoted wife; two children: Mason Davis of Riverdale, Utah, and Stephanie (Jason) Gall of Goldsboro, NC, and their three boys: Cameron, Christian, and Chance.

He will be missed.

STUART M. VANCE

MILDRED BOWERS CANNON

January 31, 1926 – February 12, 2021

He has told you, O mortal, what is good; and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God? – Micah 6:8

Mildred Bowers Cannon, 95, wife of Rev. Dr. Ralph A. Cannon (1929-2008) was born on January 31, 1926, in Hagerstown, Maryland. She was the daughter of Russell J. Bowers and Alma Olsen Bowers. Her friends affectionately knew her as Mimi.

She graduated from Hagerstown High School. Her college and graduate schools included Strayer Business College in Washington, D.C., Lynchburg College in Lynchburg, Virginia, and Yale Divinity School in New Haven, Connecticut. She supported herself through college by working for the President of the Lynchburg College and others like renowned theologian H. Richard Niebuhr.

Following her work in Christian Education with the Disciples of Christ Church in Ohio, she married Yale classmate Ralph Cannon. Married for 54 years, their shared devotion to the church gave them a strengthening sense of partnership. Having been employed in business and in her church, she always counted it a privilege to simply maintain her home and her family, as her husband's career moved them to a variety of locations. She assisted in many ways to support her husband's ministry and all the extra roles he assumed as a leader in the South Carolina United Methodist Conference and wherever he was appointed to serve.

They took pride in their creative and productive children, Cynthia Faye, Jeffrey Morris, and Teresa Lynn. Mimi was always ready to fit in to church responsibilities wherever there was a need. She especially enjoyed music and program planning, and being an active church member. She always felt fortunate that their lives were surrounded by books and music, hobbies and friends.

After Ralph's death in 2008, Mimi continued with numerous church activities at Bethel UMC of Charleston.

BERNICE MOORE CARTER

October 1, 1913 – August 21, 2020

Bernice was born in rural Georgetown County, the youngest of six children of Mr. & Mrs. William S. Moore. A seventh child, also a Moore and nephew, joined the family later and remained until adulthood. All of them survived the Spanish flu pandemic in 1918, but even as a small child she remembered many neighbors that did not survive.

Her father died when she was a student at Union School but her entire family made sure that "Little Bernice" had what she needed to complete her high school education. She later earned an Associate degree from Southern Wesleyan University and then a B.A. degree from University of South Carolina.

She married Clifford Carter on December 31, 1933 and they remained married until his death in 2003. After marriage, Clifford became a United Methodist minister and she became a valuable asset to his ministry with her musical talent. In addition to being a devoted wife, she taught in the public schools in the community where Clifford pastored.

After retirement, they moved to their hometown, Hemingway, South Carolina where many friendships were renewed, visitors, which were many, were always welcomed. She eventually started the Bernice Carter Prayer Group in her home on a monthly basis. This continued until the Covid-19 pandemic halted most of the church activities in the community. She passed away about one year later on August 21, 2020, 40 days before her 107th birthday. Her funeral was on August 23, 2020 — Clifford's birthday.

Addendum:

Bernice renewed her driver's license on her 99th birthday and drove her car until February 2014 when she was 100 years and 5 months old. She became dehydrated, spent her first night ever in the hospital. She then decided she would quit driving.

ELIZA M. CAVE

FRANCES WOODLE FOWLER

March 27, 1927 – June 19, 2020

Frances Woodle Fowler, age 93, passed away Friday, June 19, 2020. Mrs. Fowler was born March 27, 1927 in Conway, a daughter of the late John and Beulah Woodle. Her husband of 66 years, Rev. Barney Fowler, and her sister, Rae Daniels, predeceased her.

Frances attended Conway High School, then Mars Hill Jr. College, and was a graduate of Columbia College in 1948. She majored in Religious Studies and Social Studies, which enabled her to teach. She enjoyed her times with her students and considered it a ministry.

She was also dedicated to the work of the church and served with her husband, a Methodist Minister, in many aspects of ministry. Frances was a dedicated wife, mother throughout her life who continually taught about the love of God and Family.

Surviving include her daughters: Debbie Barwick (Larry) of Pawleys Island, Bonita Gotbaum (Gene) of Charleston; a son, Tester Fowler of Macon, GA; eight grandchildren, David Barwick, Della Mae MacNicholas, Jared Rowland, Aaron Rowland, Jordan Rowland, Josh Gotbaum, Greyson Fowler and Powell Fowler; four great-grandchildren, Parks MacNicholas, Teague Rowland, Dempsey Rowland and Melanie Gotbaum; a brother, Bill Woodle of Elgin, SC and a sister, Sarah Hand of Charleston.

BEATRICE T. GRAHAM

April 24, 1924 – November 7, 2020

Mrs. Beatrice Graham, age 96 of Kline, SC entered eternal rest on Saturday, November 7, 2020, at the Aiken Regional Medical Center in Aiken, SC. She was the surviving spouse of Rev. C. Wallace Graham, a deceased Elder in Full Connection of the SC Annual Conference.

A graveside service was held Wednesday, November 11, 2020, at the Union United Methodist Church Cemetery in Kline, SC with words of comfort by Pastor Warren Murdock, Sr.

NANCY TINDALL HALTER

July 26, 1941 – February 2, 2021

Nancy T. Halter, loving wife of the late Rev. Vincent F. Halter, was born in Columbia, SC to James Samuel and Marjorie Lesley Tindall. She was a graduate of Columbia School of Nursing, served in the United States Air Force where she retired as a Captain, was a stay-at-home mom before returning to the workforce as a Home Health Nurse and Aide Supervisor for DHEC, and finally retired in 2016 as an Aide Supervisor for Carolina Health Force.

Nancy's love for God and people was evident in everything she did. She never met a stranger and would strike up a conversation with anyone standing within a 2-foot radius. She served the communities she lived in as a member and past president of the Pilot Club, a Girl Scout Leader, a faithful church and Sunday School member, and a leader with the AIDS Taskforce. She served as a Red Cross volunteer and made two trips to California to assist following devastating wildfires. She was also active in the Emmaus, Kairos, and Epiphany ministries; yet ultimately, her love for God shined brightest in her role as a pastor's wife and as a pastor's mother.

Relationships with friends and family were of utmost importance to Nancy and she never missed an opportunity to tell you about her greatest accomplishments - her children and their spouses. Nancy is survived by her son, Michael Louis (Kathleen); daughters, Lisa Michelle Halter, Reverend Angela H. Marshall (Lee); brothers, Robert Tindall (Mary Jo), Dr. Donald Tindall (Judi); and numerous cousins, nieces, and nephews.

Nancy is greatly missed by her family who continues to cherish her legacy of love and kindness.

RALPH EUGENE HATCHELL, JR.

December 29, 1934 – November 7, 2020

Ralph Eugene Hatchell, Jr., 85, of Florence, SC, passed away on Saturday, November 7, 2020. He was born in Dillon, SC, a son of the late Annie Pearman Hatchell and Ralph Eugene Hatchell, Sr. He is also predeceased by his wife of 28 years, Sandra Hardin Hatchell and his son-in-law, Samuel Thomas Morris.

Ralph graduated from McClenaghan High School, has an undergraduate degree from Duke University, and a PhD in Psychology from University of South Carolina. He sold insurance later in life and played in the Ed Turbeville Band for more than 40 years.

Ralph is survived by two daughters, Laura Hatchell Morris and Alexandria Hatchell (Galen) Newton; two grandchildren, Ashley Morris (Paul) Calcutt and Christyanah Newton; and three great-grandchildren, Carter Calcutt, Zileigh Calcutt and Hayden Calcutt.

MAMIE LOUISE CLEMENTS HOLDEN

February 14, 1925 – August 28, 2020

Christened Mamie Louise Clements, Louise was the daughter of the late Edgar Lewis Clements and Mamie Lenore Dukes Clements. Louise was reared in the small, rural town of Lynchburg, SC, in a close-knit family with three sisters and three brothers enjoying sing-alongs, church dinners, and get-togethers with friends.

Louise graduated from Lynchburg High School as valedictorian of her class and from Winthrop College with a B.S. in Home Economics. She taught school in Aynor, SC, and then became a Home Demonstration Agent in Georgetown County where she met the love of her life, James (Jim) Carlton Holden.

Married on August 20, 1950, their family was complete with the birth of their daughter in 1956. Louise was a loving wife and mother. She and Jim were devoted to each other and were seldom apart until his death in 1995. Following their marriage, Louise resumed her career as a teacher and retired after 32 years. Calm and reserved, Louise appreciated knowing the wonderful congregants she met during Jim's pastorates. She fit right in, in her unassuming way, singing in the choir, teaching Sunday school, attending the United Methodist Women (UMW), supporting her husband's ministry as his appointments became hers and as Jim wrote in a tribute to Louise, "endearing yourself to the members." Together they served the following appointments: Gilbert, 1952; Edgewood, 1954; Woodside-Berea Friendship, 1960; Berea Friendship, 1961; St. John (Sumter), 1962; St. John (Columbia), 1964; First (Isle of Palms), 1968; Bethany (James Island), 1973; and Asbury-St. James (Charleston), 1980. After Jim's retirement, they moved to Columbia, SC. Louise joined St. James UMC where she served as treasurer; volunteered with annual barbecues, Christmas bazaars, and Meals on Wheels; and served as secretary of the UMW.

In addition to her husband, Louise was predeceased by her siblings and several nieces and nephews. She is survived by her daughter, Elizabeth Louise Holden; her sister-in-law, Gwen Clements; and numerous nieces and nephews.

JACQUELINE HARPER JAMES

July 15, 1934 – June 19, 2020

Mrs. James was born July 15, 1934 in Anderson, SC to the late Samuel Barrett Harper and Katherine Rebecca Harper. She grew up in Durham, NC and graduated from Business School.

She would meet her husband, Rev. Robert E. James, at Duke University where she was employed, and he was a divinity student. Rev. and Mrs. James served at St. John's United Methodist Church in Aiken for many years before retiring to Lake Junaluska, North Carolina. Mrs. James was a devoted pastor's wife and a wonderful and devoted mother and grandmother. She was a fabulous homemaker and cook. She was also an exceptional seamstress and talented artist.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband of fifty-nine years, Rev. Robert E. James; a son, William David James; and a brother, George Harper.

Survivors include a daughter and son-in-law, Becky and Mark Roberts of Trenton, SC; a son, Bobby James of North Augusta, SC; and a granddaughter, Harper James.

PRINCE OLA HUMPHREY LEE****

November 26, 1929 – May 22, 2020

On Friday, May 22, 2020, at the age of 90, Prince Ola Humphrey Lee, affectionately known as "Mama Lee", of 1010 West Franklin Street, Anderson, SC, departed this life at her home.

Mrs. Lee was preceded in death by her parents, John and Florence Simpson Humphrey; husband, Reverend Willie Aaron Lee; three sisters, Vera Humphrey Simmons, Corine Humphrey, and Etta Humphrey Anderson; three brothers, Willie Humphrey, John Wilson Humphrey, and Rev. Larry Humphrey.

Mrs. Lee leaves behind two daughters: Johnnie M. (Clyde) Brown and Deborah Lee of Anderson, SC, and three sons: Willis I. (Belinda) Lee of Anderson, SC, Cecil H. (Willie) Lee of Alpharetta, Georgia, and Dennis (Sonya) Lee of Anderson, SC. Also three sisters: Rosa Lee Humphrey Patterson, Olivia Humphrey of Anderson, SC, and Magnolia Humphrey Acker of Williamston, SC; one brother, Robert S. (Chestine) Humphrey of Anderson, SC; 11 grandchildren, 24 great-grandchildren, one great-great-grandchild; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

A Celebration of Life Service for Mrs. Lee was held on Friday, May 29, 2020 at the W.I. Peek & F.W. Jackson Memorial Chapel of the Unity Mortuary of Anderson with Reverend Leslie S. Davis and Reverend Annie Jackson, officiating. Interment followed in the Anderson Memorial Gardens.

**Mrs. Lee was not included in previous year's memoir booklet as her death occurred after the printing deadline.

VIRGINIA O. ASBURY LeMASTER

February 4, 1919 – January 1, 2021

Virginia LeMaster was born in Germantown, Kentucky. She graduated from Minerva High School, Minerva, Kentucky, studied for two years, at Asbury College, in Wilmore, Kentucky, and graduated from Bethesda School of Nursing, in Cincinnati, Ohio. She was married to Rev. Edwin LeMaster for 72 years. Both felt a calling to go to Africa.

In her nursing career, she worked as a registered nurse in Kentucky and Indiana. They attended missionary orientation at Hartford Seminary Foundation, in Hartford, Connecticut, and then to Lisbon, Portugal for Portuguese language study. Arriving in Quessua, Angola, Africa, she worked as a missionary nurse at the mission hospital and later as a nurse in charge of that hospital, caring for orphaned babies, by providing milk, etc. for the village mothers nursing these babies. There, their two children, Kathryn and David, were born.

After evacuating from Angola, in 1961, when the uprising began for the independence of Angola, from Portugal, she returned to the US, with their children. She was later joined by her husband, Ed. They lived in several locations, including Camden, S.C., before moving to London, KY. There she worked as a nurse at the former TB hospital, and later retired from a local nursing home.

She was involved in First UMC of London, Ky., the UMW, along with a community organization, called Faith in Action Volunteers, providing "assistance to others", in various ways. She had a strong faith in God, with a positive outlook, in difficult times, knowing that God would carry her through.

DOROTHY HABBEN MAINOUS

November 7, 1931 – November 14, 2020

Dorothy Habben Mainous was born November 7, 1931, in Balaton, MN. She grew up with two sisters and three brothers.

She attended Asbury College where she met Edward Mainous whom she would later marry. While Edward was in seminary, the first church they served in the SC United Methodist Conference was Fairview UMC in Easley.

They had three children: Carolyn, Steve, and James. Dorothy served in every church Edward pastored as a pianist, choir member, and a member of the women's organizations. She was a high school math teacher. She was a prayer warrior, a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, friend, and educator. Above all, she was a devout Christian who loved God, the world, and everyone in it – especially children.

Her legacy, in addition to her three children and six grandchildren, is comprised of the many people she touched during her life.

LULA MAE "LOU" SPEARMAN MAJOR

December 25, 1925 – November 15, 2020

Lula Mae "Lou" Spearman Major, 94, of West Columbia passed away on Sunday, November 15, 2020. Born on December 25, 1925 in Piedmont, SC, Lou was the daughter of the late James Earl Spearman and the late Lula Ivadell Sanders Spearman.

Her husband, Rev. William Monroe Major; her daughter, Nancy Major Seals; her brothers, James Dean Spearman and Paul Curtis Spearman; and sisters, Joyce Elizabeth McCullough, Earleen Spearman and Jewel Colleen Sullivan, predeceased Lou.

She is survived by two daughters, Ruth Major Mason (Don) of Irmo, SC; Mary Lou Major Carroll of Freeport, FL; two sons, William Earl Major and Lee Spearman Major, both of West Columbia, SC; six grandchildren, twelve great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

Lou graduated with honors from USC School of Nursing. She retired from the South Carolina Department of Mental Health after serving fifteen years at Crafts-Farrow as a psychiatric nurse.

Lou was a faithful member of Cayce United Methodist Church, where she often taught Sunday school, as her health allowed. She also volunteered at God's Helping Hands Ministry.

Lou and her husband endeavored to make the world a better place. Where faith was concerned rather than merely "talk the talk", they both "walked the walk." They taught us many lessons, most importantly the love of God and family. While Lou is now with her Lord and Savior and happily reunited with William, here she will be greatly missed.

LOIS LESLIE RAWLS McNAIR

November 11, 1925 – November 27, 2020

Lois was born on November 11, 1925 to the late Benjamin Russell and Leila Harsey Rawls in Giddy Swamp, SC. On her 21st birthday, Lois married the love of her life Reverend Carl Webster "Jack" McNair.

As the wife of a Methodist minister, Lois lovingly served alongside her husband the following communities: Cedar Creek United Methodist Church, Bethel UMC, Monticello UMC, and Shiloh UMC in the Fairfield Circuit; Hampton UMC/Varnville UMC in Hampton, SC; Duncan Acres UMC in Union, SC; Gramling UMC in Gramling, SC; Surfside UMC in Surfside, SC; Salem UMC in Ballentine, SC; and Wesley Memorial UMC and Bethel UMC in Columbia, SC.

Lois enjoyed gardening, was a member of Daylily Garden Club and always had the best-looking yard in the neighborhood. She enjoyed quilting and crafting, was a member of the Salem Craft Group and was always in the middle of a project. Lois loved spending time with her children and grandchildren and her door was always open. After retirement, Lois and her husband Jack settled in Columbia, SC where they attended Bethel UMC and were members of the Joy Sunday School Class. After her husband passed, Lois moved to Beaufort, SC to be closer to her children and attended Port Royal UMC. Lois was loved by all and will be missed dearly by all that knew her.

Lois is survived by two daughters, Lynn Barnes and Carla (Legrand) Forbes; one son, Carl (Marjorie) McNair; five grandsons, Patrick, Sanders, Andrew, Taylor and Jordan; and one granddaughter, Erica.

MARY VIRGINIA TOMLINSON CANNON MOODY

September 12, 1928 – January 30, 2021

Mary Virginia Tomlinson Cannon Moody, age 92, died January 30, 2021 in Florence, SC. She was the widow of Rev. Dr. C. LeGrande Moody, whom she married May 26, 1984. They were married seventeen years until his death.

Although LeGrande had retired prior to their marriage, he served as supply pastor for several years in both SC and western NC, and Mary Virginia became a pastor's wife. They also traveled across the US and abroad. They especially enjoyed reunions with LeGrande's shipmates from the USS Texas, upon which he had served as chaplain.

Mary Virginia was born in Lynchburg, SC, the oldest of Ulrich and Mary (Tallon) Tomlinson's four children. After graduating from Hemingway High, she married Fred Cannon. They eventually settled in Florence and enjoyed life together. When Fred became ill with cancer, she cared for him until his death in 1978. Mary Virginia's petite size and Southern charm only vaguely disguised her deep strength. She cared deeply for others. Many remember the thoughtful notes she wrote and the pots of soup she delivered.

She was the mother of four children: Fred Cannon (Linda); Linda Nale (Rick); Rev. Robert Cannon (Carol), a member of the SC Annual Conference; and Nancy Schlachte (Carl); the stepmother of Fran (Dubie) Brown and the late Libby Bryan; grandmother of twelve; great-grandmother of ten.

A funeral service was held on February 3 at Central UMC. Reverends Meg Jiunnies, Thomas Smith, and Derrick Cattenhead led the service.

WYNETTE BENTON STILTZ

February 18, 1936 – October 26, 2020
