

Rev. Tim Rogers

Service of Remembrance and Thanksgiving Preacher

Tim Rogers was born in Manning, South Carolina, the third child of Joe and Kathleen Rogers. He grew up attending Manning United Methodist Church.

He is a graduate of the University of South Carolina, the University of South Carolina School of Law, and Duke Divinity School.

Ordained in the South Carolina Conference as a deacon in 1985 and an elder in 1988, Rev. Rogers has served in local churches for 23 years and in conference level positions for 15 years. He is currently completing eight years of service as the Marion District Superintendent.

Rev. Rogers has been a delegate to each Jurisdictional Conference since 2004, and each General Conference since 2008. He has served on boards, councils, and committees at the General Conference, Jurisdictional Conference, Annual Conference, and District levels.

Rev. Rogers and his spouse, Meri Lyn, were married in 1984 and have one child, Emily. She is married to John Evans, and they live in Georgia with their two children, Rachel and Matthew.
