DISCIPLINARY QUESTION INSTRUCTIONS

- 1. Answering the Disciplinary Questions offers you an opportunity to demonstrate your proficiency in articulating Christian theology and the doctrine of the Church.
- 2. Read and answer each question carefully. Each part of each question is to be addressed. Be aware that certain questions call for examples from your personal experience and/or ministry.
- 3. Each question requests that you address in writing at least one basic doctrine of the Church. You should, at a minimum, consider that doctrine(s) from the following viewpoints:
 - a. rootage of the doctrine in Scripture,
 - b. development of the doctrine within Christian history/tradition,
 - c. impact of the doctrine of the Methodist experience (and the Methodist experience in the doctrine), and
 - d. impact of the doctrine on your personal theology and the impact of your personal experience on your understanding of the doctrine.
- 4. Your answers are to be an exercise in critical theological thinking. Remember that the Discipline requires that you "should demonstrate the ability to communicate clearly in both oral and written forms" (2016 Discipline, Par. 335). Be aware that your reader will take seriously every word that you have written. Your responses should be written with the utmost attention to spelling, grammar, punctuation, and style.
- 5. We expect all of our candidates to use inclusive language throughout their paperwork.
- 6. A few guides to inclusive language from our UMC seminaries can be found at:
