A Note from Your President...

Greetings to my United Women in Faith Sisters,

School's almost out and I hope you are all planning some wonderful adventures for the summer. Spring has been full of some exciting happenings for United Women in Faith.

We had seven Anderson District UWFaith members attend the Charter for Racial Justice Event at Penn Center in February. Cherie Williams, Bonnie Surface, Mattie Jain, Susan Stepp, Gail Gorry and Beth Addis all piled into Cherie's minivan and headed to Beaufort for this event. They toured the Penn Center, went to church on Sunday at the historic Brick Baptist Church on St. Helena Island, and toured the International African American Museum. We had 9 members attend the first in-person Legislative Advocacy Days since Covid. The event was returned to Epworth Children's Home where it had been held for many years prior to Covid. A tour of Epworth was part of the event and the speakers were excellent. We also attended the Spiritual Growth Event on April 12 which was presented virtually. Six people attended Come Together, Be Together on May 17, also presented virtually.

I hope that many of you were able to join us for our wonderful District Day Apart on March 15 at the Anderson County Library. We had a wonderful morning of fellowship and were inspired by a heartwarming message from our speaker, Amy Dill Bratton, pastor of Union Grove UMC.

Now we prepare for Mission u being held at Spartanburg Methodist College July 17-19. I hope many of you will consider going to Mission u this year. The theme is "Practicing Hope Together". You will find registration materials in the June Mission Echo at umcsc.org/women. I will also be sending this information in a packet to your unit presidents. Deadline for registration is July 1.

We would like to welcome our newest cluster leader to our Leadership Team. Her name is Crystal Bruce and she is a member of Mt. Pleasant UMC in Townville. We do have other vacancies just waiting to be filled by one of you! We need a Nominating Committee Chair, a Social Action Coordinator and an Education and Interpretation Coordinator. If you have any interest in learning more about United Women in Faith and being part of a great team, please contact me for more information. My phone number is 864-723-7090 and my email address is lynnf113@msn.com.

Reporting forms needed for the 2025 Annual Meeting can be found in this newsletter. Those forms are due no later than August 31. I will also be sending these forms to your unit presidents.

Thank you all for all you do to further the many missions of the United Women in Faith. It takes all of us working together to be effective witnesses!

Lynn

Bonnie Surface, Vice President

Greetings, Easter people! Hope you are looking forward to a wonderful summer.

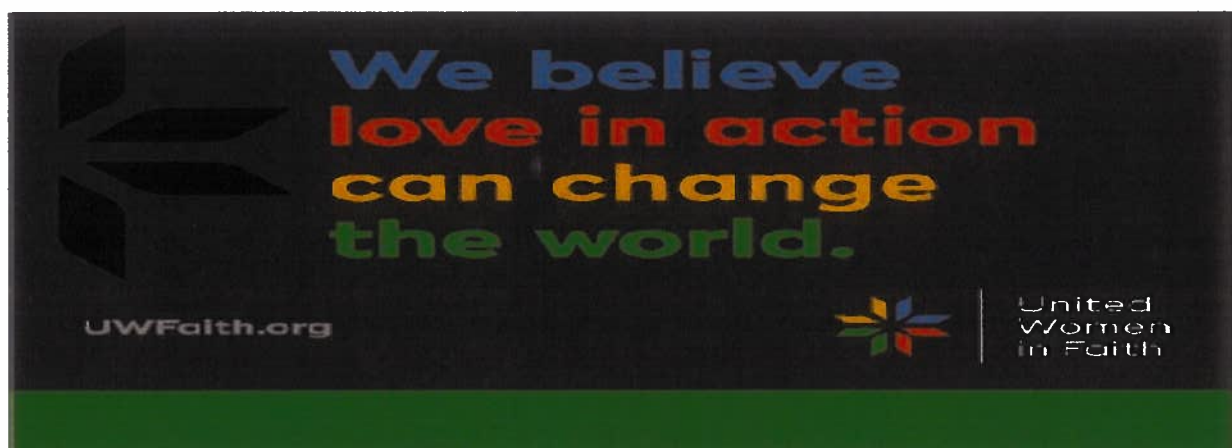

We are planning to have our Anderson District Annual Meeting on September 27, 2025, beginning at 9:30 a.m. St. Mark UMC in Seneca has graciously invited us to their sanctuary, which is fully handicap accessible. After registration and light refreshments, the worship service will begin at 10:00 a.m. We will have a short break before the business meeting, and be finished by noon.

Our featured speaker is Ernestine Hunter. She is the Lay Leader at Easley Chapel UMC, an Accountant, and a member of the Eastern Star. The theme is "Love in Action".

Forms for awards are due by August 31. Presidents will receive forms from Lynn Friedman that can be filled in on the computer if you so choose. Please note that The Reading Program forms can be computer generated, but Carol Weatherford has requested that they be printed out and mailed to her at 104 Terrace Drive, Seneca, C, 29684. Any forms not received by the due date will be acknowledged at the meeting, but they may not be included in the program book.

If you have any questions, feel free to contact me at 540-977-0545.

Blessings, Sisters in Christ

District Treasurer
Eileen Blowers

I'm attempting to show the numbers leading up to our 2026 Budget.

God bless MaryBeth and all the former Treasures who help manage your PLEDGE for our mighty mission with women, children and youth in our communities and throughout the world; it has taken me a minute to figure out the actual flow of things so thank you for your patience with me. The Conference <SCUWF> setup for the Districts to receive 11% of the collected Pledge be our operating budget for the upcoming year. This gives us the opportunity for the leadership team to provide the programs and events throughout the year.

Also thank you to those who have reached out to me with questions and concerns. Please, call/text/or email me anytime. Like me, I'm sure we are all a work in progress.

Durning our 2024 Annual Meeting, the pledges turned in were $7,655 and we ended with receiving $11,067—What a way to show up and show out. Thank you for your stewardship, faithfulness and dedication to United Women in Faith and sharing with others to make a difference. Close your eyes and image someone being touched with your love and generosity. Please continue to be in prayer for UWFaith and that God will bless and multiply our efforts. All Praise and Glory to God!!!!

Notice our 2025 budget was $1,523 and spent only $1,120 so adjusting to 2026 budget to $1,217 is manageable. The proposed budget will be presented at our 53rd Annual District Meeting at St Mark Seneca September 27th.

The Conference Come Together Be Together held via zoom on May 17th was full of inspiring examples of compassion and love.

Debra Schooler Conference President of the SC United Women in Faith welcomed everyone.

Host for the meeting was the Greenville District.

Theme "Imitators of God"

Pastor Karen Jones Mercy Hearts UMC gave heart felt examples and real life experiences to help us engage in the roll models we look up to and whom we chose to imitate.

Devotion Ephesians 5: 1-2 <please grab your bible and read> Shows us our relationship with God and his compassion and love for all.

Cluster Leader
Brenda Davis

After our last district meeting held on May 6, 2025, a few of us thought that it might be a great idea to do a combined project for all the zone churches for the coming year. It is always good to have other ideas to help our neighbors, especially a project that the entire Anderson District can work on together.

So, please put your thinking caps on so that we can get started after our annual meeting. I personally would like to get to know the ladies that make up the Anderson District of United Women in Faith.

Please try to attend the Annual Meeting at St Mark Seneca Sept 27th as changes are taking place this year in the United Methodist Churches.

Thank you for being involved in and for participating when called upon.

Brenda Davis, Cluster Leader (Zone 1)

Program Resources Carol Weatherford

(Reading Program)

Response Magazine is a very valuable resource for members and officers of United Women in Faith. It provides ideas for programs, devotionals, social action and spiritual growth. For example, the Unit at Clemson United Methodist Church recently initiated a social action project to be completed in the fall that was inspired by an article in Response Magazine written by members at Spartanburg Methodist Church. We will fill bags and backpacks- "Agape Bags"- with items needed by unhoused people in both Anderson and Clemson. We will distribute 50 Agape Bags in partnership with A Taste of Joy in Anderson and 12 Agape Bags in partnership with Clemson Community Care in Clemson.

Another great resource is the Daily Prayer Guide 2025. It is available for purchase at <https://uwfaith.org>. Click on MENU in the top right, and then under Resources click on Shop and Download. There is contact information that enables you to ask about the Daily Prayer Guide. The guide follows the lectionary. If your minister also follows the lectionary, the Daily Prayer Guide will prepare you for the sermon on Sunday. I have used it this year and have enjoyed it.

Two other excellent resources are the Program Guide that gives many helpful suggestions for circle meetings and the Mission u Curriculum Book, Practicing Hope. Practicing Hope even counts as a book on the Reading Program. If you attend Missionu or another Bible Study taught by one of the attendees of Mission u, you also get credit for two books.

Finally, if you are not already doing so, consider participating in the Women of Faith Reading Program. The books are interesting, educational, meaningful and many of them are timely. There is a form included in this newsletter to keep a record of what you read. In Plan I, read 5 books, one in each category. In Plan II, read 10 books, two in each category. In Plan III, read 15 books, 2 s in each category and 5 in any category. In Plan IV, read 20 books, 2 in each category and 10 in any category. There are also 3 bonus books that count for 2 books: one in the category in which the book is listed, and then you may choose the additional category in which it is counted a second time. In addition, you may watch 2 Faith Talks and count it as 1 book. If you attended Legislative Advocacy Day or the Conference trip to the Penn Center, each event also counts as 1 book. There are also movies that count as a book (or you can read the book): The Hate You Give, Hidden Figures, and Push Out.

Please use the official form and mail it to me or give it to me in person by August 15 to ensure your name appears in the program.
