For Registration Link, Contact your District Director

Saturday, August 6, 2022, 8:00am - 4:00pm

Rev. Cathy Joens, Congregational Specialist, will lead our “Training the Trainer” session. This will be the morning session covering the different learning styles and how people learn, core intelligences, learning hooks, and creating interest.

The afternoon will be the breakout sessions for individual course materials. This training is designed to cover the readings and materials for the individual courses. You will share best practices in teaching your respective material.

Each district is responsible for ordering a participant and instructor guide for each person for the course breakout sessions.

You must attend both sessions (7 hours) to receive a certificate. All participants will be receiving certificates for Training the Trainer class.

Registration will be on-line and must be completed by July 23, 2022. Late registration cannot be accepted. Southern Mutual Church Insurance Company will provide lunch. The registration fee ($15.00) covers the flash drives, handouts, breakfast and snacks.

If you have any questions please contact Sha’Rome Henry, South Carolina LSM Academy Planning Team in the Office of Clergy Services at 803-786-9486.

For the Common Good: Discovering and Using Your Spiritual Gifts

This course offers a scriptural understanding of spiritual gifts as always given “for the common good”. By helping participants identify and link their gifts, abilities and sense of calling, laity will learn the powerful connection between spiritual gifts and vocational discernment in the context of the mission of their local church. They will also learn how to make spiritual gifts discernment a part of their congregation’s culture and commitment to equip mission-focused leaders who make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.
