South Carolina Ministries With Young People

surrounds and connects youth with Christ's love by equipping leaders to be effective in their local churches and other ministries.

SCMYP provides resources and training to support youth workers, while events such as Revolution and Immerse foster spiritual growth, discipleship and connection among young people.

Revolution provides a dynamic life-changing encounter with Christ through passionate worship and spiritual renewal.

Immerse is a powerful weekend of worship, connection, and opportunities for youth to go deeper in their faith.

Called SC is SCMYP's newest event. It is a day of exploration designed specifically for youth ages 13 through 18 to explore and discern God's call on their life.

For youth leaders, SCMYP offers leadership coaching cohorts, learning labs and other online and in-person opportunities to inspire them to maximize their personal and ministry potential.

Thanks to your generous apportionment giving to the CONFERENCE BENEVOLENCES fund, South Carolina Ministries With Young People is fostering a sense of community among young people and youth leaders, helping them become devoted followers of Jesus Christ.
