For the Common Good:

reminds us that the Holy Spirit gives each Christian one or more spiritual gifts to be used for the common good. It guides readers to discover their own particular gifts and learn to use their gifts to serve others.

For THE COMMON GOOD

DISCOVERING AND USING YOUR SPIRITUAL GIFTS

Leading Prayer:

This course may challenge some of your assumptions, test some of your preconceived ideas, stretch your thinking, and enrich your prayer life. It will, at the very least, present you with an opportunity to grow in the discipline of leading public prayer

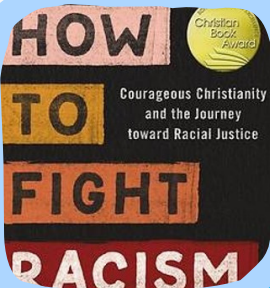

Justice in Everyday Life

A LOOK AT THE SOCIAL PRINCIPLES OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Justice in Everyday Life:

Understanding of the social principles and our need to not just be observers of public policies.

How to Fight Racism:

Dr. Jemar Tisby's "ARC" of racial justice: we grow together in God's world-repairing kingdom work through expanding awareness, relationships, and commitment. Rooted in the Gospel commandment to love all and resist evil, this study challenges any forces that disregard and diminish the embodied lives of persons

Millennial Narrative:

Discover the book of Joel that resonates with the young and 'why' share Jesus' love with the next generation in this troubled world.
