Message From the President

Hello ladies, I cannot believe we are now entering into the third quarter. We have many opportunities to serve, learn, fellowship, and grow this year. We are looking forward to continuous spiritual growth and uplifting. So, continue encouraging each other and building each other up, just like you are doing already. —1 Thessalonians 5:11 (CEB)

Spiritual Growth Event. We enjoyed a morning of spiritual growth on April 6th, hosted by Anderson District.

SEJ. Must I say more about the Southeastern Jurisdiction Quadrennial Meeting in Chattanooga from April 18 - 21, 2024? The South Carolina Conference had over 50 members in attendance. The Florence District showed up in numbers, including six members from the Florence District Executive Team. We did not find it robbery to share our experiences with local units and other members of the executive team. Congratulations to Azilee Dickey, who was elected as SEJ Vice-President.

Leadership Growth. As we move through the year, members participated in Book Talks on the book "So You Want to Talk About Race," Virtual Leadership Development Days, and ongoing Faith Talk discussions. If you have not had the opportunity, take a moment to sign up to attend Faith Talks. Faith Talks can count towards your local unit Reading Program. It's been a busy year serving, and the Executive Team continues to meet in person and break bread together over lunch or brunch to continue to grow and nurture our fantastic Florence District.

Kudos to Come Together Be Together virtual event hosted by Florence District and under the leadership of SC Conference Spiritual Growth Coordinator Angela Allen. Rev. Katherine Crimm shared an uplifting message on God is the Sower...In Love and Mercy. Are you preparing the soil for growth? After the morning message we were engaged in workshops on Bible Study with Rev. Meg Jiunnies, Healthy Eating with Kennia Kennedy from Asbury-Shiloh UMC; Safety Awareness and Prevention with Deaconess Selena Ruth Smith, Lt. Sumter County Fire Department; Garden Tips/Flower Boom with Terri Sumpter from Clemson Extension; Disaster Preparedness with Rev. Cynthia Williams; and Yoga: Body and Soul with Pearl Gordon. I am looking forward to watching the recording so I can view all the workshops. Over 132 registered to attend Come Together Be Together.

Upcoming Events. We are looking forward to fellowshiping with you in upcoming events. Please review the calendar events such as: SC UMC Annual Conference in Greenville, Virtual Charter for Racial Justice event, in-person Limitless Event in July, and we are looking forward to seeing you at Mission U in July.

PLEDGE REQUEST. We need your help! The Florence District submitted a pledge of $16,000 based on the amount of pledges that were paid in 2023 at the Annual Conference. We are entering the second quarter and we are behind on pledges. If you have not submitted your "Pledge Amount" and your pledge payment, we ask that you promptly submit pledge money and mission offerings to Dorothy Murray, District Treasurer. We appreciate everyone participating in events, but let's not forget to submit pledges so United Women in Faith can continue with its missions. Thank you!

As United Women in Faith, let's continue to inspire and uplift each other as we move through the year, focusing on service, learning, fellowship, and spiritual growth. The Executive Team is here to support each and every local unit/circle. Feel free to reach out for support if needed. Contact information is located in The Flame Newsletter.

Faith | Hope | Love | Joy,

United Women in Faith Racial + Environmental Justice Event

The South Carolina Conference United Women in Faith Charter for Racial Justice Committee is pleased to announce our second annual Racial + Environmental Justice Event. This virtual event will be taking place on June 22, 2024 at 10:00am. The issue of concern is protecting historically Black settlement communities from incompatible development. The primary focus will be on the Gullah Geechee community located on St. Helena Island, SC.

Our conference was awarded a grant from the National United Women in Faith to expand this project, so this year we will be presenting two guest speakers. One of the speakers will be Faith Rivers James, Executive Director of the Coastal Conservation League. She will be discussing the devastating cultural and environmental impact of development being proposed. The other guest speaker will be Amy Armstrong, Executive Director and General Counsel for the South Carolina Environmental Law Project. This organization is providing legal assistance to the Gullah Geechee Sea Island Coalition.

Join us in learning about the proposed development and the harm it can cause to this special community of people and their land. Beaufort County had already established this area as a Cultural Protective Overlay District, but the developer is working to end it. Threats of incompatible development are a concern for other Black settlement communities in the Lowcountry, as well. Please plan to participate. Registration information will be available in this Mission Echo newsletter.

A site visit to the historic Penn Center and the Gullah community on St. Helena Island is being planned for President's Day weekend in February of 2025. We encourage our youth to come.

Register NOW MISSION U July 18 - 20, 2024

Spartanburg Methodist College

Theme: The Kin-dom is Among You: Drawing Closer to God and One Another

Join us at Mission U, July 18, 2024, as we explore what it means to draw closer to God and one another.

Jesus told his followers the kin-dom was among them (Luke 17:21). What does that mean? Who does Jesus say will inherit the kin-dom? How do we transform ourselves and our communities in ways that bring us closer to the kin-dom and the kin-dom closer to us? Dive into these questions more at Mission u 2024 as we examine Scripture together and join in worship, fellowship, and action.

Our Mission u 2024 offers two exciting curricula on this theme: "Welcome Home" written by Neomi Fletcher

(Adult study) and Cultivating Symbiosis: The Nature of God's Kin-dom written by Nica Sy. Purchase your copy from: uwfaithresources.org

Adult - Welcome Home by Neomi Fletcher - The adult curriculum uses the image of home to explore how living in close proximity to the kin-dom is like making a home with God. Participants are invited to develop practices for building healthy, welcoming communities as a result of being anchored in the abiding love of God.

Youth - Cultivating symbiosis: The Nature of God's Kin-dom by Nica Sy. In creation, we see the power of symbiosis, or interdependent relationship. The youth curriculum explores the idea of symbiosis between our relationships with one another and our relationship with God. By drawing closer to one another and our world, we draw closer to the kin-dom.

My Chattanooga Experience

By Kimberly Graham

My Chattanooga Choo Choo adventure to the 2024 'Get Together' Southeastern Jurisdiction Quadrennial Meeting United Women in Faith was my first experience as a Board of Directors Nominee. My personal journey was a fulfilling experience. I felt a different type of connection as soon as I entered the building. My sisters were caring, receptive and helpful to me. I was shocked at my reception by the sisters I met as I made my way to the Banquet Room at the Convention Center to attend the Meet and Greet. I was amazed by the wonderful reception of my sisters and their willingness to assist me. I still laugh at the number of ladies who asked me if I had a plate, I grabbed a snack, when I stopped for gas in Georgia.

I felt as if I was with family, even though I did not know the sisters personally, I enjoyed being able to have conversations. I learned a great deal about other United Women in Faith from other states as well as South Carolina. Some women were eager to share with me and explain where they were from as well as if this was the first SEJ.

The Community Gathering Friday Night was our SCCUWF President Clarice Blakeney marching and representing our state made me proud to be from South Carolina. The singing and songs were very soothing and uplifting, yes, I remember the 'Happy!' song. Our SEJ Leadership Team President Sue Owens presiding, I love her humor. Rev. Janet Wolfe speech, made me feel like we were old friends as she shared working with Marian Wright Edelman and working the Children's Defense Fund, where in the past I did some work in Bennettsville, South Carolina. Listening to these ladies fired me up and I was ready for my future as United Women in Faith.

Saturday was a great day of discovery friends from other states, I met so many sisters from Florida, Mississippi, North Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Kentucky and Tennessee. A highlight of the afternoon was Panel Discussion on Racism, I learned more about the affects of racism on others. Learning what happens with our mission funds made me want to give much more. Workshops were insightful as well. I was able to spend some time in the Prayer Room and brought back some ideas to share.

The Celebration Banquet was filled with fun and laughter. Karen George, the Christian Comedienne did her thing and had us all laughing hard. She was a great way to end the evening of a day full of learning. The Board of Directors were announced, even though I did not win the election, I am greater for the opportunity to represent South Carolina. Another favorite for me was South Carolina gathering to take a picture. We represented well and took a great picture and video.

Sunday morning our final day watching the change of command and installation of 2024-2028 SEJ Leadership Team where our own Azilee Dickey was elected Vice President. A proud moment for us. Congratulations Azilee! Excellent job!

My short recap of my Chattanooga Choo Choo adventure 2024 SEJ. I will like to thank SCCUWF, Florence District and Cumberland United Methodist Church United Women in Faith Unit.
